DRS. STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—The stockholders of the Steubenville & Indiana Railroad Company met at their office, Steubenville, Monday Jan. 3d, and elected, almost unanimously the following thirteen gentlemen, for directors for the ensuing year:

Messrs. Thos. L. Jewett, James Collier, James Turnbull, Wm. Kilgore, James Parks, Joseph Means, Chauncey Dewey, Wm. K. Johnson, Geo. W. Wood, Willis Robbins, Wm. B. Hubbard, Sam'l T. Cassin of the State of Ohio.

Judge Jewett, the President of the Road, laid before the meeting, statements showing the earnings and disbursements of the company for the past year, and contrasted the same with those of the preceeding year—showing an increase of receipts for the year last past, of over one hundred thousand dollars.

THE Atlantic Monthly is meeting with great favor from all sources. Though the publishers printed nearly thirty thousand copies of the January number, this large supply was entirely exhausted on the very day of publication, thus compelling many new subscribers and others to wait a few days before obtaining a copy. The publishers have another edition of several thousand in press, which will be ready in a few days, and with their present facilities they will be able to supply the demand, however large it may be. Their subscriptions, received by mail along, from all parts of the country, have averaged more than one hundred a day, for some time past.

WE learn from the Dispatch that a very serious accident occurred at the Washington gas works about 9 o'clock Thursday morning. A young man named Plymire, fireman, had occasion to go into the purifying room, and took with him a lighted candle. The room being filled with gas, an immediate explosion followed, tearing down a partition wall of brick, and otherwise injuring the building. Plymire was so dreadfully burned and otherwise injured that he is not expected to recover. John D. Martin, another fireman, was slightly injured. About $600 will cover the damage done to the works.

PIKE'S PEAK.—In order to answer numerous inquiries in reference to the proper directions of letters for Pike's Peak, our attentive correspondent states that Capt. Wm. Smith has organized a private express and mail train from the mines to Kansas City, Mo. All letters or packages for Pike's Peak should, therefore, be directed "care of Capt. Wm. Smith, Kansas City, Mo." The charges for letters are $1 00, and for newspapers 15c. each."

DAILY UNION PRAYER MEETINGS.—These meetings are now held in the M. P. Church, Fifth st., first door above Gazette building, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. Association, as formerly. The services, which are conducted alternately by ministers of the various denominations, begin at 11½ o'clock A. M., and continue thirty or forty minutes. There appears to be an increasing interest in these meetings.

THE special Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes to that paper that the Judiciary Committee will report a resolution ordering the impeachment of Judge Irwin of the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Lippincott, of Philadelphia, better known as Grace Greenwood, is coming west on a lecturing tour.

ON Sunday evening, 26th ult., James White, a single man aged about 30, and a resident of Whitestown, Butler county, committed suicide by hanging himself in the upper story of an old tavern house, where he had been residing with his brother, Madison White. Despondency is given as the cause.

STARCH AND FARINA.—We would direct attention to the advertisement of the West Philadelphia Manufacturing Company, in an another column. They prepare an article of Diamond Gloss Starch, and also Corn Starch (for culinary purposes,) which is pronounced the best in the market. Thompson, Clark & Young, Agents, Philadelphia.

SEE advertisement "To Merchants and Manufacturers," in another column. The advertiser is well qualified for the business which he seeks.

CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAILROAD.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of this road was held on Wednesday, at Cleveland. The report presented to the meeting shows a very favorable result. The total receipts for the year have been $772,093 53; the total expenses $439,999 88, leaving a net earning of $342,093 65. This shows an increase of gross earnings over those of the previous year of about $32,000, and of net earnings of about $36,000. The indebtedness of the Company has been reduced during the year $187,087 26. The percentage of running expenses is fifty-seven per cent. of the gross receipts. This report will compare favorably with those of other western roads. The following Board of Directors was chosen for the ensuing year: Zalon Fitch, Jas. Farmer, Henry W. Clark, J. F. Clark, Cleveland: J. McCullough, Wellsville; B. Drennan, Steubenville: W. H. Haloway, Bridgeport: D. C. List, Wheeling; J. Pennock, J. S. Dilworth, Pittsburgh; H. Stone, Beaver: H. C. Kingsley, New Haven, Conn.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Lewis Stern, (false pretence) the jury could not agree and was discharged.

A verdict of guilty of malfeasance in office was found against Alderman Rodgers in the case brought against him on oath of Washington Warner, before reported.

Com. vs. Hugh Scott, indicted for perjury, on oath of one Asbury, both parties colored, the jury gave a verdict of guilty. Hugh had procured a committal to jail for Asbury, by swearing he had been guilty of disorderly conduct when in fact it was Hugh who was guilty. When the verdict was rendered Hugh was no where to be found and the tipstaves were calling him as we left court.

Conrad Coalbane was before a jury last night charged by Mary Savage, a widow of eight years standing, with being the father of her illegitimate child, now one month old.

LECTURES IN NEW CASTLE.—We believe our neighbors in this flourishing place beat us in the matter of lectures. They have inaugurated a course of ten lectures, to begin on the 11th inst., and a ticket to the whole course costs $1. They employ home talent. The following are the subjects and lecturers: Rev. E. E. Swift: Phrenology; Rev. B. A. Brown: Voltaire and his Associates; Samuel S. Elder, Esq.: Florida and the Seminoles; Rev. A. B. Bradford: Sir Francis Bacon—his Inductive System of Philosophy, and the world's obligation for it; Rev. Thos. O'Farrell; Dr. D. Leasure: Heroes of the American Wilderness; Rev. A. G. Kirk: Washington; Rev. William Wilson: America—Its Future Contests; Rev. G. R. M'Millan: Cromwell and his Times; E. S. Durban: The Art of Printing—its Invention and History.

The Rev. A. B. Bradford is a very eloquent man, and will lecture not only in New Castle, but also in New Brighton and elsewhere. One of the finest lectures delivered in this city last winter was his. He will lecture at New Brighton on the night of the 13th.

THE lectures of Rev. J. J. Marks, descriptive of his travels in the Old World, have attracted much attention in the community. We were not able to attend them all, but such as we have heard were chaste and beautiful productions and were listened to with uncommon interest. We think he has the happy faculty of traveling with his eyes open. We have not pin his faith to Murray's Guide Book, but looks out of his own eyes and makes up his mind for himself. We congratulate Mr. Marks on his success. His lecture last evening was on the Dardanelles and life in the Orient.

VERDICT.—The case of the U. States vs. Cooper, has been decided in Cleveland, and a verdict found against the defendant.
