NO. 50 MARRY STREET, PITTE achort, it is not improbable that the times of 1849 may be reproduced, the that New Caledonia may be reproduced that the New Caledonia may be reproduced to the Colonel Steptoe by the Indians is confirmed. The original statement was that he had been waylaid by a combined band of Palouse and Snakes, amounting to 1850 warriors, and so routed We questioned this representation, and with it the whole story, since the eighty braves of the Pelouse tribe waveshone unequal to the contest, and the Snakes had no local habitation in the Torritory at all.—
The conflict, it appears, occurred on the banks of the Pelouse Indians to have been participated in it: and the real combatants were the Spekasses, which, by an exceedingly locations misprint, might be taken for Snakes. Colonel Steptoe left Fort Walls Walls on May 7 with his command, consisting of three companies amounting to 100 men is call and far for indianal for the companies of the Pelouse find the real combatants were the Spekasses, which, by an exceedingly locations mainprint, might be taken for Snakes.
