It would be hard to learn, from either or both of these extracts, the real state of the case. The facts are, that the Democratic Convention of Delaware Co. met on Thursday, and the anti-Hickman men got possession of the organization. During a dispute about some contested asis the Hickman men withdrew and organized by themselves. The original Convention (minus the Hickman men) nominated Manly, and the the Hickman men) nominated Maniy, and the est powers on earth, who will say that "our seconders nominated Hickman. Each Conven- own Montgomery" is not known abroad :

soceders nominated Hickman. Each Convention claimed to be the "regular" one.
The same game will be pursued in Chester county, we suppose, and there will be two "regular" democratic candidates running in the district.
Mr. Hickman ought to be above this. If he is the same for the same distribution of the same the second state of the same the same should be eaved. As a token of our mutual friendship, I should be alves. As a token of our mutual friendship, I should be ples, and let "regular" democratic nominations alone, the Republicans could support him.
