Washington Courty.—A roung child of Mr. John McConougher of this place, was, on Sunday last, accidentally precipitated down a starway, and fell on a knife with which it had been playing, inflicting a deep inclaion in its throat. On Friday, John Clemens, Esq., of Monenga Squire's collar bone.

Col. Joel Ferree, of Monongabela City while riding on horseback, in Carrol township, on Saturday last, was thrown from his horse with great force, and the bones of his left hand be-tween the knuckles and wrist were broken, his right wrist dislocated, and he was otherwis injured. A meeting was need in Lametown on less Sat-raddy evening, with a view to the organization of a new military company. Eighteen persons became members of the preliminary organiza-tion. A company has also been organized at Horse Shoe Bend. Horse Shoe Bend.

The Huntingdon Globs of Wednesday lust cays:

There is quite a military spirit spreading through this county. We hear of several new companies now organizing.

Altitle son of Mr. James Williams, living near Monongahela City, had one of his feet cut clean off at the sukle, in a mowing machine.—

Wash. Trib. Mills with the BLAIR COURTY.—A tariff meeting will be held at Tyrone on Saturday, 7th day of Angust mext. S. Steel Biff., Samuel Calvin and John. Broth-erline, Equis., have been invited to address it. CHEARD CONCERT.—The friends of the late Professor Bacht, who was so cruelly murdered at Pittsburgh, will give a concert at the Town Hall, on Thursday evening next, for the benefit of his wife and children at Baltimore, who have been left partially destitute by the death of the Professor. GRAND CONCERT .- The friends of the late Professor.

John Quino, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Quino, met with a serious accident, one Monday afternoon last. Young Quino, it appears, was employed as firthan on it is appears, was employed as firthan on the follow of the company. His foot alipped and cane under the locomotive wheel cutting it very badly.

Keapp & Wann's.—It seconds to us last spring as we stood upon the desolate spot where the fort Pitt Works had just stood, that it would take years before the roar, and clatter of methoday would be heard there again. On Thursday has, we saw the place again. On the completion of the building, socerding to the place, it is true, are not restored entirely as they were, but mongs for present, purposes. The completion of the building, socerding to the place, is still going on, and we shall soon, see everything the patterns, which time and necessity alone can restore.

night, by a river man named James Coe. The parties had been drinking together, and Scott being under the influence of liquor, handed Coe his packet book conthining $75, all he had in the world, and Coeleft, promising to take it to his hotel the next morning, but heforgot to keep his word, and has not since been heard of. SAFFORD'S OFFRA TROUTE.—This celebrated company make their low at Masonic Hall tonight. They met with great success in Cincinnati when at the benefit given by the Sons ofMalia, no less than 1800 tickets were sold. Mr.
Vonbonhurst, the active and efficient agent for the company, was in town yesterday, making preparations for them. They have a delightful programme, and will give the public who patronize them the benefit of the same to-night.—
They will have Masonic Hall as full as it can be-

BLACKWOOD, for July, is with us. It is quite up to the mark. Bulwer Lytton still spins away at his story; there is a real "Ebony" tale, antitled The Soldier and the Surgeon, while the Poorbeah Mutlay, a "Ples for the Principalities," and The Great Imposture, (a political article,) are full of valuable reading. The whole of Blackwood will do for those who like the more solid and substantial sort of reading.

Solid and substantial sort of resours.

San Accident.—Mr. Henry Niebnum, a resident of the Sixth Ward, and an employee of the Pittsburgh and Cleveland Railrond Co., had one of his feet badly mashed, yesterday, while in the act of coupling a car to the locomotive. He was standing on the lumber and in the act of making coupling when an iron bar on the locomotive struck his foot and crushed it to a jelly. He was promptly cared for.

THE CONCERT, given a few days since, by our German fellow-citizens, at Lafayette Hall, in behalf of the family of the late Prof. Bachr, yielded $125 clear of all expenses. This sum, to which will be added a very handsome donation by the German friends at McKeesport and by gentlemen in this city, will be remitted as soon as convenient. soon as convenient.

REV. HENRY KENDALL, as we learn from the Rochester papers received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Hamilton College on the 22nd. Mr. Kendall was recently installed pastor of the 3rd Pres., (N. S.) Church in this city. This title from such a college is an honor indeed.

WE said yesterday morning that we had re-ceived a package of papers from Dr. Douglass, of Allepheny City: The reverend gentleman is pastor of the Bef. Pres. Church in Ais city. The mistake was not material, but the people of the Doctor on this side lay claim to him.
