Perhaps my ideas may be wrong, but as I merely sak the abore on questions for informa-tion, I hope they will be gratified." To these pertinent queries the Ailos replies:

I merely ask the above questions for informa-tion, I hops they will be gratified." To these pertinent queries the Atlas replies: "The inquiry is a natural one, and the first thing to be said in reply is that, it is not an easy matter to suppress the slave trade. So logs as wa have a national data ministration which ansourages the slave trade and winks at its piracy and inhumanity, the slave trade can never be wholly suppressed. The work of publication has been restricted for ministration which ansourages the slave trade and winks at its piracy and inhumanity, the slave trade can never be wholly suppressed. The work of publication has been paid for... The most certain means of bringing this nefe-in the Federal Government as will make it the enemy and not the friend of the slave trade. As to the right of search, we certainly never can permit the war vessels of any other nation to overhaul indiscriminately our vessels, for it would lead to innumerable difficulties and abuses. Bt our own Government might if they would, maintain a naval force in the Guif of Maxico of suppressing the slave trade. Our own war vessels might properly overhaul all vessels car-rying American colors, and thus put an end to slave trading in American vessels—and this is just the thing that should be done. There would be no occasion then for British interference: they might hok after their own and we might look after our own pirates, and no conflict of authority would arise. Buit is idle to hope for this just measure or remedy under a Buchanan pro-slavery rule." The Basis or UNION.—In order that the nur

The Basis or UNION.—In order that the nu-merous readers of the Gazette may know pre-cisely the basis upon which the Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches have united, and also that we may put the report of said basis on resord for future reference, we herewith append the following adopted— PREAMBLE AEP EXECUTIONS. WITHERAS, It is understoad that the Testimony submitted to the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, by the Associate Synod, we proposed and accepted as a term of community the adoption of which the union of the two churches was to be consummated:
