CONGRESS—22D DISTRICT,
ROBERT McKNIGHT, Allegheny City.
SENATE,
JOHN P. PENNEY, Pittsburgh.
ASSEMBLY,
J. HERON FORTER, Pittsburgh,

DIRECTOR OF POOR,

A DELUSIVE ARGUMENT.—At the opening of the campaign Mr. Williams' organ in this county argued that it was all folly to talk of submitting the Railroad tax question to the Supreme Court, for the Judges all had their pockets full of railroad bonds, and being thus bought up, their decision was a foregone conclusion. Finding that this reckless and utterly false statement was revolting to the public mind, its author took it back, and the gross libel was withdrawn though never apologized for. The argument is now changed; and Mr. Williams assures his hearers from the stump that if they want to get a favorable decision from the Supreme Court, they must elect him to Congress, and this popular verdict will be sufficient to convince the Court that the railroad bonds are unconstitutional. In other words, that the Court will be swayed by such an indication of public sentiment, while it is deaf to argument.

Now, we had fancied that the Supreme Court was a legal body, eminent for its learning, fairness and impartiality, which based its conclusions and decisions upon the law and the evidence. It is this so, the only arguments that need be presented to it are those drawn from the law and the facts; and if Mr. Williams' legal powers be as great as we are told they are, and his case the clear one he says it is, he has only to display his logic and his convincing facts to the Court to ensure a favorable decision. Is this the character of the Court, or is it not? Is it a body conforming its decisions to law and reason, or is it a mere reed swayed by the wind and shaping its decisions as this or that candidate may be elected or defeated? If it is the former, its decisions cannot be effected by a thousand elections; if the latter, the sooner we get rid of it the better; for in that case we have no need of courts to decide questions that can be settled at the ballot-box.

The fact is, and no man knows it better than Mr. Williams, that the Supreme Court will settle this question upon its merits, solely, without regard to our political squabbles. The returns of the election cannot be presented there, either on one side or the other. It is a grave legal question and not a political one, and must be settled on legal grounds—firstly by the constitution, which no election result can change and secondly by the facts, which are past and unalterable. A legislative body or an executive officer, may be swayed by popular votes, but not a Court. The Judiciary is the stable branch of our government, to which any man or community can come with its grievance and obtain justice upon the merits of its ples, without reference to other considerations; and none but a demagogue would hold it up as subject to other influences than those of law, justice and reason. For one, we have all confidence in the integrity, fairness and impartiality of the Supreme Court, and feel sure that it will decide the railroad question upon the basis of the law and the evidence presented to it, without reference to any outside influences or results. Whoever casts his vote for the demagogue who talks otherwise, in the hope of influencing the decision of the court, will do a foolish as well as useless thing.

Don't Forget the State Ticket.

In the hubbub of excitement about our county ticket, we must not lose sight of the State ticket. The people of the rest of the State are looking for an old-fashioned majority, in Allegheny, for READ and FRAZER, and we must not disappoint them. Let every Republican throughout the county see to it that the State ticket is properly cared for in every district.

Ex-Gov. Porter, the father of the democratic candidate, is well known to be a railroad bondholder; while JOHN M. READ, the Republican candidate, was the attorney against the bondholders in the Sharpless case. Yet we will venture to say that Gibson, and Dunn, and Lynch, and Williams, and Burke, and the Democracy generally, will vote for PORTER in preference to READ. They go before the people with all sorts of professions on their lips against railroad taxation; yet on the only office that has anything to do, practically, with the settlement of that question, they will all vote for the son of a bondholder in preference to one whose antecedents are on the side of the people.

We cite this merely as an evidence of their hypocrisy. We ask for no votes for Mr. Read on the ground referred to. He is presented as a sound, honest lawyer, and therefore trustworthy as a judge on any question; and we ask the people to vote for him, (his legal qualifications being conceded,) because he is the People's candidate, in opposition to the Administration candidate. As such, let him be supported earnestly by every opponent of the Administration; and no Republican in this county ought to be satisfied with less than 4000 majority for him and his colleague upon the State ticket.

We understand that Mr. Williams declared in his speech, in Allegheny, the other night, that he "had been called from the close contemplation of classic authors, from books whose lore is sealed to the unlearned and common mind, to defend the people who are to send him to Congress." His ears must have been open and remarkably acute to have caught that call. According to his own calculation in his organ of Saturday, he had but twelve constituents. He says that on an average only three men visit a primary meeting in the country. Mr. Williams had four votes in convention, which was just two more than he would have received on a second ballot.

But about those classics—what in the world will they do in case Mr. Williams goes to Congress to save us from local taxation? What will the muses do?

"Where were ye, nymphs, when this rencontre deep Closed o'er the head of your loved Lycidas"

Alas! alas! Sage spiders must weave their useless webs over the portly volumes that contain Ramus and Scotus! wretched, wretched poor dress left to our barbarism with no forming mind of freeholder to keep our thoughts tuned to golden thoughts from Horace or Lucan! Just as the world was waking to the fact that Mr. Williams was devoting himself exclusively to the classics, had renounced all search for filthy lucre, and abandoned the broken glass in the "mailroa" to vagrant boots and work-a-day hats: just then—

"Comes the blind Fury with the abhorred shears,
And slits the thin-spun life."

Col. Gibson and four men from the rural districts break in on that secret silence of the mind, where Pharsalia passes in noiseless review, and Hector is drawn around the walls of devoted Troy, and with importunate cry exclaim, come Harrisburg expenses and modern humbug conventions and dusty books, we'll send him to Congress, won't, we Stephen, and Stephen said "won't we!" And so

From classic shades, Sir Thomas he has come,
And reads Sum Ego Puto—I am some.

MR. BURKE is laboring under the insane delusion that he can be elected in this district—He fancies that this is Burke's (Berks) county.

POLITICAL IRBS.—The People's conferees of the Sixteenth Congressional district, composed of the counties of York, Cumberland and Perry, met on Friday last, and unanimously nominated Benjamin Junken, of Perry county, as their candidate for Congress. The administration party have not, as yet, agreed upon a candidate.

Mr. Reilly, of the Franklin district, is now stumping his district, endeavoring to palliate his political treachery, in Congress. He recently visited Juniata, and from the papers of that county we learn that his efforts in that county have not resulted much to his advantage. The Franklin Repository says:

"He addressed the Democracy of Juniata a week or two ago, in the Court House in Mifflintown, and of course endeavored to explain how he had managed to swallow Lecompton, after temptuous disgust. Among other speakers who followed him, and whom the people present called out, was James Alexander, Esq. Mr. Alexander begged to be excused, but the Democracy were inexorable, and he had to gratify them. He proceeded to address the meeting, and concluded his remarks by stating that 'he was still a Democrat, but could not endorse the odious Lecompton doctrine of James Buchanan and Wilson Reilly.' Mr. Alexander's speech was short but to the point, and he sat down amid the thundering applause of the Juniata Democracy."

The Republicans of Indiana county are now in the field and preparing for the election day. The Independent, of Saturday last, says:

"During the last and present week our friends in different parts of the county have been holding meetings, which we are informed have been well attended. The people have been addressed on all these occasions by the Hon. John Covode and A. W. Taylor, Esq., and also some of them by William McClaren and Harry White. Esqs. The people are becoming deeply interested, and the best of feeling prevails throughout the county. The little bickerings and heart-burnings which succeeded the nominations have nearly all disappeared, and from the indications manifested we feel authorized in saying that the majority in this county will be at least two thousand for the whole ticket."

In Chester district, the triangular fight is conducted with great bitterness. The friends of Bromall, Hickman and Manly, respectively, are all at work in earnest. Affairs are so complicated that it is hard to tell which wing will be successful. It is contended, however, that Delaware county will decide the contest, and that Delaware will throw its influence in favor of Bromall.

In Philadelphia, the prospects seem to be fair for the People's candidates. Lecompton, with all the assistance of the Custom House, is below par decidedly.

Stevens has made arrangements to visit every district in Lancaster county, for the purpose of addressing the People. The Times thinks his election by a large majority is beyond a doubt.

POLITICAL RETRIBUTION.—The Albany Journal contains the following in reference to the fate of the nine members of Congress from New York, who voted for the Nebraska Bill:

"Nine members of Congress from this State voted for the Nebraska Bill. Where are they? None of them have ever held an office since.—Walsh ran again, and was beaten. Cumming, Cuting, Rowe, Walbridge, Walker and Westbrook failed of a renomination, and were succeeded by Republicans. In Tweed's District four tickets were run, but not one of the four endorsed his course. Taylor, after being three years buried at Owego, is dug up by the Democratic Convention but only to be buried deeper than ever. There is such a thing as political retribution, and New York Congressmen who misrepresent their constituents are sure to find it out."

The "retribution" reserved for the faithless nine will be visited on the Lecompton traitors throughout the whole North. It will be felt by Gillis—by Ahl—by Reilly—by Dowart—and others in this State, to say nothing of their unfortunate associates in other Northern States. These gentlemen will find that the people are not as blind to their interests as they thought they were, and that they know how to punish traitors, when an opportunity is offered. Poor Mr. Reilly in the very outset of his electioneering tour, in his own district, met with some very unpleasant impediments. His Lecomptou votes are already rising up against him.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

THOMAS WILLIAMS, the democratic candidate for Congress in the Allegheny district, has both the Attorney of every railroad in the county but two, and took his pay in the proceeds of city and county bonds. He also rode on free-passes over all the finished roads he was counsel for.

JOHN M. IRWIN, THOS. DONNELLY and AUGUSTUS HARTJE, three of the democratic candidates for Assembly, signed recommendations in favor of railroad subscriptions by the county—the first named for the Steubenville road and the other two for the Allegheny Valley. JOHN M. IRWIN has also a free-pass over the Pennsylvania road.—PHILIP H. STEVENSON, another democratic candidate for Assembly, signed a protest in the democratic convention of 1857 against Repudiation and in favor of railroad taxation.

ALEXANDER BLACK, democratic candidate for Prothonotary, voted for the city subscription to the Ohio and Pennsylvania road and has a free-pass over said road. He also signed the recommendation in favor of the county subscription to the Allegheny Valley road.

WM. ALEXANDER, democratic candidate for Coroner, voted in Pittsburgh Councils for the subscriptions to the Steubenville and Chartiers roads, and to borrow money to pay interest on the Steubenville bonds.

THOMAS FARLEY, the Anti-Railroad Candidate for Commissioner, signed a recommendation and carried it about for signatures, in favor of the County Subscription to the Allegheny Valley Road. He has been put through the mill—the Subscription to the Pennsylvania Road and the Allegheny city Subscription to the Ohio and Pennsylvania Road. He has two sons and a son-in-law now (or lately) employed on that Road.

JOHN BOYLE, Democratic Candidate for Director, signed the recommendation in favor of the Allegheny Valley Subscription.

JOHN MARKS, Democratic Candidate for Auditor, signed the one in favor of the Steubenville Subscription. So did Sheriff PATTERSON, brother-in-law of BARNES FORD, the Democratic Candidate for Sheriff.

JOHN H. M'LHENNY signed in favor of the Steubenville and Connellsville Roads.

JOHN M'LHENNY, Chairman of the Anti-Tax Committee, signed in favor of the Allegheny Valley Subscription.

DAVID D. BRUCE, Chairman of the Democratic County Convention, voted in Councils in favor of the Allegheny Valley and Steubenville Subscriptions.

JAMES A. GIBSON, chief Democratic manager, was a borer at Harrisburg for the Steubenville road, as witness the following:

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17, 1858.

Received, on the above date, from the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Co., a warrant on the Treasurer, No. —, dated Feb. 17, 1857, payable to the order of James A. Gibson, Esq., FOR HARRISBURG EXPENSES, Seventy-Five Dollars 00-100. $75 00-100 Signed, JAMES A. GIBSON.

Within a week after the above, the bill was approved by the Governor authorising the county subscription to the Steubenville road.

PLATFORM OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY ON THE TAX QUESTION.

Resolution passed by Republican County Convention, January 6, 1858:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the payment of the interest on railroad bonds issued by the county until the whole question as to the liability of the county on said bonds has been passed upon by the Supreme Court. We are in favor of leaving the whole question to that tribunal, and of waiting for its decision before any further steps are taken by the county towards the payment of said interest.

Extract from Address Republican County Committee:

"The Convention took no action on the subject of Taxation for Railroad purposes, because the position of the party had been previously defined in a resolution adopted in a convention held at the Court House on the 6th day of January, 1858. That resolution took ground against the imposition of taxes to pay interest on railroad bonds issued by the county until the legal liability of the county to pay said interest had been determined by the Courts of last resort, after a full judicial investigation of all the facts connected with the railroad subscriptions. In this view we concur, and so do the candidates upon our ticket. The Republican party, as a party, is in no way connected with these unfortunate and ill-advised subscriptions, as they were all made before it came into existence; but the questions growing out of those subscriptions are questions of to-day, which have to be met, and we have no inclination to shirk them or give them the go-by. Grave doubts have existed, and now more than ever, as to the constitutionality, legality and binding force of these subscriptions; and inasmuch as they impose a grievous burden of debt upon the people, there is a manifest necessity that those doubts should be solved and all the questions involved brought to the test of legal scrutiny before the burden is shouldered. As a party we are not in favor of Railroad taxation, and will not consent to the voluntary imposition and collection of such taxes. The whole matter is now in the hands of the judicial tribunals of the country for examination and adjudication, and until that tribunal have passed upon the facts and the legal questions raised, and direct a tax to be levied for the payment of interest on railroad bonds, it is but proper that no steps should be taken that would either embarrass or put to unitary imposition and collection the Supreme Court, which will determine this question, is composed exclusively of Democrats, and if that Court decides that the tax must be levied, the Democratic party are not only, must be held responsible. We are authorized by our candidate for County Commissioner to say that, if elected, he will vote as a member of the Board against the levy of a railroad tax until the Supreme Court, which has also subject in hand, shall compel him to do it, and by our candidate for the Legislature that they will vote for no law authorizing such levy."

A CANDIDATE AT LAST.—The Post of Saturday announces that JOHN BIRMINGHAM, Esq., has been nominated as the regular Democratic candidate for Congress in the 22d district. He will not be supported by Gibson, Dunn & Co., the Administration preferring Williams to an honest Democrat like Birmingham; but the Post will support him and do its best for him. The contest will be between M'Knight and Birmingham.

THE Boston Transcript says of "Autocrat Holmes: "Who could have invented the stupid story that the wise and genial Autocrat was going to suspend?—that he had finished his Imperial talks and retired to his inaccessable palace? Not we. We never thought of him but as one of our friends,—our guide and philosopher while life is left. We are glad to be informed, as we have been, that the papers which have commanded such universal admiration are to be continued indefinitely—with a new title, certainly but with all the characteristics which have given to them their brilliant and enduring fame. Whoever made up the false report deserves never to read another witty nor pathetic line: to be banished, in fact, from the autocratic presence."

VANITAS VANITATUM.—The Boston papers are chronicling the death of an old man in that city, named Francis, who, after a long life of penuriousness and note-shavings, left a fortune of four million of dollars. The sum is not altogether contemptible, but in these days of millionaires it is not startling, and as the result of nearly eighty-three years devoted to money-getting, the game seems hardly worth the candle. This poor old man, before he died, was considered the richest individual in Massachusetts. —N. Y. Times.

RICH RHODE ISLANDERS.—There are 205 citizens in Providence who pay a tax on $50,000 and upwards. The highest tax is by Alexander Duncan, who pays $16,621 81 on property valued at $4,040 100. A rich man that.

COLFAX of Indiana, candidate for Congress at La Porte, was introduced to a prominent German a little deaf. "Boll Dax," said the German, "to the dyvil mit ter boll dax—I pays him now two times!"

WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION.—Another Great Cure effected by Boerhave's Holland Bitters.—The wife of Pister De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisco nsin, suffered much from Weakness of Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. Only bring you can rely upon, and we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true.

Ed. Sheboygan, Nieuwabde, Sheboygan, Wis.

CAUTION!—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

GROVER & BAKER'S.

The first place in public estimation is now justly accorded to the GROVER & BAKER'S MACHINE, for family sewing for the following reasons:

1st.—It is MORE SIMPLE and EASILY KEPT IN ORDER than any other machine.

2d.—It makes a seam which will not RIP or RAVEL though every third stitch is cut.

3d.—It sews from ordinary spools, and thus all trouble of winding thread is avoided, while the same Machine can be adapted, at pleasure, by a mere change of spools, to all varieties of work.

4th.—The same Machine runs silk, linen thread and common spool cotton, with equal facility.

5th.—The seam is as elastic as the most elastic fabric, so that it is free from all LIABILITY, to BREAK in WASHING, IRONING or otherwise.

6th.—The stitch made by this Machine is more BEAUTIFUL than any other made, either by hand or machine.
