TUERDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 1858.

"Election Frauds."—It is really assonishing with what horror the democrate regard all frauds as elections, which are not perpetrated by their own partisans. They demounce in the severest terms the conduct of the Americans at the late municipal election in Ballimore, in the nineteen wards, in which that parfy is in power, yet have not a word to say in condemnation of their own friends in the eighth ward of that city, which polled double as many votes in favor of the democratic candidates as there were legal voters in the ward. In Philadelphia, in the First Congressional district, it is evident that Florence, gressional district, it is evident in the ward. In Philadelphia, in the First Conin which they have reposed for a thousand years arb found to be fresh and strong. The Philadelphia Enquirer, of which are rather astonishing, even to the patient Saturday last, says:

"We have reason to believe that a very large proportion of the German citizens of Philadelphia voted the people's Ticket at the recent election. Some of our friends believe that at least two-thirds of them pursued this course. They had an independent organization, held meetings of their own, were addressed by their own orators, and paid their own expenses. The movement throughout was spontaneous and was from conviction. JUNEIN, of the Sixteenth district, composed of the counties of York, Cumberland and Perry. Mr. Junkin resides in Binunfield, Perry county, where he practices as an attorney. He is a gentlemen of excellent character, and fine talents, and is an earnest friend of a Protective Tariff, and of freedom in our National territories. He leads his ticket in all the counties of the district, and almost revo-Intionized the hitherto strong democratic county of York-a county which should have given him the advocate of protection to our domestic industry. York-the native county of the writer of this notice-is even now suffering from the present free trade policy of the government, and we recret that the ballet floxes did not represent Aucady... on this occasion, the true sentiments of its people. Figure the free trade Lecompton opponent of Mr. Junkin, possesses very little personal popularity, and is the tool of an unerupulous clique of office holders in the town of York, who regard government plunder more than the interests of the workingmen. THE SEPATE-HOW WILL IT OUGANIES?-The Senate stands 17 democrats of all shades and 16 opposition. There may be trouble, however, in the organization, us we think there are among the majority, some few Anti-Lecomptonites .-vent. Mr. Buchanan is too bitter in his animosity to the anti-Lecompton wing of his party, to allow his friends to support one of that proscribed faction for Speaker or Clerk, and the anties, on the other hand, will show a similar feeling in the event of a Lecomptonite being presented for either of these offices. tax payers of that city. The investigation dis-closes not only chameful instances of individual defalcation and official robbery, but a system of defalcation and official robbery, but a system of looseness and disorder and want of accountability, running through all the departments of the municipal government. Money is received and not paid into the treasury, money is taken out and not accounted for, even the columns of figures are not added correctly, and the books are made to balance by forcedentries. These frauds are estimated by hundreds of thousands of dollars. No. 42 FIFTH STREET, generous and unestentiations."

The German voters, finding that they had a great stake in the measures contended for by the People's party, voted in accordance with their views, and thus aided in sohieving a victory over Lecompton free-trade locofocoism, which in magnitude, is without a parallel in the political history of the Commonwealth. The sudden death of the beloved and gifted wife of the Hon. John Hickman, on the 12th of October, has created a profound essation at West Chester, (Pa.) A friend informs us that she partock of dinner as usual and retired to her chamber to rest, when she was altacked with hemorrhage of the lungs. She rose and walked to her husband's library, where he them was, and died shortly afterwards. Mrs. Hickman was a lady of great talents and many endearing qualities. She resembled her husband in imany respects, and in nothing more than in the firmness of her friendship, the gentleness of her manners, and the kindness of her heart.
