the district who is as good an anti-Lecompton useful, united. man as he, and more worthy of trust on every other question? Lecompton is not the only question to be met in the next Congress, and even if Montgomery be right on that question (which we do not admit) he is wrong on almost every other question, and the opposition elements of the district ought to unite on some man who is ette county that does not like Mr. Veech, let them take Alfred Patterson or Andrew Stewart, or Judge Ewing—any or "bo represents the opposition sentiments and then, own if Montage Interior: and the Montage Interior in the

that our candidate for Prothonotary. DANIEL Anneximond, Esq., is a defaulter. The men who originated and are responsible for these reports, know them to be false and have known so from the beginning; but they belong to that school of politicians who hold that all is fair in politics, the political of the service of the politicians who hold that all is fair in politics, and that a lie well stuck to is better than the truth.

Mr. Armstroug was Collector of State and County taxes in the Third Ward, Pittsburgh, for 1857. In March last, he settled his duplicates with the Comissioners, and has the receipt of the Treasurer in full; and so far from owing the county had a right to claim from him, and the county had a right to claim from him, and the county is therefore in debt to him.

We have not contradicted this report before, because we thought that those engaged in circulating it would get ashamed of it; but it is apparent, even now, that we are to have a repetition of last year's game—that lying, froud and all sorts of unfairness are to be practised to secure, if possible, a Republican defeat, and that all sorts of unfairness are to be practised to secure, if possible, a Republican defeat, and that this lie, in particular, is to be rolled as a sweet morsel under the tongue. We therefore give it this emphatic contradiction; and we refer all who are curious about the facts to the County Tressurer and County Commissioners, either of Tressurer whom will vindicate Mr. Armetrong from the whom will vindicate Mr. Armstrong from the charge so unfairly made against him.

Col. J. H. Foster.—A small paragraph published in the Dispatch some time ago, deprecating the incorporation of the Tariff question into the Republican platform, has been tortured to the Republican platform, has been tortured to the injury of Mr. Foster, one of our nominees for Assembly. The paragraph in question was written by Mr. Flerron, and indicates merely his individual view. The Dispatch announced some time since that Mr. Foster is not connected with the editorial management of that paper, the control of which remains exclusively in the hands of Mr. Floreson and Mr. Plympton. It is exceedingly unfair, therefore, to attempt to hold Mr. Foster responsible for what appears therein. We know him to be a Tariff man, and that he cordially concurs in the Tariff resolution adopted by the County Convention that nominated him. There is nothing in his past life or history to base a doubt upon, in this matter; and the attempt to create a contrary impression, because his business partner holds different in who payes his name as John Johnson was a many was presented to the Waynesburgh, on Thursday, the 17th in the charge of the Young fact there in the Young her's about three hundred volumes, to the comming about three hundred volumes, of the borough—conditioned that the school directors shall purchase a similar number equal three hundred volumes, to the comming about three hundred volumes, to the remaining about three hundred volumes, of the borough—conditioned that the school directors shall purchase a similar number equal three hundred volumes, to the or hondred volumes, to the or he horough—conditioned that the school directors shall purchase a similar number equal three hundred volumes, to the provide shall purchase a similar number equal three hundred volumes, to Santary Pregautions.—The warm weather which we are now enduring is in itself a premention to every class of our people to be on the alert, to clean away all kinds of filth, to have no plentiful supply of chloride of lime on hand and to be unsparing in its use on every spot where it may be needed. First comes personal care; every man who has a particle of common sense will abstain from the frequent use of ardent spirits as he would from a more active poison; men who labor at out-door work should rest desired. The great popularity of this medicine has induced may initiation, which the public should gaard against purchasing.

How. Whi. Montgomery's Wait.—It is really a pity that this gentleman did not think of the Rev. Thos. Mose' pathetic poem, the "Beggar's Petition," when he was writing his appeal for commiseration. A few etanzus from that production, appended to his letter, would have been very effective either in exciting compassion or in negressing contempt.
