DIOTED .- We extract from the True Press an Union, of yesterday, the following ominous it of intelligence: "The same causes will lead to other Hegiras.

assertion that the departure of Capt. Schenley was an event of no ordinary moment. Scarcely has the heroic Captain got safely without th walls of our doomed city ere his pusillanimou cral belongs to that school of ruminating people's triumph—all gladness, all joy, unsulfied and reflecting statesmen who are better caland reflecting statesmen who are better calculated to adorn and illustrate the walks of private life, than to shine in deliberative assemblies. Prudential considerations such as these, not only prevented the nomination, for Congress, of Gen. Robinson by an admiring constituency, but were potent also in defeating his bosom friend, Thomas Williams. Had there been the most remote suspicion however, in the minds of the delegates to the Republican convention that the General would have taken his defeat in such high dudgeon and actually have "vanmoozed the ranch" on account thereof, we are convinced that he would have been nominated nem. con. It is now too late, we fear, to remedy this fatal error, but we inherefore assure the General, in all kindness, that his defeat was, for the reason given, rather complimentary than otherwise. Besides—and culated to adorn and illustrate the walks complimentary than otherwise. Besides-and

Sad as it would be to part under such circumstances with General Robinson, we might possibly survive the hitterness of parling.—

But the catastrophe does the proof of the catastrophe does are the proof of the pro Time would doubtless chasten our grief and mitigate our surfer. But the catastrophe does not end here: Says the True Press and Union, "when he is driven away other and lesser land-holders will succeed until none are left but the farmers!" Whether the "lesser landholders" refers to those holding less real estate than the General, or to owners of the soil having less physique or muscle than the fiery and impulsive General, is left in doubt. Be this as it may, however, it cannot be doubted that lamentations exceeding in intensity those of Jeremiah would go up from this entire Bailiwick upon the happening of such an event. Imagine, reader, the whole crow of Sgre Heads big and little, taking up their line of march and journeying bither to a new El Dorado. What a pitable and laughter-provoking speciacle would they present on their winding way! "Peradventure" the entire troupe would form a kind of peripatetic show or travelling menageric, picking up loose change by the way to defray expenses. The effect of such an exodus upon the industrial interests of our county we can only conjecture. It is not improbable that the most severe effects of the departure of the Soro Heads or maste, would be experienced by the True Press & Union. We are safe in saying that & collapse of that concern might then be immediately looked for. We have strong hopes that something may yet turn up to induce General Robinson and "other and fesser landholders" to remain amongst us for a while longer. Efforts should promptly be made to avert the imponding exodus and set matters all right. We fancy that no one will laugh at it more heartly than the subjects of it, whose departure is bewailed with so much bathos. For nearly twenty years they have been voluntary exiles from this city, coming here occasionally to recruit their finances by working the golden placer they possess here. Their stay has always been short, and they have always been extremely glad to get away. Their recent departure was a matter axed upon long ago, and the Gazette had about the race of the state of the state of the states.

SEWING MACHINES. Reasons why the Grever & Baker Machine is universally referred for family newing:

1st. It is more simple and casily kept in order than any her machine. 21. It makes a seam which will not rip or ravel, though

2d. It makes a seam when whi use raper as we have very third sitted is cut.

3d. It sews from two ordinary speeds, and thus all trous to of winding bread is avoided, while the same machine to of winding breads avoided, while the same machine and the same which we have been assure, by a mere change of pools, to ill varieties of work.

4th. The same Machine runs silk, lines thread, and common spo-i cutton, with equal facility.

6th. The seam is clastic as the most clastic fabric, so that it is free from all liability to break in washing irouing orotherwise. that it is free from all liability to break in washing froulng or otherwise.

The stitch made by this Machine is more beautiful than any other made, either by hand or machine made, and the made, w. C. ELMOTT. Agent, and 2.1 wd Shirt Emperium, Fifth street.
