personal aggrandizement, however, are at the bottom of all this "sound and fury," and we are glad that the people of the South have at length opened their eyes to the folly of encouraging these annual assemblages, which can do no good, but may be the source of great injury to the section which they are designed to benefit.

The English Bill.—Once for all we want it

The Excussibility understood that the people of Kansas will seors the base bribe offered in the English bill. No matter what a refusal may cost, no matter how long we may be kept out of the Union, or how appressed we may be as a Territory, we will vote down the monstrosity and spurn the bribe. And to the covert threat used by Congress, in case we reject the land grant, we present the superlative contempt of a free people. The majority against the oligarchic scheme will count by thousands. We have not yet heard of a single man in this Territory who dares either to sanction or apologies for the iniquity conceiled in the English bill. Against it we shall poll the united votes of all honest citizens in the Territory, and in that vote will we illustrate anew the integrity and patriotism of our people. Leaveaworth Times. THE Excusu Bill .- Once for all we want is enjoy the opportunity of so deciding the question. There is no intention of having a fair election. Kansas is to be brought in under the Lecompton Constitution; and no matter how the people vote, the returns will be so framed as to show that a majority has been cast for the Englick hill. The board of Election Commissioners contains a majority ready to do the bidding of the administration, and they will be directed to certify that the land ordinance has been adopted, even if they have to forgo returns from every precinct. This is the programme, and it will be carried out. If the people of Kansas will watch the game and detect and expose the work was done. ers contains a majority ready to do the bidding frauds, they will do all, we think, that they will THE NEW YORK Tribune states that Mr Secre

The United States Senstor from South Carelina is not Arthur P. The new Senstor distinguished himself at the battle of New Orleans. He is sixty eight years of age.

The Democratic papers are guilty of a characteristic folly in attempting to charge the reacteristic folly in attempting to charge the responsibility of the recent corruption exposed in Wisconsin, upon the Republicans. All the leading Democratic editors and all the Depreciation members of the Legislature were among the bribed individuals.
