permitted him; the vote given to him was therefore a warm compliment from those who know, and knowing most highly esteem, him.]

The Assembly ticket we think an excellent one. Mr. Foster, of the Dispatch, was renominated with great unanimity, as he deserved to be. He served with great efficiency last winch was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the disposition that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the disposition that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the disposition that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the disposition that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the disposition that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress for a hill of this kind; and from the last control that was manifested at the last gestion, as well as from the present temper of Congress, for a hill of this kind; and from the last control that was manifested at the last gestion as well as from the present temper of Congress, one that nothing but the burry of the clapsosition that was manifested at the last gestion and the son better in setts or single days will be likely to prevent its passes one. 3. Marshal of this district under President Mooroe. He comes, therefore, of good stock, and our personal knowledge of him enables us to ask to make the stock of the public while the country would be ruised by the necessary and the son of th nearly all his life in Pennsylvania. He was educated and served for a considerable time as a Lutheran clergyman, but has lately been connected with the press. He held, we believe, a deputy clerkship under Mr. Shunk while he was clerk of the House at Harrisburg, and is therefore familiar with the details of legislation. Mr. McDowntt is a young man of fine business talents, and abilities that qualify him admirably for the place. He has rendered good service to the Republican cause by his arduous labors in its behulf, and we are glad to see him get this substantial token of roward. Mr. Baran is another of the zenlous young Republican workers, who did us good service in 1855 and 1857. The Bayard family, of which he is

The nonginee for Sheriff, James L. Graham, is one of the most popular men in the county, and be well deserves the popularity, he has earned.—
He has nothing of the taint of the demagogue non him, but has won his way by the ail of his many good qualities as a man, a cilizen and a Christian. He possesses all the Jeffersonian qualifications—honesty, capacity and fidelity—Although the contest for the nomination was warm one, Mr. Graham has come out of ithough responsibly, without having given offence to any one, and this is a high compliment of which any orably, without having given one of the bury one, but fear the ruffians will evince their usual dispatched in an inglet feel proud.
