"To the Commissioners of Allegheny County:

GENTLEMEN:—We, the subscribers, citizens of the city of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny, respectfully and urgently request that you will immediately make a subscription on behalf of the county for Ten Thousand shares of the Capital Stock of the Pittsburgh & Steuben-wille Railroad Co., agreeably to the recommendation of the Grand Jury."

Get. H. Keyser, JOHN MURBAY,

J. D. W. White, JOHN M. IEWIN,

We have, in these lists of names, italicised the names of delegates to the late locofoco and nom. inally anti-railroad-subscription convention; nti-railroad ticket are given in capitals, along with that of the ambitions and venturesome high private who is set up to extechize men Brernen Mencen, Chairman." We have not whether he is some great man whose effulgence never before burst upon the world, or merely a tool in the hands of demagogues; but Stephen having thrust himself upon the unwilling gaze of the public must excuse us for putting him through a course of sprouts. As his namesake, Biephen of Illinois, says, we feel impelled, un-

It will be seen that this individual, who cannot support any man for office who will not say party may bind ordinary men and influence their that he believes all railroad subscriptions to be nal, illegal and unjust, was himself an agent in procuring at least one of these subscriptions; that he urged upon the County Cammissioners to subscribe one million of dollars to the stock of the Allegheny Valley Bailroad and that in accordance with his advice the Commissioners subscribed (not a million, but) $750,000. And now this political genius, who brace this opportunity to ask Mr. Bare, of the aspires to ride upon the whirlwind and direct | Post, the question-"Have you read my Review" the political storm, coolly faces about, calls a Balt among the democratic candidates and says-"Gentlemen, these railroad subscriptions which the county is growning under were a monstrous tional and unjust, and you must say so or you cannot get our votes!" It is to be hoped the democratic party will make a general of this fellow, at once. He accomplishes an evolution from one side to another with a facility that wonder if he has not a few Railroad Bonds also." throws Napoleon into the shade.

These ambrace the bulk of the so called anti-rail-road ticket; and every one of them was a participate in forcing these railroad subscriptions upon the people. They might with greaf propristy say to this man Mercer—"Who are you, that you presume to bring us up to the reach? You were a participator with us in this work. Your hands and ours are alike dirty with it. When did you do wash your hands of it, and how?
