PITTSBURGH:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 3, 1858.

"SHALL MR. BUCHANAN BE SUSTAINED?"—Under this caption, the Pennsylvanian, which is Mr. Buchanan's special State organ now, publishes a long article in regard to the course to be adopted by the Fourth of March Convention.—The Pennsylvanian seems to labor under an apprehension that this great Sanhedrim of the party, will pass the administration by with "dignified" silence, and as far as its action is concerned, completely ignore even the existence of the Lecompton question. The organ deprecates any such action, or rather inaction, on the part of a convention of the "Democracy" of the State which has hitherto regarded the President as its "favorite son." "We ask," says this journal, "those honest, but timid Democrats who hesitate about openly endorsing the Kansas policy of Mr. BUCHANAN at this time, what is to be gained by passing over this matter in silence, or adopting weak, rickety resolutions, which mean nothing?!" It proceeds in a higher key, with its interrogations to those "honest but timid Democrats," and addressing their partizan feelings, asks: "Will such a course gain a single vote from the opposition? Will you silence the foul-mouthed batteries of the Black Republicans by such a popular demonstration as the back-boneless portion of the Democratic party would make out of the 4th of March Convention? Will DAVID WILMOT cease his opposition to the party if no resolutions are passed on the 4th instant? Will LEMUEL TODD disband his Committee, and JOHN W. FORNEY plot treason no more, when the fact is telegraphed that the Democratic State Convention has refused or omitted to endorse the Kansas recommendations of the President?"

It does not occur to the spoils organ that its party, through its representatives to the Convention, should make an effort to do right, without regard to the effect such action might have on the future course of DAVID WILMOT, LEMUEL TODD, or JOHN W. FORNEY. As a pleasant fiction, introduced only for the purpose of illustrating a position, it might be assumed that a majority of the delegates, which will assemble at Harrisburg, are patriotic and disinterested men. It would follow, then, that they should not only "not remain silent" on the agitating question, which the President has inflicted on the country, but that they should speak out their emphatic and unreserved condemnation, in tones so loud as to reach the ears of the administration at Washington? Should they abandon this purpose simply because it would not make proselytes among a certain class of their opponents, thus sacrificing their honest convictions to a sense of mere party expediency? This logic may suit the select circles of the Philadelphia Custom House—it may be, as it no doubt is, all powerful in marshalling conventions and primary meetings in that city—but addressed to a body of sensible and respectable gentlemen, it is grossly insulting. We feel inclined, now that we are in the vein, to quote further from the Pennsylvanian, in order to give our readers the benefit of a perusal of this appeal to the partizan fidelity of the delegates of the simon pure Democracy:

"If, then, no votes can be gained from the opposition, what is hoped to be effected by the soothing process of the wavering and uncertain? Those who now are flirting and coquetting with the enemy cannot be reclaimed by forced concessions. They are either honestly mistaken as to party sentiment in the State, and upon the Kansas question, or they take this matter an excuse for leaving the old party and joining the Black Republicans. Suppose they are honestly mistaken, suppose they do believe that a majority of the Democracy of this State are opposed to the Kansas policy of the President, will the fact that a body composed of Democratic Delegates from every county in the Commonwealth, refused to uphold and sustain Mr. Buchanan and the measures which he proposes for the settlement of the Kansas difficulty, be likely to convince them of their error, and bring them into full and hearty co-operation with the party? No one will pretend that it will. On the contrary such a course will only tend to confirm them in the determination to remain inactive, if they do not oppose the party in this Kansas issue at the coming State election. Again those who are merely using this Kansas excitement as an excuse to conceal their treasonable intentions will not accept a middle course on the part of the Convention. They are for mischief. If no resolution be adopted, the argument used by these men will be 'we told you so, we said the party in this State were opposed to the Kansas policy of the President, we are the real Democracy, there is no obligation resting upon the party to sustain its nominees if they are friends of James Buchanan," and in this way [illegible] the party, and be prepared for still further attacks upon the unity of its organization, the success of its candidates."

THE ARMY BILL.—The first administration measure of the session, the Army Bill, with which it expected to get patronage enough to buy through the Lecompton Bill, has been defeated in the Senate, and the Washington Union howls over the defeat most dismally. We hope that this one defeat is but the precursor of what will follow. One good result of it is thus stated in the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun:

"It has been determined to withdraw the troops from Kansas and dispatch them as early as possible upon an expedition for Utah. Arrangements will be made immediately with this view."

MR. GIDDINGS.—The Washington correspondence of the Albany Evening Journal, writes:

"I never see the snowy crest of Giddings, towering high and conspicuously above his Republican associates, whether standing council among them on the floor, or leading the column through the tellers in the area, but it brings vividly to the mind Macaulay's trumpet-tongued poem on the white plume of Henry of Navarre at the battle of Ivry. Said Henry to his troops before the fight, "My children, if you lose sight of your colors, rally to my white plume—you will always find it in the path of honor and glory."

"Press where you see my white plume shine, amidst the ranks of war,
And be your oriflamme, to-day, the helmet of Navarre."

A FACT FOR MR. BUCKALEW.—The Philadelphia Press says:

"Mr. Buckalew, of our State Senate, has made a long report in support of the Administration policy in Kansas, which report, had it been printed prior to the late Gubernatorial election, when Mr. Buckalew was chairman of the State Central Committee, would have defeated General Packer by about 50,000 votes."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28, 1858.—The Tariff Investigating Committee are very close-mouthed, but their actions evidently show that they smell woolen. They have been artfully misled in some of their best investigations, but are now on a hot scent. Rumor says that writs are out for one or two members of the last House, whose presence here is deemed urgently necessary: Look out for startling developments.

The Union was at the defeat of the Army bill. It insultingly denounces the black Republicans and their neophytes, who have been recently initiated into their mysteries, viz.: Messrs. Douglas, Stuart, and Broderick, whom, it elegantly declares, "pig together in the same sty." It snubs the Democrats, Messrs. Pugh, Toombs, Benjamin, &c., who aided them. It also rejoices at the failure of the volunteer amendment, which, it says, sprung from the loving embraces of Douglas, Hale & Company.

Rumor says that the backsliding of several Pennsylvania Democrats who voted in favor of Harris's resolution is founded on this fact. They are prepared to accept Lecompton if a condition be attached to the admission of Kansas expressly authorizing the people to change their Constitution whenever they please. The south demure to this proposition, but is willing to make a declaration in general terms acknowledging the principles asserted in the bill of rights. It will make no further concession. It is believed that additional Northern votes can be obtained on this condition. If passed, the South will oppose Lecompton, on the ground that it is a case of Congressional intervention. Mr. Keitt says that forty Southern men will resist any compromise whatever.—N. Y. Trib.

NOTHING in the testimony taken in St. Louis, relative to the Pacific Hotel disaster, confirms the report of murder and arson, which has startled the country. The Leader says that Mr. Farmer, of Chicago, a partner of Doane, who was reported to have had $4,000, for which it was thought he was murdered, has arrived in St. Louis, and says that if Doane had any such sum of money he was not aware of it.

THE GREAT REVIVAL.—So very general has the revival in religion become at this time, as to attract almost universal attention, and even the secular press, finding it one of "the signs of the times," is devoting a portion of its space to the record of this great ingathering, and for the most part urging on the work to a glorious consummation. The City of Pittsburgh may well feel a peculiar interest in this great movement, as, everywhere throughout the land, the fact is recognized that the work commenced in the Convention of three Synods held here last Autumn. The New York Tribune, a paper that always reflects the form and pressure of the times, devotes six columns of its Monday's issue to a history of current revivals of religion, and in the course of its digest, remarks: "Just before the close of the year, a Convention, consisting chiefly of ministers and members of Presbyterian Churches, was held in Pittsburgh, Pa., and continued in session for three days, for the purpose of considering the necessity of a general revival of religion throughout the country, the hindrances, the means, and the encouragements. Two hundred ministers were present, and the meeting throughout was one of great solemnity. The time was occupied chiefly with a discussion of 'The Obstacles in the Way of Revivals of Religion,' 'The Means of Promoting Them,' 'The Encouragement to Seek for Them,' and an inquiry into the existing 'Spiritual Condition of the Churches.' A committee, appointed for the purpose, drew up a paper on the subject, in the form of a 'Pastoral Letter,' " which, we may add, was read in a vast number of churches, and followed up by a consistent course of action on the part of pastors and people, which was the beginning of the great work now going on.

We yesterday morning gave the substance of a circular relative to "The Business Men's Union Prayer Meeting," which was sent to us from New York. These circulars are sent far and wide, and are but one among many of the indications of the work that is now going on in that great city. The Tribune says:

"The 'Great Revival,' as all men call it, is now an absorbing topic even for ordinary conversation. The religious meetings that are held in various parts of the city during every day, are matters of common and street talk. Notices of meetings for prayer and other religious exercises have been publicly placarded in many of the places where handbills are usually posted. In many counting-rooms and stores, similar printed advertisements have been hung up, calling the attention of business men and others to the devotional convocation.

Crowded churches can now be counted by scores in either of the cities, and particularly on Sunday nights. It is a time of encouragement for ministers, and they are preaching with more than usual vigor and earnestness.

In New England, and particularly in Connecticut and Massachusetts, an unusual spirit prevails; and the number of conversions, and of additions to the membership of the churches, are unprecedented. Since the first great revival in New England—which was known as "the Great Awakening," and occurred in the time of the celebrated Jonathan Edwards—there has been nothing equal to what is now passing. In fact, the present revival is said to exceed the former—in the extent, at least, if not in the fervor of its work. The memory of Whitefield, and the effects which followed his eloquent preaching, cannot but be forcibly recalled in view of the great numbers of persons that are everywhere professing conversion and entering the church. We are informed that there are several towns in New England in which not a single adult person can be found who has not been converted, and become a member of a church."

Throughout the West, this movement is particularly marked. Everywhere in this vicinity the churches are increasing, and from all parts of the more Western States, our exchanges come to us full of accounts of revivals of religion and of daily accessions to churches of all protestant denominations. More than a thousand conversions have been reported in the correspondence of a single religious newspaper for one week, and a religious paper in New York estimates the number of conversions in a single week in all parts of the country, at fifty thousand.

The great financial troubles of the land have been among the potent means of providence in directing the minds of men to the great subject of religion. May we not hope that this general movement may be the precursor of reform in high places of power? the salutary check of divine providence upon corruption in high places? upon fraud and bribery and oppression in all the nameless forms? If so, then our troubles in business and the general disappointment of the high hopes of men in the world's great marts of commerce will return laden with blessings, and what seemed loss shall prove the greatest gain in all part of this wide republic and in the world.

SHOULD THE TONNAGE TAX BE REPEALED?—We direct attention to the report of the Committee of the Board of Trade on this question. It is an able report, and will well repay perusal. To-morrow we will give the conclusion of the report, on the subject of Discriminations against citizens of Pennsylvania by the Pennsylvania and its connecting roads. The facts set forth in this report ought to command general attention and examination.

CHOICE LANGUAGE FROM THE GOVERNMENT ORGAN, ON THE ARMY BILL.—The Senate of the United States have by a very large and decisive vote defeated the proposition for an increase of the United States army. The commanding general of the army asks for additional troops: the Secretary of War concurs fully in the demund; and the President urges it upon Congress as a matter of public necessity. The Senate say no; and the Senate have a right to speak. The Executive has done its bounden duty; the responsibility rests with the Senate for refusing troops to defend our frontiers against hordes of savages known to be under Mormon influence, and to be exhibiting symptoms of decided and general hostility to our people. The Senate take also the responsibility of jeoparding the campaign against the rebellious Mormons. This, too, the Senate have a right to do; and the people have a right to know that it assumes the responsibility of the act.

It is not at all surprising that the Black Republicans should pursue this course, and that their neophytes who have been recently initiated into their mysteries and worship devoutly now at the dusky shrine where Greeley, Abby Kelly and the Senator from New Hampshire kneel and cry aloud—it is natural enough that this conglomerate brotherhood should pig together in the same sty. But it is worthy of especial wonder" that Democrats should be found to vote persistently with them to defeat the measures of the administration, and in the attempt to force upon it a measure and a policy which would only embarrass it, and which was intended by the majority of its supporters to embarrass it.

The true friends of this administration measure did wisely and nobly in killing the monster which sprung from the loving embraces of Douglas, Hale & Co., and in throwing the responsibility of the disasters which may follow upon the right shoulders.—Wash. Union, Feb. 28.

ANTI-LECOMPTON.—Among our prominent fellow-citizens who belong to the Democratic party, and who have signed the call for the Anti-Lecompton meeting at Smith & Nixon's Hall, are Hon. Wm. B. Caldwell, ex-Judge of the Supreme Court; Hon. Stanley Matthews, ex-State Senator and incumbent U. S. District Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio; Major Gen. Wm. H. Lytle, Democratic candidate last year for Lieut. Governor of Ohio; Joseph A. Heman, editor of the German Democratic Organ of this city; Hon. Jos. E. Eggly, an ex-Representative; Hon. Jos. R. Ewing, an ex-Representative in high standing with the Democracy; Wm. C. McDowell, Esq., (son of Gen. McDowell of Hillsboro); Dr. J. J. Quinn; Jos. Shaddinger, a partner of Wash. McLean; Wm. Hoon, an old county politician and ex-official; Dr. O. M. Langdon; Oliver Brown, Esq., Deputy County Attorney; Judge Flinn; A. N. Riddle, Esq.; Phil. Weaver, Esq.; besides any quantity of what the infuriated Lecomptonites denominate the "damned Dutch," and many of the most influential and active ward and township politicians of the "invincible Democracy." Even the "faithful Irish" are "taking water," not being able to stand quite so much of the "sugar" as the Post Office organ and the Young Men's Democratic Association are trying to thrust down the party thorax.—Cin. Com.

DURING the last Presidential campaign, in Pennsylvania, a Western orator opposed to Mr. Buchanan came down upon him very severely. Says he, "he is a tolerable good man so fur as intellec' is concerned; he has a good mind and a clear judgment, but he hain't got no heart—nary a bit of in'ards of that 'ere kind."

ILLINOIS OPINIONS.—In seventy counties, meetings have been held by the Democracy, and resolutions unanimously adopted disapproving, in the strongest terms, the policy of admitting Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution.

WANT OF DOMESTICS IN KANSAS.—A letter from Kansas says that servant girls are the scarcest article in Kansas, especially in Leavenworth, where they can readily get fifteen dollars per month.

OPERATIONS OF THE U. S. MINT.—The coinage at the Philadelphia Mint during February amounted to $435,360, of which $339,000 was in silver, $72,360 in gold and $2,400 in cents.

POSTOFFICE AFFAIRS.—At industry, Beaver county, Pa., Adam Montgomery is appointed postmaster, vice Jacob Russell, deceased.

Age and Debility—In old age comes creeping on it brings with it many attendant infirmities. Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In cases where old age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, until BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS were known and used. In every case where they have been employed, they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a great agent for this alone, and are used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to repair physical injuries.

CAUTION.—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

☞Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the proprietors, BENJ. PAGE, Jr., & CO., Manufacturing Pharmaceutists and Chemists, 27 Wood street, between 1st and 2d sts., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Druggists generally. fc20-d&wT

Special Notices.

One of the most pleasing, at the same time effective remedies for Dyspepsia and all other diseases arising from a morbid condition of the stomach and liver, is Dr. Hostetter's Bitters. It not only removes the disease from the system, but by giving tone to the organs of digestion, aids them in their functions. All who have tried it acknowledge its excellence and superiority, and we therefore commend it to the sufferer. Dr. Hostetter's Bitters as a tonic is too well known to need praise. It is therefore scarcely necessary at this time to do more than direct attention to this preparation which is certainly unequalled by any before the public, satisfied as we are that its wide spread reputation must prove sufficient to satisfy all of its excellence as a relief and remedy for all diseases of the stomach.

THE undersigned is authorized to offer at Public Sale, on Thursday evening, the 25th day of February next, at the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of Pittsburgh, one undivided eighth interest in a claim against the State of Texas, amounting to about one million dollars, title and revenue of the Youghiogheny Navigation Co., known as the Larimer claim, consisting in part of two first Mark Bonds, and another for $14,000 and another for $3,000 on Company's Works, and 43 Bonds of $1,000 each, owned by said Company. The said Mortgage will be due this year.

The Dams and Real Estate of the Youghiogheny Navigation Co. are very valuable not only as an indispensable connection of acres of the best Bituminous Coal in the country, but for the water power afforded in an admirable position for application to mills and machinery.

The cost of the works was considerably over one hundred thousand dollars. AUSTIN LOOMIS & CO.,

Roca's Remedy for Pulmonary and Tubercular Consumption.

HAVING been appointed sole Agent for the sale of Don GERONIMO ROCA'S celebrated CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, the public will now be put in possession of one of the most extraordinary remedies extant for what has heretofore been considered an incurable disease.

I have the more readily undertaken the agency, from the fact of its extreme simplicity—being an internal application, the action of which is seemingly miraculous, and its having none of those attributes which make up the numerous compounds now in general use.

With the utmost confidence in the success of this remedy, which has heretofore been used in private practice with great success, as is shown by numerous letters and certificates, is now offered to the public.

A pamphlet, containing directions, letters from distinguished individuals, and documentary evidence from the physicians of the hospital of Havana, Island of Cuba, &c., will accompany the remedy.

The great volume in its praise, and publicity is only required to render it as popular as it is beneficial. Address

JAMES HEGE,
Sole Agent for the United States,

Sharon Iron Works.

THE SHARON IRON COMPANY OFFER for sale or rent their extensive Iron and Steel Works, at Sharon, Mercer county, Penn. These works are comparatively new, and in good condition, and provided with ample power and machinery for the manufacture of every description of Iron, Nails and Spikes, and Blister, Shear and Cast Steel. Connected therewith are about thirty-four acres of land, with a large number of excellent dwellings for workmen. These works are located on the Erie Extension Canal, in the vicinity of numerous Blast Furnaces and Coal Banks, affording abundant supplies of raw material.—It is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description, as persons disposed to purchase or rent will, no doubt, wish to examine the property for themselves.

Further information can be obtained by addressing the Company, at Erie, Penn.

An Exchange is Offered.

A VALUABLE FARM in Beaver County is offered in exchange for improved property in Pittsburgh or Allegheny City.

The farm contains over two hundred acres, runs to the railroad and Ohio river, and distant from railroad station about one hundred rods. The improvements are a good dwelling house, barn, and all necessary outbuildings. The place abounds with limestone and coal; also springs of pure water; is under good fence, the land productive and in a high state of cultivation. In addition to which there is wood sufficient to pay for half the place. In short, it is not surpassed
