Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY S. RIDDLE & CO., FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

Address of the People's State Central Committee.

To the Freemen of the State of Pennsylvania:

It is one of the highest privileges of a free people, that they have frequent and regular opportunities to express at the ballot-box their approval or disapproval of the policy and measures of their government. It was established by their will for their good, and should be so administered as to preserve their liberty and secure their happiness.

In a few days you will be called upon to exercise your elective rights, and, in performance of our duty, we desire to address to you a few words in regard to the present condition of public affairs, and an earnest entreaty that you will show your just appreciation of them, by administering a stern rebuke to those who, intoxicated with the possession of power, have basely neglected and betrayed the best interests of the country.

The course pursued by the national Administration in endeavoring to force upon Kansas an obnoxious constitution, against the known wishes of a large majority of her people, merits the condemnation of all good citizens, and this feeling becomes indignation when we reflect upon the unscrupulous and proscriptive means employed to secure this unworthy object of the Executive.

That the first President ever elected from our own State should thus have acted, is truly humiliating to every Pennsylvanian, but when his whole Administration so far forgets what is due to the honesty and integrity of the citizens of this free republic as to tolerate no freedom of opinion, but to drive from office and exile from public station all who honestly differ from the Executive in sentiment—all who do not renounce their manhood, and become the servile tools of power—it exhibits a love of despotism, and attempts a tyranny that the people of Pennsylvania do most earnestly condemn, and will withering rebuke at the polls on Tuesday next.

We desire to enter into no detail in regard to the Lecompton iniquity, and its final product, the English bill, which enables the President to postpone for years the admission of Kansas as a free State. The facts are before the world, and upon those facts the sober judgment of history will be passed, affirming your certain verdict on the second Tuesday of October.

To you the consideration must be most galling, that the whole time and means of the Administration have been, and will be expended upon this unwise and wicked project, while the calls of suffering industry, ascending daily and hourly, have been entirely unheeded by the Administration at Washington. Our workshops are closed, our factories deserted, our mills silent, and our impoverished people are pressed by the hard and unyielding hand of want. This is but a faint picture of our condition, and yet the government has neglected, and will sternly refuse to provide the only true remedy, that of protection to home labor, from a base desire to conciliate the favor of southern demagogues who wish to repeal all duties on imports, and to levy the whole of our enormous expenditures on the lands, and property of the people by a direct tax. The people demand, and long have demanded, a Protective Tariff to foster domestic industry, and to encourage American labor, but the National Administration is deaf to their entreaty.

Shall we again endorse the candidates, and approve the policy of an Administration so indifferent to our welfare, and so reckless and extravagant in its disposition of the public money. This prodigality alone brings down upon the government the condemnation of an outraged people. It can scarcely be credited, and yet the facts are, as proven by themselves, that they have, by the most criminal wastefulness, expended in the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1858.

	$92,830,461
Whilst the revenues, independent of loans, were only	46,567,569
Making an actual deficit of	$45,772,892

Contrast this with the expenditures of 1852, which were $48,564,564. Here is an increase of expenditure of more than fifty millions of dollars, in a time of peace, during a period of wide-spread commercial disaster, when rigid economy is imperatively required, and all our resources should be carefully husbanded.

A sense of honor, of justice, and of right, requires us to repudiate this untrustworthy Administration, and to defeat its candidates, and show by our votes, that we disclaim all part and lot with them.

We therefore entreat all true lovers of their country throughout the Commonwealth to support and vote for the candidates of the People. They are honest, competent and faithful—they stand upon the platform of popular rights, and of just protection to all. They denounce the Lecompton iniquity and the infamous English bill, and will resist Executive usurpations. They will assert the right of the people to the last to ordain their own constitution, and the duty of the government to afford full and adequate protection to home labor. They will earnestly contend for a policy that shall be stable, and thereby secure a prosperity that will be safe.

Vote, then, for the candidates of the people; place upon the Electoral Bench John M. Read, a man of known integrity and of tried capacity, in whose knowledge of the law, and in whose sense of right all men may confide; send to the national Congress, and to the State Legislature, men who will truly and ably represent your real interests. We pray you, each and all, to realize your individual responsibility, and the importance of every vote. Arouse, to instant and earnest action. Employ every honest effort.—Let every man do his whole duty, and all will be well. HENRY M. FULLER, Chairman.

WM. B. MANN, Secretary.

MOSLEM DISTURBANCES IN SYRIA.—We have late private advices from Syria, from which it appears that the troubles there are by no means at an end. It is now certain that the Mussulmans are doing all in their power, by every means, to resist the forms initiated by the Sultan, and more especially those which tend to the prejudice of their faith. Europeans are objects of peculiar hatred. Insurrections are feared in every city where the Franks have any foothold. At Alexandria, the residents live in constant fear of the rising of the Arabs, and burning of the city. News of murders in all parts of the country is constantly being received. The cruelties practiced at Jeddah and Jaffa are being repeated in many smaller places. Routes that were formerly safe, are now considered impassible, and the whole country is now an unsafe residence for Europeans.

The whole power of the Sultan and of the Pashas is exerted to its fullest extent to produce quiet, but out of this has far resulted in turning the rage of the fanatics against the existing government, and in giving rise to a plot for dethroning the Sultan and giving the sceptre to his brother. So well known is this plot that a number of the ambassadors in Constantinople have given notice they will not recognize the title of the Sultan's brother in the event of a successful termination of the rebellion.

Our last advices from Alexandria show a horrible state of things. Our correspondent says: "There was heard of the murder of many Franks by the fanatical Mussulmans; and the report reached us that the Turks had secreted 5000 muskets at one time, and 20,000 at another in their mosques, to be used in a general rising for the destruction of the Franks and Christian residents of the city."

THE CASE OF THE REGINA COELI.—The New York Colonization Journal for the present month after recapitulating the history of the affair of the Regina Coeli, adds the following information:

We now have the gratification of saying that by the arrival of the packet M. C. Stevens, and the British mail from the coast, a full refutation is made of the points chiefly used to criminate the Liberian authorities. 1. No passport money was ever paid. 2 No passports were ever applied for by Captain Simons, or given to him by the government of Liberia. 3. A grand jury has indicted the Regina Coeli as a slaver. 4. After a full trial of the ringleaders, who were accused of murder by Captain Simons they were acquitted, on the ground that being illegally held; they were justified in delivering themselves. 5. President Benson pointedly contradicts the statement that he pressed Captain Simons to procure his emigrants in Liberia, and wished it to be declared "a palpable falsehood."

The whole subject is a matter of correspondence between the governments of France and Liberia, and therefore it is not at present proper that it should be fully published. Enough however, is known to justify the strong resolutions of confidence passed by the Board of Managers of the New York State Colonization Society as published in August.

The courts of Liberia have done all that could be done in the case, and if Captain Simons is willing to undertake to establish his innocence, and the statements he has made; he of course will answer on the trial of the indictment found against him and his vessel.

ALEXANDER BUCHANAN died in Smyth county, Va., at the advanced age of 98 years. He has voted for every President of the Republic since its foundation. Captain Brown, of Russell, the adjoining county, is 101 years old and still in health. Captain Lamb, an officer in the war of 1815, and celebrated in Western Virginia before that, as an Indian fighter, died recently in Mongalia county, aged about 80 years.

THE COMET AND ITS FUTURE.—We have been informed by two gentlemen of this vicinity, that on carefully observing the comet for several successive evenings, they could distinctly see flashes of light, timed like pulsations, extending every half minute or so from the nucleus or orb, for about a degree or a degree and a half up the tail. This might have been a visual deception, but we believe that something of the kind has been also reported by telescopic observers. As everything that relates to this beautiful spectre of the skies, which now presents so brilliant and attractive an appearance, possesses interest for readers in every class of the community, we subjoin a few extracts from a long communication in the Charleston Courier of Saturday last—merely embracing points, however, which we do not remember to have seen elsewhere. The writer says:

"The comet is now at its perihelion, the nearest point to the Sun, about fifty millions of miles from the Sun, and moving through space with its greatest velocity, about 36 miles per second; The Comet's distance from the earth is now about seventy millions of miles, and hence the tail, 12 degrees long, must be about fifteen millions of miles in length."

The subjoined interesting journey of the celestial stranger through the regions of infinite space or ether, is traced:

"The Comet will continue to approach the earth until the 11th October, when its distance will be
