MR. BUCKALEW'S COMPLACENCY .-- During the Nebraska excitement, under the administration of Mr. Plerce. Mr. Buckalew delivered a very lengthy speech in our State Senate, in which bed to prove that that infamous meas- pure white light is a blending of all the rays of he atte Nebraska bill-a measure which could not be rendered palatable even to his complacent stomach, without its being sugared over with the those great talents that have been claimed fo being angared over with the age to South America. him by his late biographer, have left behind him something as a momento of his power. Yet prospect of a voyage to South America. Mr. Buckaler conspicuous in the defence of a measure of the ant administration, more odious by a hundred fold than that which made the name of came before him, to which any one can point in Pierce infamous, and it has been intimated that proof of his superior talents. He possessed another trip to the tropics, at the expense of the power of a certain sort, and superstit government, is in view. This time, the services eing more distanteful, the reward dem will be greater, which is well enough, viewing it in the light of a business transaction. Mr. Buckalsw, if rumor can be relied on at all, will used that power among both sexes, it will we in the course of a short time have a resident think, require many a partial biography to de-Ministership in some snug place in South fend. He wasdissolute in his youth, or letters America, tendered him by the prudent and considerate old gentleman who is now at the nal government. As a coincidence worthy of note, and as an evidence of Mr-Buchanan's foresight in such matters, it should be noted that this proffered position is the very ne which "jumps with the humor" of the Senator from Columbia, whose health is bad, and whose means of recruiting it at his own expense are unfortunately very limited. Great indeed is compton-and still greater is Mr. Buchanan ; except a pernicious example. As long as the President has good fat government places at his bestowal he will not lack rters and apologists amongst the politicians. let the task given them be ever so de-cians, let the task given them be ever so de-grading. But with the masses—with the intelli-gent "rank and file," he cannot meet with the same success. Their very number, as well as their purity, place them beyond the reach of management and corruption. The time will conn arrive when the people of Mr. Buchanan's own party will be arrayed against him, as in a solid phalanx, while his only supporters will be the interested office-holders, who will desert him the very moment the sceptre of power falls from d. His future fame, in regard to which, with ill-disguised hypocracy, he expresses so much solicitude, will be placed in their keeping. and a sorry keeping it will be, if the past is any

If we conditions is on the eve may perhaps admit that it was necessary that it should have been allowed to be as it was from the want of a beiter administrative organization, and of the concentration in the hands of the government of the means which have since given bo great a development to the power of Russin. But what was meaningly gained to the State was not to mankind. The advantage cost an enor-mous price. Order without-markey without-and the conditions of the individual cart its shadow over society at large. The Europeror has struck at the roots of this evil. The glory and properity of Russin cannot fullehood. Not these blessings are henceforth to be found in the path thrown open by him whoes name Russin pronounces with repeat of and pride.
