the intense gratification felt by these gentlemen at the defeat of the Democratio party, and their hope that the entente cordial of the alliance would be preserved, as a means by which future victories for the great party of the North could be secured. The whole tone and spirit of the spectates were most thoroughly Black Republican and Sectional to a degree which would have satisfied the fiercest Abolitionist in the Union. In addition to this proof that Col. Forney and the faction which he represents has left the Democratio party, never to return, we have the Democratio party, never to return, we have the fact that the redoubtable "cheralier" is now engaged in stumping the State of Now Jersey in order to the Douglas candidates for the Tought's AMERICAN, ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC SHIP CANAL COMPANY, PROPRIETORS.
