Relitation.—A correspondent of the Probyterian Banner, with a view of discovering a connection between the recent general revival and the Pittsburgh Conference of last fall, has set down in order those Bynods which have been most favored during the year, togother with the number of parties and stated supplies, and the number of pastors and stated supplies, and the average of admissions on examinations, by each pastor and stated supply.

The figures indicate that the revival was most powerful in the region represented in the Pittsburgh Convention. Of the Presbyteries, that of Clarion, in the Synod of Pittsburgh, has been far the most favored of any. With only seven pastors, and the stated supplies, they received, on examination, five hundred and seventy-two persons, being an average of over eighty-one to each stated laborer. In one pastoral charge, in that Presbytery, were received one hundred and twenty persons, and in another one hundred and four.

The large rooms are now filled with students seeking a commercial education, and others are seeking a commercial education, and others are seeking. A full and efficient corps of teachers are engaged, that are unsurpasted in any commercial echool.

One of the most audacious thefts of the kind occurred on Wednesday night last, at the place of ex Judge Boggs, on the old Washington road, Lower St. Clair township. Whilst Dr. Brooks, of this city, was attending a patient at the Judge's, he ited his horse to a fence, and on returning to where he left him, found that the animal had been taken by some person. It was a light from gray horse; legs darker; height 5½ hands; racks under the saddle and trots in harcess; the saddle had a black quilted cover, with red net attached.

Afew weeks ago, a horse was stolen from Mr. J. id. Poor, of the Ninth Ward, and no frace could be found of the animal until last Monday, when he was discovered near Elizabeth, Pa., by means of handbills distributed by officer Hague. The thief fled at the time, but was afterwards discovered to be a young man named Topper, who had escaped from the House of Refuge.—The other day, a teamster in the employ of that cetablishment—captured Topper in Allegheny city, and yesterday he was brought to the Mayor's office by Hague for a hearing on the charge.

COAL BANK ON FIRE.—The citizens living in the vicinity of the glass works in Confre Wheeling, yesterday morning, were greeted with the sight of fire coming out of the stack, communicating with the coal pit of the Belmont Mills, and upon examination it was found that the mine was on fire. The stack was about 15 feet, high, and above the top of it the fiames streamed about as high again—a most brilliant flame it was too—from the combustion of the gas within. Exertions were made to axtinguish the fire, but up to 5 o'clock last evening they had not been sthoroughly subdued, though three streams of water had, been poured into the pit all day. The chimney was knocked down and all air passages stopped, and it is hoped they, will succeed in smothering the flames. It caught from the furnaco which was used to expel the foul air and gases—which accoumulates in the mine. air and gases which accumulates in the mine -- Wheeling Times.

William Montgomery, formerly a resident of this place, and father of Hon. William Montgomery, was found dead bealds a haystack in West Finley township, near, the Virginia line. It is not positively known in what manner he came to his death, but from the fact of two whitsey bottles being found near the body, it is presumed that he killed himself by the excessive use of intoxicating liquor. He had procured a quantity of liquor in Triadciphia, Virginia, a day or two previously. It is not known how long he had been dead before his body was discovered. His remains were interred in a graveyard in the violatity. The age of the deceased was about eventy years.— Wakk Examiner.
