ENANCIPATION IN RUSSIA.-The omancipation of 70,000 head. Excitement, of which we published an account in the Gazzites short time since; is still kept up in Bussis. This "despotic" country is setting an example which should not be lost on the world. The St. Petersburgh Gazette publishes an importal decree signed by the Emperor Alex-ander, establishing in the districts of Kiew, ander, establishing in the districts of Kiew, Podotis and Volbynis, a preparatory committee for carrying out the ennacipation of the series in these provinces. One of the members of the local nability is appointed President: Each committee is to consist of two members of each district, selected from the landed proprietors who have series, and of two experienced landed proprietors designated by the head of the local administration. The "sutformat" seems to have more resnect
