A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, furnishes the following report of a decision recently made in the Marion (Indiana) Circuit Court, with reference to the right of banks to redeem their issues of five dollars and under, one at a time, in new silver coin:

The Indiana Bank, at Madison, refused to redeem a package of her five dollar notes, except in the new silver coin issued by virtue of the Act of 1853. The party making the demand refused to receive such coin beyond the sum of five dollars upon the whole package, and had the notes protested, and filed with the auditor to cover redemption. The Bank applied to the Marion Circuit Court of Indiana for an injunction. The question arose upon the 2nd section of the Act of Congress, which provides that such coin shall be legal tender in payment of debts for all sums not exceeding five dollars. The Bank contended that such coin was a separate and independent debt, and that consequently the right of the Bank was to redeem a single bill at a time in this new silver coin. Judge Major, however, refused to grant an injunction, holding that the redemption must be of the whole package, and in gold or in the old silver coin.

PORTER, the defaulter of the Sunday School Union, has made, as appears from the Boston Journal, a confession, which is to be published. His temptations began with the mulberry and silkworm speculation nineteen years ago, and under the garb of religion he has for that long time carried on his dishonest plans. He allows that at the start he knew it was wrong, but he hoped to be able to meet the notes as they matured; but as he was unable to do so, he was compelled to renew his notes and pay heavy bonus. He defrauded the Society out of over $80,000; but the Philadelphia broker who aided him to the dishonest gain promptly paid all the notes that his name was on, and the loss was lessened nearly $40,000. Mr. P. confesses that in the nineteen years of fraud, he had used the name of the Society to the large amount of $600,000, by renewals and re-issues.

PROSCRIPTION.—A singular edict has appeared in the Paris Moniteur, which is supposed to be meant for the suppression of the circulation of the Bible and Protestant tracts in France. It alludes to the circulation of immoral books before the last revolution, and says, "this was the consequence of the imprudent neglect that is adored with the name of liberty." It then concludes: "It is the duty of the administration to prevent foreign societies, possessed of considerable resources, from despatching agents to France with the view of producing agitation." From the facts that the Catholic priests have obtained great influence with the government, and that they dread the agitation produced by Protestant books, there is little doubt of the purport of the edict. The American Tract Society has investments in France it seems.

HONORABLE CONDUCT OF THE SUMNERS.—It will be remembered, by our readers that Mr. Albert Sumner, of Newport, R. I., his wife and child, some time since, were shipwrecked and all undoubtedly perished. By the presumptions that the wife and child died first, and the husband became entitled to the property. Mrs. S. was a daughter of the late Walter Channing, of this city, and enjoyed the income of a large estate. Under these circumstances, more than one would become legally vested in the late Mr. Sumner, and through him came to his mother and sister and his two brothers—Charles Sumner, our Senator, and George—Charles Sumner. The estate was administered upon by Mr. George Sumner, and, with the consent of all these heirs the whole of his property which the deceased had derived from his wife, has been surrendered to her relations. It gives us great pleasure to record an act so honorable to the parties, and prompted by so nice a sense of justice and equity.—Boston Transcript, July 10.

CAN A MAN BE HIS OWN GRANDFATHER?—The Query answered in the affirmative: "There was a widow and her daughter-in-law and a man and his son. The widow married the son, and the daughter the old man; the widow was therefore mother to her husband's father, consequently grandmother to her own husband. They had a son, to whom she was great grandmother; now as the son of a grandmother must be either a grandfather or great uncle, this boy was therefore his own grandfather."—N. B. This was actually the case with a boy at School at Norwich.—Notes and Queries.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—Edward Cole lately committed suicide, near St. Peter, Minnesota, under very singular circumstances. He took down his gun, when by some accident it went off and killed his wife. He wrote to his son, informing him of the circumstances, and telling him what disposition to make of his property. He said that himself and wife had not lived in good terms, and that as the accident might be attributed to design on his part, he would prevent any further trouble by leaving the world.

THE WATERING PLACES.—With the exception of Newport, the "watering places" are as yet unpopulated. The fashionable sleepers are waiting with concern for "the season" to commence. Nahant lacks the life of visitors, Cape Ann is all ready for company, and Hampton Beach is getting anxious. Although experience proves August to be the best month for these resorts, July should afford some little aid and comfort to those who live by them. New Port is safe for a good season, but other places are not.

THE news that the Government was about to purchase the naked rock at the entrance of this harbor, called Line Point, for $200,000, and that Senator Gwin had recommended this purchase, has excited a lively indignation in San Francisco and throughout the State. The site for the proposed fortifications is not worth more than a $100. The whole ranch, (upon which is situated this site,) would not sell under the hammer for $6,000. People here have no doubt that a gigantic swindle is intended.

AN OLD MAN AT SEA WITHOUT OARS.—An old man, aged 81 years, was picked up adrift, two or three miles from Marblehead light, in a small boat. By some accident the old man lost his oars, and as the wind blew quite fresh, and the sea was rough, and his boat drifting seaward his prospects were rather gloomy. He had been in a perilous fix before, having been twice taken prisoner during our last war with England.

THE people within the limits of the proposed State of Superior have already called a convention to interchange views upon the subject of a new State, and take the preliminary steps for bringing the matter before the Legislature of
