PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 26, 1858.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

City and News Items.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

Yesterday morning, the Court delivered its charge to the jury in the Ross perjury case.—After an absence of some two hours, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Patrick Meely, charged with larceny, was discharged, the Grand Jury having ignored the bill.

Com. vs. Robert and Silas Sample; indictment conspiracy to abduct and seduce Miss Matilda Gass, daughter of Sebastian Gass. The parties reside in, McCandless township. Robert Sample is a married man, with two children; Silas is a single man. It is alleged that during April last, the defendants conspired together to carry away and seduce Miss Gass, under pretence that Silas was to marry her; that she was taken on board the steamer Argonaut, to go to St. Louis; that Silas left the boat at the wharf, and that Robert Sample induced the girl to proceed with him to St. Louis, and that during the trip Robert seduced her.

Sebastian Gass, father of the girl, testified that during March last, Robert Sample induced his daughter Matilda to go to his house and attend his wife, who was ill; Mrs. Sample was her cousin. Matilda remained seven weeks at Samples, and a day or two after returning home, she started to the city, to market, with her mother; she did not return for about three weeks.

Mrs. Gass testified that while in the city at market, with her daughter, on the 22d of April, Robert and Silas Sample came to her father-in-law's, near Manchester, where she was stopping, in the evening; after some conversation with Matilda, they left. Next day they came again.—Robert asked Matilda if she would go along with them; did not hear the answer. asked them what was going on—that I thought they had a notion to run off; Silas said they would not run very far or very fast; Robert again asked Matilda to go; said I would not allow her to go; after dinner Robert again asked Matilda to go; he said he wanted to go home that day, but was desirous of seeing Silas and Matilda safe on the boat. Witness then went on to tell that they all proceeded up to the market in Allegheny—Silas and Matilda in the wagon and Robert and herself walking; on the way up she asked Robert what they meant in acting as they did—that it didn't look well; he replied that Silas had got tired working at home and had made up his mind to leave. When they got to the market the defendants and Matilda started off down Federal street, and she (the witness) went home.

The cross-examination was unimportant.

Marshal Hartman, clerk of the steamer Argonaut, testified to Robert Sample engaging passage for St. Louis, April 24th, for himself, Silas Sample and Matilda Gass; before starting they wanted the passage money for Silas refunded, as he did not want to go; he refused to do so. Robert Sample and Matilda Gass went on the boat to St. Louis; Silas did not go.

Capt. G. W. Neare, of the steamer Rochester, testified that Robert Sample took passage at St. Louis for Pittsburgh, about the 6th of May, for himself and a lady, purporting to be his wife; they occupied the same stateroom. Witness identified Silas Gass as the lady.

Matilda Gass was then sworn. She testified to similar facts, in regard to the first part of the case, as previous witnesses. (Two letters were shown witness; these letters were delivered to me by Robert Sample. (Mr. Carnahan, for the prosecution, offered to read the letters to the jury, as evidence of an overt act of one of defendants, in pursuance of a conspiracy; Mr. Swartzwelder, for defence, objected. Objections overruled, and the letters were read. They purport to have been written by Silas, and are good specimens of pathetic love epistles. The writer calls Matilda his "dear wife" in the letters some twenty or thirty times, and says she will not be Matilda Gass very long, &c., &c.)

Court adjourned.

In the afternoon Matilda Gass resumed her evidence—

Received the first letter while I was at Sample's; showed it to Mrs. Sample, and she saw the reply I wrote; the second I got the day I went home; wrote the reply the same day: directed the replies to Silas Sample. Witness then went on to state the circumstance of coming to the city to market, and the conversation with the Sample's at her grandfather's, near Manchester, on Thursday evening had a talk with Robert; he asked me to go along with Silas, and I said I would. A short time before noon Friday, saw the Samples at grandfather's; Robert said for me to get ready and come along; told my mother Friday morning about going away; she was unwilling that I should go; when Robert asked me to get ready, mother said I should not go; mother asked what we were going to do; neither Silas nor Robert made any reply; had no clothes except what I bought that morning; Silas remained on the steamer at the wharf about three or four hours; did not see him after supper; went on the boat to go away with Silas; supposed he was going because Robert told me so; expected to travel as Silas' wife; when the boat started Silas was not aboard; wanted to leave the boat on Friday evening and Saturday morning, but Robert would not let me; he said he had paid the passage and could not afford to lose the money; the boat went to St. Louis; lodged at a hotel in the city; slept in the same room with Robert Sample; returned to Pittsburgh at my request; Robert was willing to return; Robert told me when I got home that I should tell them I had been to Wheeling with another man and women; he said that if I didn't tell that he would shoot me; the boat arrived at Pittsburgh on a Saturday night; staid all night on the boat and went home Sunday morning; when the boat was about to start to St. Louis, Robert said Silas had taken sick and got sorry, did not want to go because Silas was not there.

Cross-examined—Knew Silas Sample a good while before speaking to him; the first time we spoke was when he brought me home from Robert's; Robert asked him to take me home; on the way, did not talk about marrying; did not speak to Silas after he took me home till I got the letter; never made any advances to Robert while I was at his house; was not present when the last letter directed to me was written; do not know that Robert wrote it; did not hold a candle while he wrote it; had no conversation with Silas, on my way to the boat, about marriage; when the boat arrived at Cincinnati, a lady who occupied the same stateroom with me left the boat, and Robert occupied the same room from there to St. Louis.

James Campbell, sworn—Robert and Silas Sample stopped at my tavern in Allegheny on Thursday, 22d April; Silas stopped there on Friday night; Robert was not there; Silas said Robert had paid his passage to Utah.

The Commonwealth rested here, and Mr. Swartzwelder opened for the defence. He contended that the Commonwealth had failed to make out a case of conspiracy, as there was not a tittle of evidence to show any complicity on the part of Silas in the base transaction—that it appeared to him that it was rather Silas that was the inveigled party, and not the girl. There was an indictment against Robert for adultery, and he would be tried on that, but Silas must not be made to suffer for Robert's bad deeds.

Catharine Myers testified in regard to improper conduct of Matilda while at Sample's house; that she made advances to Robert, putting her arms around his neck, &c.

Rev. McAboy testified that he did not believe the letters produced in Court were in Silas' hand-writing. He also testified to the good character of Silas.

Anna Stephens testified that Matilda was rather wild among the men.

Samuel McCaslin, G. P. Willison, Wm. Dunlap, Cyrus Whitsell and Hugh Crummy testified to the good character of Silas.

The defence then rested, and after the arguments of counsel and charge of the Court, the case was submitted to the jury.

The Monongahela Republican says: "The wheat in our valley promises to be an abundant crop. The weevil has appeared in some fields, but the general impression is that not much injury will result from their depredations. The corn, since the rain has ceased, bids fair to be good; but the quantity planted is not near so large as last year. The fruit will be almost a total failure, but the berry crops, such as raspberries, blackberries, &c., will be abundant—beyond all precedent. What little fruit remained after the late frosts has been destroyed by the sting of certain insects that abound on almost every tree.

There was not a single Court-commitment at the jail yesterday, but the usual number of disorderly cases—none worthy of special note.—There appears to be considerable discussion among those interested in the matter as to the power of Magistrates to commit persons for the offence of "disorderly conduct," since the discharge of Baptiste, the other day, by Judge McClure, although his Honor did not decide upon the merits of the question, but merely on a technicality—the validity of abbreviations on commitments.

Washington, June 23, 1858.—It is now believed that the editor of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, James P. Barr, Esq., has decidedly the best chance for the appointment to the post office at that place. Judge Black, the Attorney General, strongly favors his aspirations. I am glad to notice this favorable change, because Barr is a fine fellow and a sound Democrat. His appointment would give general satisfaction at the West. Senator Bigler, on the other hand, strongly presses Mr. John C. Dunn, at present chief clerk in the office.—Phil. Press.

The Irwin Property in Allegheny City.—The beautiful seats for private residences, in Mr. John Irwin's plan of his "Rope-walk" Property, are being steadily disposed of by Mr. Davis, at his auction rooms. The interest taken to secure homesteads in this delightful location is assurance of the elegance and taste with which the lots will be uniformly improved. Those who purchased at the former sales design to speedily build for themselves; and as the proprietor is determined to dispose of all, it will not be long before this section of our sister city, with its broad Common and spacious avenues, will become a garden spot of beauty, in its suburban style of architecture. On next Tuesday evening, at his auction rooms, Fifth street, Mr. Davis will sell the remaining lots, which are of various sizes, as described by advertisement in our columns. Plans can be had at the auction rooms.

A Fine Summer Resort.—We can cheerfully recommend the different points along the Valley of our beautiful Allegheny as the most fascinating of roads to travel upon at this present season, for it will carry those in search of pleasure through scenery of the most romantic and varied kind, and our esteemed friend, Mr. G. W. Smith, keeps an excellent public house twelve miles above the city, where you can be promptly accommodated with the necessary refreshments. We have visited this house, and can pronounce it the pleasantest place to take an excursion to in this vicinity.

A young man hailing from Pittsburgh, by the name of Samuel Patton, went into the tailor shop of Mr. Samuel Shook, on Tuesday morning, and in the presence of a decripid man who was at work, stole a pair of pants and made off. The alarm and chase was given, and after running a short distance and throwing the pants into the school yard, he was caught by William Hunter, put into the custody of Constable Reed and marched over to occupy the stone house in Beaver for awhile. We understand that Patton has a wife living in Pittsburgh.—New Brighton Times.

The body of a man was found floating in the river at East Liverpool, Ohio, supposed to be forty years of age, about six feet high, with red hair. The following articles were found on his person: one silver watch, pocket knife and other articles; had in his pocket a slip of paper marked, "Mr. Dyer's grocery bill, $3,03"; had on his left arm a female figure, and on the right an eagle and stars, and on right hand a gold ring He is supposed to be from or near Pittsburgh.

Collins Park.—A grand time may be expected at Collins Park to-day, at the exhibition for the improvement of horses, as will be seen in our advertising columns. A premium of a beautiful silver cup, worth $40, is to be awarded. A foot race will also take place, $10 to be given to the winner. A special train leaves for the Park at two o'clock this afternoon

An engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a day or two since, met with an accident at Altoona, while oiling the wheels of a locomotive. He was under the engine, when it was accidentally moved, throwing him across the rail, and severing one of his legs from his body. His wounds were dressed by a surgeon from this city.

Excelsior Hall Re-Opened.—The ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church, worshiping in Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, having cleaned, painted and carpeted the Hall, it will be open for public worship to-morrow, (Sabbath,) the 27th inst. Services regularly hereafter by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Plumer.

Venango.—The democratic ticket in Venango is as follows:

Assembly, Arthur Robison; Associate Judge, J. J. Kilgore; County Commissioner, Samuel Weikel; Auditor, John McCrea. Congressional Delegates were instructed for J. L. Gillis.

"Benton" Kane was held to bail in $300, yesterday, before the Mayor, to answer the charge of assaulting Mr. Edward Campbell. Mr. Campbell has recovered from the effects of the wound sufficiently to be about.

The jury (except such of them as were engaged in the conspiracy case) who have been in attendance three weeks, were discharged, with the thanks of the Court, yesterday afternoon.

"Nick of the Woods" is to be produced at the National Theatre to-night, with a new play, "Mother Bailey, the Heroine of Connecticut," for an afterpiece.

Iron City College.—The merchants of our city have confidence in this college, and to have graduated there is a strong recommendation.

A German died at Mercy Hospital, Friday evening, from the effects of sun stroke.

Two Grand Pleasure Excursions
TO
Mackinaw, Georgian Bay and Around
LAKE SUPERIOR.

THE SPLENDID STEAMER LADY ELGIN, Capt. Turpiss, Master, will make two Pleasure Excursions, as above, the present season, leaving Chicago and Collingwood as follows:

First Excursion—Leave Chicago, Tuesday, July 13, at 8 o'clock P. M.
Do do Leaves Collingwood, Saturday, July 17, at 8½ o'clock P. M.

Second Excursion—Leaves Chicago, Saturday, July 31, at 8 o'clock P. M.
Do do Leaves Collingwood, Wednesday, Aug. 4, at 8½ o'clock P. M.

On each of these excursions the Lady Elgin will make landings at the several points on the west shore of Lake Michigan, as far north as Two Rivers. Those she will proceed through the beautiful Island scenery intervening between that point and Mackinaw, at which place sufficient time will be given to enable the passengers to visit and examine the various natural curiosities of that famous Island.

From Mackinaw the Lady Elgin will proceed to Georgian Bay, remaining at Collingwood one day, to afford passengers an opportunity to visit Lake Simcoe, over the recently completed Huron Railway. Thence passing among "The Million Islands" of the Bay, she will proceed up the St. Mary's River, and through Lake George to the head, where sample time will be given to examine the Town, the Falls, and the great Ship Canal connecting Lake Superior with the Lower Lakes.

Passing through the Canal, the Lady Elgin will proceed on her voyage to Superior City, on St. Louis Bay, at the extreme Western limit of Lake Superior, taking in the way, the famous Pictured Rocks and Grand Island, Isle Royale, Apostle Islands, to her final destination. At Eagle River time will be given the excursionists to visit the famous "Porcupine Mountains" and at Ontonagon a sufficient delay will be made to visit the city.

The Lady Elgin will remain one day at Superior City—Thence she will coast down the north shore, passing the new and thriving towns of Clinton, Buchanan, Huntington, Encampment, Beaver Bay and Saxon. She will also call at Fort William, the Station of the Hudson's Bay Company, and at Isle Royal. Thence on her homeward trip, she will call at Collingwood, to give excursionists from the East an opportunity of returning home by the nearest route.

The Proprietors, Commander and Officers will exert themselves to render these excursions the most pleasant and attractive of any ever made around the Lakes. The entire sailing distance will be about three thousand miles, every portion of which embraces some of the wildest, most romantic and beautiful scenery upon the North American Continent. For recreation and health no other summer trip is to be compared with it, while it will also afford to the tourist ample opportunity of gaining information respecting a country now but little known, possessed of most wonderful resources, and which, within a few years, must become no less famous for its wealth, than it now is for the boldness, freshness and beauty of scenery.

In order to give the fullest opportunity for this, or for any other purpose of delay, the proprietors have resolved to permit excursionists having tickets for the round trip, the privilege of remaining over, and returning on any subsequent trip of the Lady Elgin.

[Items by our Special Reporter.]

The public mind, hoping but still doubting the success of the earnest efforts to fabricate a Machine capable of sewing, which had been put forth in many localities, has hailed as the ultima thule of labor in that direction each succeeding combination and improvement brought to its notice. Hence, there is not a single patent of this kind, but has received the strongest commendations from the press and from distinguished individuals, and yet the march has been forward and at the present time those machines which were once thought an fait, complete, unsurpassable, have fallen into desuetude and disrepute. We have never seen more perfect, thorough, quick, quiet or elegant machines than those of Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson, the last which have been brought to our notice, and while we may safely predict the announcement of others "yet to come," we will be allowed to state that this is "all sufficient" for any purpose to which it can be applied. Its work is simple and beautiful, economizing thread, thorough, firm and durable, and the machine itself is a model of mechanical excellence, ornamental as furniture and quite portable. Mr. Alex. B. Reed, of No. 68 Fifth street, is agent for this city, and those who call upon him will be gratified by witnessing the operation of the machine, under the auspices of a polite and attentive gentleman, amply qualified to explain every feature of the subject.

W. C. Ellis, Cavarly hotel, has come to the public as the proprietor of the popular Shirt manufactory and store at No. 21 Fifth street, is now the agent for Grover & Baker's celebrated Sewing Machine, a most ingenious, simple and effective affair, commanding the highest encomiums wherever tested. The different varieties of this article, comprehending the plain, the elegant and the elaborate in finish, may be seen at the above number, where Mr. E., himself, will be found, ready to wait with characteristic politeness upon all who call.

Chester, the Merchant Tailor, No. 88 Wood street, has built upon a sure foundation a business of the highest character, in extent as much as in the description of his patronage. An indefatigable, attentive and experienced Merchant Tailor, he gives personal supervision to his business, and complaints are never heard against his work. He has on hand at present a fine assortment of Gents', Youths' and Boy's clothing, adapted to the season and of the latest fashion.

Boots and Shoes, big and little, plain and rechercher fine and coarse—all durable, all well made—in infinite quantity, may be seen at Carnahan & Co's, No. 140 Wood street, and Diamond Square. This is one of the largest, best selected, most varied and cheap assortments in the city, and we recommend it to the public, confident that Mr. Carnahan and his assistants will be found a pleasant and accommodating dealers as the trade possesses anywhere.

Promptness, independence and energy, never lost sight of, practiced upon throughout his business career, have led to the present results exhibited in the fine establishment of F. Mertz, Federal street, near the Diamond, Allegheny city. Mr. Mertz is one of our leading boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers, and his goods are in the greatest demand both from the retail and wholesale custom. There are few larger or better supplied establishments in the country, we are certain, none of fairer reputation than this.

It is really refreshing in these days of rigorous beat to imagine a paradise of icebergs, although a frigid elysian like that is perfectly non-available. The most sensible course we can pursue is to repair to Messrs. Porter & Smith, Girard House, Smithfield street, eschewing woolens and all other warm fabrics, and purchase a general assortment of their cool, neat and easy-fitting shirts, a loose and airy coat, and such other indispensables as properly belong to the season.

On the first floor of No. 21 Fifth street, the reader will find the tastefully-arranged and beautifully-decorated reception room of Mr. Cargo, the Ambrotype and Photograph artist. Ladies who call will realize a special convenience in this arrangement, as one of their own sex superintends this apartment, ready at all times to wait upon her visitors. Mr. Cargo is an accomplished and enterprising artist, every way worthy of the support of our public.

Besides the quaint, ancient, time-worn newspapers we have noticed heretofore, the visitor to George F. Schochman & Co.'s Lithographing establishment, on Third near Market street, will find a number of specimens of the art, well worthy his attention. This firm turns out most excellent work, whether Show Bills, Views, Bank Checks or Drafts, Railroad printing, or general Lithographing, and we are glad to know that it is very extensively patronized.

We take this opportunity of presenting the following certificate of the efficacy of Dr. Bowman's Vegetable Compound—one testimonial of a great number voluntarily rendered the best medicine of the day for Lung and Throat diseases:

Bowman & Co.—My sister has taken your Vegetable Compound, and she is well. She had been down with consumption for two years, but is now able to go about her work. Persuaded us to use it for five years—has taken three bottles of your Compound and it cured her. We all believe it has not an equal for lung disease.

Butterfield, Ohio. James Robinson.

Mr. Adams, of the widely known gallery at No. 84 Fourth street, is engaged in the cheap picture business, and the public can obtain of him work of first rate character at more nominal prices—in fact, we think, at too low rates. Mr. Adams stands high as an artist, his pictures universally giving satisfaction. His assistant is at attentive and polite as him self, and no one will regret a visit to their gallery.

As this is the gala season, and festive demonstrations, public and private, are becoming numerous, it is of especial moment that a faithful and intelligent chronicler should be at hand. Permit us to recommend Mr. L. Y. Clark—"The City Pedestrian"—whose acquaintance with the city, experience, indefatigable industry, and exceptional facilities, render the man, of all others, to employ in circulating notices for parties, weddings, &c. His residence is on Fayette, near Hand street, where in attention may be had.

The liquor business, as conducted by James Bryar, Esq., of No. 135 Liberty street, is devoid of the strongest objection ever urged against it, as no article is to be found on the counters of this establishment. As the stock is large and embraces every variety, is well assorted and put at the lowest figures, it should be the first object of dealers coming to the city to make his acquaintance. He will be found a substantial and honorable proprietor.

The Love of Praise.—

"The love of praise, howe'er concealed by art,
Reigns, more or less, and glows in every heart;
The proud, to gain it, toils on toils endure,
The modest shun it but to make it sure."

It is our province to praise the garments made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rogers & Wick, No. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

The attention of cash buyers is directed to the fact that Carnaghan, Allegheny City, is now offering unusual inducements in his stock of well made clothing, furnishing goods, &c., for men and boys. Examine his stock and prices.

Dr. McLane's Liver Pills.—When the proprietors, Fleming Bro., of Pittsburgh, Pa., of this invaluable remedy purchased of the late inventor, the medicine which deserved the name, for the cure of Liver and Bilious complaints, notwithstanding the great prevalence of this disease in the Valley of the Mississippi and West particularly, where the patient is frequently unable to obtain the services of a regular physician, and rely was required at once safe and effectual, and the operation of which could in no wise prove prejudicial to the constitution. This remedy they supplied in the Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, and has for a long and patient term of years been fully tried. Always beneficial, not a solitary instance has ever occurred in which its effects have been injurious. The intention of an agent to substitute a spurious pill, is what nothing in common with the quack nostrums imposed upon the public by shallow pretenders to the medical art. Experience has now proved, beyond a doubt, that Dr M'Lane's Pill is the best remedy ever prepared for the Liver Complaint.

☞ Purchasers should be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of Pittsburgh, Pa. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Worm Specific, can be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

The great drawback to persons emigrating to the extreme Western country, is the great fear they have of the Fever and Ague—the most direful of all diseases. Every day we hear of persons attacked by this disease and immediately start for home, in search of medical and healing relief. In view of the great demand for a remedy, Dr. Hostetter has presented his celebrated "Bitters," whose cures and at Ontonagon a sufficient delay will be made to visit the city. in all cases of this disease, to the public. Thousands of persons have been cured of these complaints by this new discovery. All are invited to give it a trial. Principal office 206 Washington street, Pittsburgh, Pa., and for sale by DR. GEO. Wellsville, N. Y., June 25.—The Masons celebrated St. John's Day yesterday, and after an ovation adjourned to a large ball for dinner. About 700 persons had entered the room when about half the floor gave way, precipitating about 300 to the floor beneath. At the same instant the floor above came down, with a quantity of cutlery, fanning mills, lumber, &c., burying the mass of people in ruins. Fortunately no one was killed, but from 40 to 50 were wounded, about 20 seriously. Mr. & Mrs. Metcalf, of Wellsville, Mrs. Daniel Dexter, of Independence, Mrs. Johnson, of Friendship, Mrs. Colvin, of Bingham, Pa., are reported as dangerously injured. At noon to-day all the injured were alive and most of them comfortable.

St. Louis, June 25.—The river fell about one foot yesterday, and is receding at the rate of half an inch an hour. The upper streams are falling. Weather very warm. Yesterday was the warmest of the season, the thermometer at 2 P. M. being 95° in the shade.

Boston, June 25.—James McGee was executed at noon to-day in the jail yard, for the murder of the Deputy Warden, Mr. Walker, in the State Prison 15 months since. READ! READ! READ!—"To afflicted read," The following certificate of a cure of over 20 years' standing:

H. T. Helmbold—Dear Sir: I have been troubled with an affliction of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried our most excellent physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your genuine Preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and confidence that it shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you, I remain yours truly, obliged to you for using your valuable medicine. I am truly yours, M. McCormick
