the great masses into the ranks of the only party on which they can rely for a faithful expression of their views. Not, therefore, as partizans would we lament the success of the Lecompton Constitution, but as citizens of a tion, whose name would be thus disgraced by the conduct of its rulers, and whose principles of government would be ignored by those whose pride it should be to sustain them. The greek papers contain a paragraph which of government would be ignored by those whose pride it should be to sustain them. The shout of triumph which will be reised to announce the success of Mr. Buchanan, should be be successful in this instance, will be the death knell of the party which only two years since placed him in power. In the darkest aspect which affairs may assume, there is consolation in the reflection that Wrong will eventually be made Right, even though the present administration may devotes m

THE BLUNDER ADMITTED.—The Journal of Commerce is a paper that cannot be successfully charged with want of friendship for the Buchanan administration, or a lack of devotion-to the sife power of the country. It is, on the contrary, ultra Southern, intensely Buchanan and abjectly partisan in the views generally expressed through its columns. That journal says of the Peace Commissioner project, in reference to the Mormon difficulties, that it is too late, and is now a mere mockery. "Had the Government," it continues, "sent Peace Commissioners last Summer,"
