Hero is the section prescribing the qualifications of voters:

Article 2. Section. In all elections not other wise provided for by this Constitution, every male eitizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, or upwards, who shall have resided in the State six months pext preceding such election, and the days in the precinct in which he may offer to vote; and every male person of foreign birth of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, and who shall have resided in the United States one year, in this State six months, and in the precinct in which he may offer to vote ten days next preceding such election, and who shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, conformably to the laws of the United States, ten days preceding such election, shall be deemed a qualifications of the law."

Mr. Wilson said:

The Senator from Maine [Mr. Fessenden has made a suggestion here this morning that thank him for making. I believe we are having only in Wallington the fruits, the legitimate fruits of the conduct of Judge Crawford, of this city, two years ago. I refer to his action in regard to what transpired in this body, and in the United States in which he may offer to vote ten days next preceding such election, shall be deemed a qualification of the United States, ten days next preceding such election, and who shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, ten days preceding such election, shall be deemed a qualification of the United States.
