Tun Post Office Department has just prepared the following statement of leiters returned here, addressed to boyu lottery and other firms, from April 1, to June 19, 1858:

JUDOB ARNY Of KANSAS, Well known to many of our readers, was in town yesterday. His en route for Washington. He thinks that the troubles in the vicinity of Fort Scott are not yet settled, and that there will be more blood shed. He reports crops as looking very fine, and corn much beiter and more forward the in Illinois. He says that it did not rain half so much in Kansas as in this State, and as the face of the country is mudualing, rolling prairie, water runs off readily, and does not remain on the surface to drown out the crops as on our own dead-level prairies. Emigration is pouring into the Territory, but not so fast as last year. It is kept back by the prevalence of the hard times all the ters that to the West, may be anticipated. He was present two dress at the lengt tig.
