What will be no with Ilink?—We might quote the title of Lytton's new novel entire—"What will be do with it? i. e. what will Mr. Buchanan do with Ilughes, one of the stranded Buchaneers of Indians? It is well known that this pliant-tool was mort ignominiously and deservedly beaten in a October election. We learn from the Indianapolis Journal, that Bright and adozen of his co-workers recently held a meeting in that city to discuss the question that Bullwer Lytton puts to us from month to month in the pages of Blackwood. The case of Jehu Jones was discussed hopefully, and the wounds of Hughes having been considered, it was decided that they needed salve as well as Jehu's. He must have misting The Journal how a processor of Stration that Buller and the woonds of Hughes having been considered, it was decided that they needed salve as well as Jehu's. Jones was discussed hopefully, and the wound of Hughes having been considered, it was decided that they needed salve as well as Jebu's. He must have a mission. The Journal above referred to says:

"Probably the refusal of the Administration to sustain Gov. Wright's most evidently correct position, in regard to the duties of naturalized citizens to the Governments they have renounced, was intended to open a way to dismiss that gentleman from the Prussian mission, and put Hughes in his place. The caucus probably mu derstood this, say. Mr. Bright is in the full confidence of the President, and was called to decide on the best way and time to carry out the project. We learn that if was decided that Government. Wright should be recalled in the Spring, and "Hughes appointed" to his post."

That's right; send them abroad to Prance, to Russia, to Austria and to Prussia, that they may study our modern democracy and observe its workings under Louis Napoteon and France of Dozatt's Collect, but the wasting and the president of the constraint of the Coulty was recommended by the principle of the post."
