These copper works are a credit to this city, and may be ranked in that long catalogue of industrial improvements of which we have so many and about which the press say so little. Every kind of article which can be made of copper can be manufactured by Meessr. Park, MiGurdy & Co., and orders sent to them will be promptly and faithfully filled. The copper which they use is also of the best in the world, and we may assiely predict for them complete success with the admirable appliances which they have at command. Shocking Camphers Accident.—A most shocking accident occurred on Tuesday morning, at the residence of Samuel C. Wingard, Eeq., on the corner of Third and Ross streets, in this city. A girl named Mary Maloney arose in the morning at an early hour, and was kindling a fire. In the kitchen. She took a can of camphene in her hand and spilled a portion of it on the fire to, make it burn quickly.) The camphene was soon in a bisse, and communicating with what remained in the can, it exploded, enveloping the unfortunate girl'sbody in a sheet of flame, and burning her in the most shocking manner. Her cries brought her assistance, and the flames were extinguished. She was still alive last evening but was suffering dreadfully, and but little hope was entertained by her physician of her recovery. oinn of her recovery.

CATALOGUE.-We have received a catalogue for 1857-58 of Westminster College, situated at New Wilmington, Lawrence county, Pa. The course of study, as laid down in the catalogue, is very comprehensive, and, from what we know of the President and Protessors, we are prepared to add that we do not doubt it is also very thorough. The institution is in a distribution of the protection of the protec ough. The institution is in a flourishing con-dition, having had no less than 248 students during the year. Recently a new college edifice has been erected, 90 feet in length, 58 feet wide, and three stories in height. We believe that-this college is all it professes to be, and that it is worthy of liberal support.
