American, of Philadelphia, contains the follow-American, of Philadelphia, contains the follow-fing in reference to the proposed encampment which is to take place at Williamsport, in Sep-tember next-commencing, we believe, on the 7th and continuing until the 11th. We agree with the American heartily in its ophinon as to the impropriety of this great military gath-reing. THE CROPS.-The last week has been exceedtion of favors, but in this instance a sense of delicacy should have restrained Gov. P. from re-quiring a large body of soldiers to repair to an out of the way town, possessed of few facilities to accommodate them confortably. Williamsport is a very pretty, business like plack, as much famed for the thrift and honesty of its inhabi-tants as for the crockedness of its politicians; but with all its attractions it is not able to en-tertain some fifteen thousand or more strangera. As to the beneficial effects of this encomputer on the military, depicted by the American, we are not "soldier" enough to express an opinion. But here is what our cotemporary says: "Wo regret that the Governor has fixed on so remote a point as Willismport for this camp, for it will probably operate to prevent comparison from many parts of Teansylrania to Williamer port. GIDDINGS ON THE CRITTENDEN AMENDMENT.— The venerable JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS, on the occa-sion of his return to his constituents, has issued an address to them, in which hereviews the pro-ceedings of the last session of Congress, on the Kanasa question. A portion of this letter is de-voted to the discussion of what was termed the "Chittenden-Monigomery Amendment," which is celebrated for its anti-tea demonstrations, was the field of labbr of the calkers, and other mercantile laborers." These "calkers, and other mercantile laborers." These must segainst British oppression, and a "calk-torar before the discussion of the House"—as this Champion of Freedom has been juetly termed— warmly supported. His remarks on this subject are highly interesting, and triumphantly an-swer the objections urged at the time by a few GIDDINGS ON THE CRITTENDEN AMENDMENT .---CAUCUS.-The American word caucus is intro
