YESTEDAY WAS Holy Thursday, or Ascension day, and yery interesting religious exercises were held in the Episcopal and Cotholic churches. Dr. Moriarty lectured in the evening to a very large audience very eloquently on the Indian Revolt. The Doctor with all the fluent sarcasm of an Irishman, described in 6t and glowing terms the tortures to which the Hindoos are subjected by the agents of the East India Company, in the collection of their rents. dia Company, in the collection of their rents Indeed we thought we were listening to the de nunciations of some holy priest against the In quisition, until we heard the great Reformer o the 16th century spoken of as "drunken Luth-cr." Dr. Moriarty declared that the thing call-ed English Protestantism, with all its rum and ed English Protestantism, with all its rum and rice, its soup and its old clothes, had done nothing, absolutely nothing for Christianity in india. It was the Jesuits (') who were calling from the bonds of iniquity such as shall be saved. The spirit of that lecture does no credit to your heart, Dr. Moriarty, however much its wit and sarcasm may do to your head. THE LIFE AND THEMS OF HOME MILETS. By Thomas N. Brown New York: Rodd & Carleion, 310 Broadway."

The name of Hugh Miller is now as familiar as household words. His works have all attained a deserved popularity, and the deep interest arakened by the sad manner of his death must render the present work a desirable one to all most every reader. The work before us is ably written, by one, who know Hugh Miller well.—

In presents a genital and appreciative picture of It presents a genial and appreciative picture of the Life and Times of this marvellous man.

Written by one of his most intimate friends, former co-laborer with him on the celebrate "Witness" newspaper, and a resident in the house with the subject of his memoir, the author had abundant opportunities for studying his noble heart and manly character—opportunities which have proved invaluable, as his volume testifies For sale by J. Our Paper.—The Westminister Herald, published at New Wilmington Lawrence county, gives the Pittsburyh Gazette a highly favorable notice this week, which we highly appreciate, especially as it comes voluntarily from that very excellent religious paper. We shall endeavor to deserve the encomiums of our friends, and offer again this day at our Counter the Weekly Gazette, a fine well printed sheet containing 29 columns of reading matter—Editorial, Select; foreign, local and Miscellaneous news, equal in amount to one and a half of any other paper in Western Penesylvania. All this we offer at the low price of $2 per annum for single copies or $1 in clabs of ten. Come on with the subscribers.

The Washington Reporter, of Wednesday, says:

To Sportanen.—The disciples of Isaac Walton will read the following from the Smethport (Al'Koan Co.) Citizen with a piscatory relish:

A TROUT COUNTY.—M'Rean, with all her other natural advantages, can be said to excel in the great abundance of trout that are to be found in her streams. On Monday last Messrs. N. F. Jones and John Hall, of this borough, caught over 150 fine trout in Cole Creek, within half a beauty size of this nace, in less than few hours.

though they were beasts. We know that the hops who throng the street about the theatre are bad; but it is the part of constable; to arrivest and not to punish. A blow from a club wielded by an enraged man falls with crushing weight on a boy, and no policemen ought to permit birm self, or be permitted, to deal such blows.

In Advance of the Mail -Our pleasant and It is a self-changeable lock.

We were much interested in this brief took at one of our manufacturing establishments, and write this notice for the benefit of those who might feel interested in examining for them selves.

Bencu Warrant -Charles Michaels was arrested, yesterday, at the instance of Fithian Jones & Co., charged with concealing good for the purpose of defrauding his creditors.— After a faithful examination of the matter Judg.

Williams discharged Michaels on the groun that no demand had ever been made on him show where the goods were. Mayor Stuckrath fined the P. Ft. Wayne

C. R. R., $20 for obstructing the streets with their cars a few weeks since. The road refuses to pay, and has taken an appeal to the Common Pleas.

Mayor Weaver held Joseph and John Musgrave to bail yesterday, for trial, on charge of conspiring together to defraud their creditors. The charge was preferred against them by O II. Ormsby

H. Ormsby.

The Mayor had no cases before him; yesterday, that it is necessary to report. A bad woman, named Mary Morris, was committed to jail for thirty days, for disorderly conduct; and held to bail for keeping a disreputable place. WE saw a letter, yesterday, from Dr. Parrish, accepting the invitation of the citizens—to him to give his exhibition this evening. The place is Masonic Hall; hour, half-past seven ALLEGHENV POST MASTER. -It is reported that William M. Stewart, Esq. has received the appointment of Post Master in Allegheny city, vice, Thomas Farley, Esq.

We have been compelled to lay over until to morrow the Report of the Board of Managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum.

The Washington Reporter, of Wednesday, says:
The May Term of Court for that County will commence on Monday next, and continue one week. No civil causes have been set down for trial, as the case of Jones for the murder of Samuel II. White, togother with the other criminal business on hand, will occupy the entire week.

FLOOD.—We learn that the recent heavy rains have done considerable damage to the mill dams and other property situated on the mildle Fork of the Ten Mile creek in the southern portion of our County.

To Sportamen.—The disciples of Isaac Walton will read the following from the Smethport (Al'Koam Co.) Citizen with a piscatory relish:

GUN MARER OF MOSCOW.

Mr. Toombe Lettliwith won't over the listory's of the tall-him case, saying that he apported it in the House and supported it now as high-minded as any in the Union supported it, and the denouncers, of it were unserable slanderers and cowards.

Mr. Hammond, of S. C., taid he had been acquainted with the circumstances of the tall-him case, and they were as Mr. Toombe had stated.

The matter then subsided, and after a protracted discussion, without action on the praposition, the Schafe adjourned.
