A. B. McCalmont, Esq., prothonotary of the Supreme Court for this District, heads the list. His aversion to public office has always been great. King Richard was not more unwilling to assume the sceptre, nor Casar to accept the kingly crown. Yet he does occasionally, when hard-pressed, become a servant of the dear people. PENNSTLVANIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAY AND DUBB.—From the annual report of this institution for 1857, we learn that there was, on the 31st day of December last, 174 pupils in the institution of this number 126 are supported by the State of Pennsylvania, 15 by Maryland, 7 by New Jersoy, 3 by Delaware, and 23 by the institution or their friends; of these latter 16 are from Pennsylvania. We also find that of this number 21 are from Philadelphia county and 9 from Allegheny county. Of the 126 pupils supported by our own State, 100 are from the eastern counties, and 25 from the western.

During the year, fourteen boys and twelve girls have been admitted, and ten boys and fifteen girls have left.

The institution is designed to accommodate, two hundred pupils. There are now, as we have

The institution is located in the city of Philadelphia, corner of Broad and Pine streets. It was organized in April, A. D. 1820, and the last improvements, consisting of two commodious wings, were completed in the autumn of 1864. A chaste and simple front of cut stone, with portice and pillars of the Tuscan order, together with two wings, present an extended front of two hundred and thirty-five feet, enclosing an open space which is laid out as a flower garden. There are also two spacious yards—one for the boys and one for the girls—shaded by trees, and furnishing ample space for exercise in the open air. The buildings are provided with all the necessary accommodations and furniture, suited to school rooms, lecture foom, chapel, refectories and dornitories for male and female pupils; sitting rooms, shops, kitchen, etc. The cost of translations is located in the city of Philadelphia, construing a free to the Lecompton Constitution. PENNSLIVANIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND MASHINGTON, March 1, 1858.—The fate of Lecompton is sealed beyond redemption. The Southern men refuse peremptorily to concur in the President's declaration that the people of Kansas, under the Calhoun Congitution, will have the right to modify and change its provisions previous to the prescribed time of 1864, not to say anything of a condition precedent affixed to the act of admission; and the Northern Democrats who have, up to this time, supported the Administration on this question, will go no forther, unless such condition is agreed to and embedied in the law unmistakeably.

PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND Strengous effort has been exerted day after

The institution is designed to accommodate, two hundred pupils. There are now, as we have observed, one hundred and seventy-four pupils under its care—ninety-seven of whom are boys, and seventy-seven girls. The apartment revoted to the males and females correspond in size, so that there is not the for only three boys, and twenty-three girls.

The institution is located in the city of Philadalphia corner of Record and Pine atreets. It

I was also shown letters addressed to their grounds, buildings, and appurtenances has been about $120,000.

The Act of Incorporation was passed by the Legislature in February, 1821, and several succeeding Actibave since been passed. The Commonwealth allows $160 a piece, per annum, for the education and support of indigent deaf mutes of the State. The number of indigent deaf mutes of the State. The number of indigent pupils is therefore limited by the annual appropriation—the number at present provided for being but 173, and the term allowed six years.

While, as patriotic citizens of the Commonwealth, we should be proud of this fine institution, and give it our hearty influence, as a means of great good to the unfortunate in the Eastern part of the State, yet we think it is due to ourselves that we should make some suitable provision for the allike unfortunate deaf mutes in the Western part of our great Commonwealth. As will be observed from what we have said, but 25 pupils from all the Western counties of the State are receiving the benefits of a State education, out of the 174 pupils contained in the institution; and the remaining capacity of the Philaidelphia asylum will only accommodate three boys and twenty-three girls.

We hope to see the initiatory steps taken to innugurate these very soon. Surely none need education, so much as those we have named, and private enterprise can scarcely accomplish the task.

We are encouraged to believe that the sympators of the pennsylvania Railroad Company is in progress to-day, at the following is the ticket being voted for without opposition: J. Edgar Thompson, Joshib Bacon, Thos. Mellon, John Hulme, G. D. Roschgarton, Wistar Morris.—Phila. Bulletin.

Age and Debility.—As old age comes creeping on this of many very excellent people in this vicinity are already enlisted in this cause, and that what is most needed to concentrate this sympathy, is for some of our public spirited citizens to take the lead, and try what can be accomplished by personal effort.
