Sronx.—We were visited by a powerful 1 hail storm on Moolsy, accompanied by strong gales of Wind. We had two showers of hail: the first fall was of dark colored ics balls, some of them as large as a buiternut; a short time after another shower came down of oblong cakes of frozen snow apparently very while and clean looking. The ground was entirely covered by the last shower, though it lasted but three min-utes.—Ceredo Cree.
