It was found that a number of those who had been strong Lecompwith Cuba and Nicaragua, to say nothing of Canada and Nova Scotia, we were under the impression that the special advocates of the increase of our national domain or the "extension crease of our national domain, or the "extension of of the area of freedom," as the phrase runs, would have enough to talk and plot about for the present, at least. We were mistaken, how-ever. Comonfort, the deposed Mexican Presi-dent, is now in this country, and as may be sup-posed, is not in a very good humor about the manner of his "taking off." He, therefore, de-sires aid from our government, and appeals to the sensibilities of those of our fellow-citizens who think the present boundaries of the countril decidedly too limited for our mational count. fort. In brief, Comonfort wants "Uncle Sam" to establish a sort of protectorate over the "halls of the Montezumas," and reinstate him as the ruling power_int, that unfortunate country_-introducing, at the signe time, a "suf-
