Description Constitution, assembled at Indianapolis, on Tuesday last. Col. N. M. McCaetrer presided, and the meeting was addressed by the chairman, Judge Johnson, of Kansas, H. B. Paybe, of Ohio, Judge Wick, Gen. Dhake and others. Every congressional district in the State was fully represented, and great enthusiasm characterized the proceedings, which were participated in by some of the best men of the party in that State. A letter was read from Gov. Wish, who stated that he was prevented from attending by his official engagements.

Resolutions were adonted proclaiming the right to state of the stand they have taken in their way, they ought from attending by his official engagements.
