

The Port Office at Crown Point... did you get? Oh, Mr. Herr, how well you did get for such an office as to say of Mr. Buchanan...

The rumors relative to the Post Office... which have recently been introduced... a character as to indicate a control over the President's views in the matter...

And speaking of the Union House... which is a document which was published in Washington, touching certain matters here, which we have to lay before our readers...

Mr. Herr's reply to the resolution adopted by the House of Representatives... the following text: "Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to communicate to the House all the information...

The only information on this subject... which has been in the possession of this department... since it has been in my charge...

Very respectfully,
Your most obedient servant,
Hubert C. Jones,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. James L. Orr,
House of Representatives.
