RELIGIOUS.—The accessions to the forty Evan-

Tons Down.—Another of those unsightly frame buildings, which contrast so unfavorably with the many elegant edifices on Fifth street, has been forn down, to give place to a modern brick store-room, of large dimensions. The frame to which we allude adjoined on office, and has been in adjustication for years.

Marquette, Portage Lake, Copper Harbor, Eggle
River, Ontonagon, La Point, Bayfield, Superior City, and indeed every point of interest on the route.

These magnificent vessels leave Clevcland on Mondays and Thursdays, as advertised, punctually at 8 o'clock, P. M., making the round trip to Superior city and back in eight days. Sufficient time is afforded to those who are desirons of visiting the great copper and iron mines of Superior. To health and pleasure seekers, the cool and bracing climate, the attractive and romantic scenery, the hunting and fishing affordel on a tour like this, will prove attractions hard to resist. With the facilities which we have for reaching Cleveland, comfortably and expeditionsly, and the attractions offered by such a tour around the Lakes, we look to see the Eastward tide of pleasure and health-seckers diverted into this North-West channel.

Religious.—The accessions to the forty Evan-

Segger. Vesterday morning at about 8 Relicious.—The accessions to the forty Evangelical churches in Chicago, since the commencement of the current religious movement, is stated at from one thousand to twelve hundred. The Cincinnuti Gazette says it is a significant fact that since the "Revival" has been in progress, the number of drinking shops has been materially lessened. Within a week, two or three cafablishments, in the immediate vicinity of a church where Union Prayer Meetings are holden daily, have been compelled to close.

The religious movement in all the churches of this city of Pittsburgh is very marked, and prayer meetings are still attended by great numbers who manifest a deep interest in them.

We learn from the Preacher, that the worthy and excellent Rev. Dr. Douglas having signified his desire to visit Europe during the summer, leave of absence was granted, the Preceptery voluntarily offering to supply his pulpit as far as required. Dr. Douglas is a gentleman who will travel to the great advantage of all who may have the pleasure of gathering from his observations thoughts touching the institutions and prospects of Europe, whether religious on poilt.

rountarily offering to supply his pulpit as far as required. Dr. Douglas is a gentleman who will travet to the great advantage of all who may have the pleasure of gathering from his observations thoughts touching the institutions and prospects of Europe, whether religious or political.

We learn, also, that the Reformed Presbytery of Pittsburgh met here recoulty, Rev. Dr. Black acting as Moderator and Rev. Geo. Seott, Clerk. A Committee to which was referred the subject of establishing a newspaper for the advocacy of the views of this branch of the Christian Church, reported in favor of Pittsburgh as the place of location, and Rev. Dr. Black, of Sewickley, as editor.

Revs. Drs. Gutbrie, Black and Douglas, and Messrs. G. R. McMillan, A. M. Stewart and John Nevin, Elders. Messrs. John Stewanson, Thomas Smith, J. N. Ewer, A. Harshaw, A. Anderson, A. Barr, and James Waddle, were elected delegates to the General Synod, which mests at Eden, Illinois, on the 27th of May.

Twonly persons were received into the M. E. Church at New Castle last Sunday; 13 into Mr. Bradford's, and three into Mr. Swite's. Both Revs. Swift and Bradford, who have been sick, are ngain convalescent.

Tonn Down.—Another of those unsightly frame buildings, which contrast so unfavorably with the many elegant edifices on Fifth street, is being the only opportunity that can over be allored the Pittsburgh public of visiting the crowning result as Cushman's Unrivalted Genius.
