Consecration of Bishop Bowman.

Long before 10 o'clock this morning crowds of ladies and gentlemen were seen wending their way toward Christ Church, attracted thither by the fact, that to-day was the time fixed for the Consecration of the Reverend Samuel Bowman, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. The small size of the venerable structure prevented many from witnessing the imposing ceremonies; and crowds clustered about the windows and in the yard, while the aisles, stairways and every other spot in the church where a foot-hold could be procured, were occupied by spectators. The galleries were filled with ladies, and a large portion of the body of the church was reserved for the clergy and for candidates for holy orders. Shortly before 10 o'clock, and while the chime of bells in the steeple were ringing a joyous peal, the clergy from abroad gathered in the small building at the northwest corner of the church-yard, and prepared to walk in procession to the church. The bishops and officiating clergy met in the large room under the tower, where they robed themselves in their appropriate vestments. The country clergy walked in procession into the aisle of the church at the moment the clock struck ten, the organ pealing out its majestic tones as the clergy passed to their seats. Then came the procession, which accompanied the Bishop elect.

Dr. Bowman took a seat in the middle aisle, in front of the chancel, until the time of the consecration. The other Bishops and the officiating Clergy took their seats inside the chancel, the presiding Bishop, Bishop Kemper, being seated in the Episcopal Chair to the right of the altar.

After all had been seated who could procure seats, the regular morning services of the Episcopal church was commenced by the Rev. E. Y. Buchanan, of Oxford. The morning lessons were read by the Rev. Dr. Bean. After the beautiful service of the church had been concluded, the consecration sermon was delivered by Bishop Delancy.

After the sermon, the certificates of attending clergymen were read, and then followed the administering of the Holy Communion.

A late hour had arrived before the ceremony of consecration was performed. The ceremony commenced with the reading of the "Collect," and of portions of the Scripture, according to the form of the book of Common Prayer. Dr. Bowman was then vested with the "rochet," and was presented to the presiding Bishop. The presiding Bishop said:

"Reverend father in God, we present unto You this godly and well learned man to be ordained and consecrated a Bishop."

The testimonials of Dr. Bowman were then presented and read. Dr. B. then made a promise of conformity and obedience to the doctrines, discipline, &c., of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the following words:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Samuel Bowman, chosen Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Pennsylvania, do promise conformity and obedience to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, so help me God through Jesus Christ."

Then followed prayers, after which Bishop Kemper, sitting in the Episcopal Chair, said:

Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient canons command that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to government in the Church of Christ which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood; before we admit you to this administration, we will examine you in certain articles, to the end that the congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness, how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this administration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the order of this Church?

Answer.—I am so persuaded.

The Presiding Bishop.—Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures, to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded, may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer.—I am so persuaded, and determined by God's grace.

The Presiding Bishop.—Will you then faithfully exercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gainsayers?

Answer.—I will so do, by the help of God.

The Presiding Bishop.—Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's word; and both privately and openly call upon and encourage others to do the same?

Answer.—I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

The Presiding Bishop.—Will you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you.

Answer.—I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

The Presiding Bishop.—Will you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men: and diligently exercise such discipline, as by the authority of God's word, and by the order of this Church, is committed to you?

Answer.—I will so do, by the help of God.

The Presiding Bishop.—Will you be faithful in ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer.—I will so be, by the help of God.

The Presiding Bishop.—Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer.—I will so show myself, by God's help.

Then the Presiding Bishop, standing up said:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Bowman then put on the rest of the Episcopal habit, and "Veni, Creator, Spiritus" was sung over him. Then came prayers, &c., and the Consecration ceremonies were at an end.

BOSTON BUYS AMERICAN WATER PIPE.—We learn from a Boston paper that "The Boston Cochituate Water Board" have contracted with Messrs Starr, of Camden, N. J., for the new main pipe to Brookline.

The Bostonians are nearer to Scotland than the "Administration" is; but as they do not choose to feed political favorites with "pork," they go where they can get their pipes cheapest and of the best quality. The Boston pipes are to be of a larger size than those for the Washington Aqueduct.

Nothing could more clearly show the utter disregard of the interests of the American people by our Government, than the fact that they go so far to procure an inferior article. No part of the world has greater facilities for work of this kind than Philadelphia and its vicinity. We have had Loco Foco papers full of the most extravagant laudations of the conduct of the Representatives from the First District, because the Administration directed the two steamer sloops to be built here. It does not appear, however, that any effort was made to have the water pipes for the Potomac Aqueduct cast in that District, although it has several large foundries.

It is a remarkable fact that the Emperor of Russia, when he wants work done which his people cannot do, sends to this country to have it done, passing England and Scotland on the way. Our Government, insultingly disregarding the skill and capabilities of American founders, sends to Scotland for water pipes of a notoriously inferior quality. How long shall our country be cursed with such a Government. —Phil. News.

THE DROLLERIES OF HISTORY.—The Salem Mass., Register has a neat obituary notice of Nathaniel L. Rogers, Esq., an accomplished merchant of Salem, lately deceased. It appears that Mr. Rogers was a lineal descendant from John Rogers, prebend of St. Paul's and first martyr of Queen Mary's reign. Mr. N. L. Rogers was a brother of John W. Rogers, whose daughter danced with the Prince de Joinville in Faneuil Hall. Thus a descendant of the Catholic king who sanctioned the massacre of the Protestants on St. Bartholomew's day, led
