City of Queens Resolutions

On Monday, the first cases that came up were Commonwealth v. William Smith, indictment larceny. The case was charged with carrying a quantity of rifles and old iron from the place. John Chase testified on the 29th of May last, by virtue of a search warrant, he found three boxes and four hundred pounds of iron, principally railroad spikes, a quantity of which was found in a box in the room in question and said he had purchased it from other parties. The prosecution was continued at some length. Mr.

Robert M. Galt, attorney for the defendant,

Mr. Stiebel, of the defense brought witnesses to show that Smith, the defendant, had procured the iron in the honest business, giving in exchange for it and for spikes, purchased from his customer, John and the like, which he made up his stock in time. This is the first time we have seen in court, and his effort was highly creditable to him. The case went to the jury at 1 o'clock and their verdict was for the defendant. On the 30th of May, the case of Mrs. H. J. Brown, indicted for keeping a disorderly house in West street, 34 ward, was heard. The case was heard by Justice McClellan, and the defendant was found guilty. The case of Mrs. J. J.
