No CHARGE IN THE TABIFF .- There will be n change in the Tariff at the approaching session of Congress. The blind leaders of the blind will not stop short of falling into the ditch. They say the present tariff has not had a fair trial, and it must not, therefore, be disturbed. The trick of sending Glancy Jones to Austria in a part of the arrangement to avoid doing anything this winter. On this point the Philadel 1 phia North American says :

pain North American says: "To most people the sudden capitulation of the member from Berks county, and his expatri-ation to Austrin, have appeared in the light of a childish eballition of wrath at the people for not electing the court favorite, and there is doubless enough of this in fact, to justify all the regret and indignation that the public have felt or will feel. Deep regret is felt that our public and minded management is in such a. tone, and wilded in the court is norther to be the such and wilded in the such a. childish ebullition of wrath at the people for not electing the court favorite, and there is doublese enough of this in fact, to justify all the regret and indignation that the public have felt or will feel. Deep regret is in such tone, and wielded in the parcovers spirit of via-dictiveness, as well as of contempt of public will on to right an stimpt to stade the public will on the tariff question. Mr. Jones had committed him-self to at least live service to his constituency, on this vital question, and he could not service for three months mure at Washington, without on this vital question, and he could not serve for three months more at Washington, without keeping his pledges, or incurring intense host tility on the part of a majority of the democrats in exstern Rennsylvania. And yet, to keep we these pledges would be impossible under the leanings of the White House toward the Charles-ton Convention. So it was resolved to cut loss f from responsibility by sending Jones instantly to Austria, and thus leave the chairmanship of p Ways and Means to lapse to Mr. Phelps of Mis-souri, or other hands irresponsible to Penn-sylvania.
