LARGE COALITION MERTING AT BIFFALO. -- The city of Buffalo seems to have taken the lead in an attempt at coalition between parties opposed to the present Administration. A meeting was held there on Thuraday evening at St. James Hall, a building said to hold three thousand peo-ple, which was crowded to its atmost capacity, while bundreds remained outside unable to ob-tain admission. On motion of Hon. Albert Sawin formerly Whig District Attorney Joseph Stringham, Esq. a Democratic Republican. Stringham, Esq. a Democratic Republican sectional Administration and to the present sectional Administration and to the present made at the eigned to initiate such a combination. On motion of Mr. Dorsheimer, late Democratic postmaster at Buffalo, vice-presidents from each ward in the eign and town in the county were nominated, representing Whigs, Americans, peorents and Republicans. The secretaries also represented the various parties to the coali-obligations, and was ignorant of the first princi-31.500 from Mr, Stone, the greatest part of which he expended in Pennsylvania in October, 1856, strengthening the hands of the Fillmore atranshouters. He said that Mr. Stone sought his acquaintance after seeing that he had offered and the store of t ad passed in the Twelfth Council of the Ame ples of our government. The second applicant was not able to prove that he had resided in this country 5 years. UPTHE MISSISSIPPI -- A steamer appropriately
