☞ DAILY PRAYER MEETING will be held on every evening of this week (Wednesday excepted,) in the Third United Presbyterian Church, on Diamond street, (Rev. John G. Brown's) commencing at 7 o'clock, and continuing one hour. This prayer meeting is conducted on Catholic-Protestant principles. Ministers and members of all evangelical churches, and all other persons, are cordially invited to attend.

☞ DAILY UNION PRAYER MEETING, at the First Methodist Protestant Church, Fifth street, commencing at 11½ o'clock, A. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

The exercises TO-DAY will be conducted by Rev. Wm. Collier.

MANCHESTER REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of the borough of Manchester nominated the following ticket, on Wednesday evening last, at Burgess Sampson's office:

Burgess—James A. Speer.

Council—Geo. W. Reynolds, Saml. M'Cune, Wm. Spratt, Henry Fulkner, Elias Richards.

School Directors—David Luther, J. H. Gilson.

Judge of Election—Wm. J. Caughey

Inspector—Robert C. Caughey.

Assessor—Capt. V Short.

We hope the Republicans of Manchester will go to the polls and elect the ticket they have nominated.

To-morrow, the election for Mayor of Allegheny will come off. We hold it to be a shame for a city with so large a republican majority as Allegheny has, one which gave our ticket a majority last fall, notwithstanding the defection from our ranks in which large numbers voted the locofoco ticket, we repeat, we hold it a shame that such a city should have a locofoco Mayor. Will not the Republicans rally to the support of their nominees for Mayor, Director of Poor and Councilmen, and rid themselves entirely of the incubus of false democracy. Let us hear of an old fashioned Republican majority in our sister city to-morrow.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The anniversary of this body comes off in Lafayette Hall, Monday, 24th inst. A good time we must predict when we are informed that George H. Stuart, Esq., of Philadelphia, is to be the prominent speaker of the occasion. This merchant prince, who by his own diligence, proved successful as a business man, did not forget to labor, at the same time, for the advancement of his Master's cause, gaining thereby a name enviable in the Christian world. He is loved by Christians of every name for his generosity and liberality of christian feeling. Dr. Kendall, of this city, and Jas. M. Hoyt, Esq , late President of the Cleveland Association, are among the speakers. The singing on the occasion will be of such a nature as all can join in, conducted by some of our prominent singers. This will add much to the interest. On the whole, we can promise a rich season.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—We beg the attention of members and of those who wish to be come members of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, to the meeting which is to be held this evening, at the Rooms of the Board of Trade, between Wood and Market on Fourth street, at 7 o'clock. The meeting this evening will be for the election of officers. This being done, the organization of the Society will be complete. A constitution has been adopted and quite a large number of members have subscribed. A full attendance of members is earnestly requested. After the election of officers and their installation, it is probable a paper will be read which has been prepared by Neville B. Craig, Esq., touching the character and achievements of Boquet. We trust that the day may be well filled and the Society be put afloat on the full tide of success, under favorable auspices.

VACANCIES FILLED.—Application was made to the Court of Common Pleas, a few days since, in pursuance of the charter incorporating the "Pittsburgh Infirmary," to fill three vacancies in the Board of Visitors of that institution, occasioned by the death of Henry Graff, the resignation of George Weyman, and the removal from the State of William Lartimer, Jr. Judge McClure, on Friday, appointed Josiah Kemp, Joshua Hanna and Wm. M. Shinn, to fill said vacancies.

In the Court of Q. S. on Saturday, Mr. J. M. Smith was fined 6½ cents and the costs of prosecution for assault and battery on L. O. Cameron. Mr. Cameron, it appeared, was wheeling a barrow on the side-walk, when Mr. Smith ordered him off, some words arising, Cameron received a blow. Smith pleaded guilty. He was also ordered to pay costs in a suit brought against him by Cameron for assault and battery.

THE gross receipts from the Gymnastic exhibition on the night of the 30th ult. were $311, and expenses for music, putting up of seats, etc., were $41,75, leaving net proceeds $269,25, which, together with a donation of one dollar from a gentleman, were passed over to Mr. Passavant, whose receipt is framed and hung up in the Gymnasium.

BIRMINGHAM REPUBLICAN TICKET.—Burgess—Nathaniel Patterson.

School Directors—R. B. Carnaghan and Christian Olshausen.

Councils—Thomas McKee, Geo. Duncan, Thos. Worcester, Philip Pheil and Wm. Graham.

Constable—Frank Miller.

THE Literary Society of the Sixth Ward have nominated the following officers for the year:—President, J. H. McClelland; Vice President, R. A. Cunningham; Secretary, M. Depuy; Treasurer, J. D. Kelly; Librarian, G. J. Lambourne; Trustees, C. W. Robb, Wm. Shore and William Ward.

ANTI-TAX MEETING.—An anti-tax meeting was held in McCandless township a few days since, at which resolutions condemning the rail road tax as illegal, unjust and oppressive, were passed, and pledges made that the people of the district would neither collect nor assist in any way in its collection.

PARADE.—Captain Hardtmeyer's fine military company celebrated the anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans, on Saturday, by a grand parade. They presented a fine appearance, and went through their drill with precision and grace The members of this troop are all Germans, and are an exceedingly fine body of men.

RESIGNED.—Robert Hague, who was elected constable of the Second Ward at the late election but who was not eligible to the office, as he resides in another district, resigned his position Saturday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions. Mr. J. Clark was appointed by the Court to the vacant office.

THE Union Prayer Meeting at the First Methodist Protestant Church will be conducted this week by the following ministers: Monday, Rev. Wm. Collier; Tuesday, Rev. Wm. Cooper; Wednesday, Rev. John Cowl; Thursday, Rev. Israel Dallas; Friday, Rev. Dr. Douglas; Saturday, Rev. Dr. Elliott.

"THE CAMPBELLS ARE COMING."—The renowned Campbell Troupe, among the best and most popular in the country, appear at Masonic Hall, in this city, to-night. They will appear during their stay in some of their best entertainments, and will doubtless draw full houses.

SAW MILL BURNED.—The saw mill of J. P. Scott, of Washington cp., Cambria county, was destroyed by fire on Sunday night week, between nine and ten o'clock, under such circumstances as to give the impression that it was the work of an incendiary.

THE Rev. J. J. Marks will deliver two more lectures in the Central Presbyterian Church. His lecture this evening will be on the Volcano of Vesuvius, Naples, the buried cities of Herculaneum and Pompeii, &c. Admittance 25 cents, for lady and gentleman; single persons 15.

A MAN named Wm. Lafferty, residing in Mt. Pleasant, Washington county, on Thursday last, took his rifle, walked into his orchard and shot himself through the brain. He was 35 years of age. The cause of this deed is unknown.

SOME scoundrel entered the tannery of Mr. R. Patterson, in South New Castle, on Friday evening last, by breaking in a window, and carried off about forty dollars' worth of finished calf skins.

DESCENT ON A CROWD OF GAMBLERS, AND THEIR ARREST.—The Mayor of this city having succeeded some time since in suppressing the lottery business in our midst, has now turned his attention to the abolition of Faro Banks. On Saturday night, about 10 o'clock, with a squad of policemen he proceeded to Market alley, an alley which runs in from Fifth street to the Diamond, below Daly's stocking store. He had had previously made before him an affidavit, charging John McKee alias "Pid" and Jos. Cox with being common gamblers. There were two ways of getting to the room, through a small alley leading off Market alley some distance and thence up a flight of stairs, at the top of which, turning to the left, you go into the room. The other way leads through what is known as the "Iron City building," on Fifth street, either of which can be used as a way of escape in case the other is used as an approach. The Mayor had both places guarded. He has had a plan of the whole place before him for some time. The entrance was made by the first described way. The first room they reached was occupied by a boy, only, but all the implements of the trade were there. They then proceeded farther, and came to another apartment.

This appeared to be a room occupied by Jim Wilson, and the articles procured belonged to him. Wilson will be arrested to-day. The Mayor proceeded up a flight of stairs, and, with his police, listened at the door. They found there were parties in the room. A couple of raps on the door, it was opened, and pushing in they found a company at play. They tried to escape by the back door, but in vain. The whole party, including Cox, who was dealing at the time, were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office. Cox was committed, in default of $2000 bail, to answer the charge of being a common gambler. McKee is at Louisville, but will not escape. Those who were in attendance will be bound over to appear as witnesses against Cox, McKee and Wilson. It is said that Cox is recently from Terre Haute, where an indictment lies against him, from which he escaped, forfeiting his recognizance.

This business of seizing on gamblers having been entered upon, it would be well for these who are accustomed to visit such places to beware. The value of property seized is worth, probably, $500. The boxes are of mahogany, very nicely finished, and were made at No. 99 Elm street, N. York, by George W. Williams.

The Mayor made an immense haul—mahogany boxes, tools of all sorts, about a hundred packs of cards, five hundred dollars worth of "chips," or counters, and other material, too numerous to mention.

Officer Read, and others, while on watch at Market alley, detected, by the sound of his voice, a chap named Peter Cune, alias Cooney, who was here, charged with burglary, some two years since and escaped. They followed him to Fricker's eating saloon, where Read, Knox and Richardson arrested him On him were found $810 in good money, and, tied up in a piece of handkerchief, $610 counterfeit. Ten dollars were in notes on the Ohio State Bank—Cuyahoga Branch—also thirty-three twos' on the same bank and three tens' on the Commercial Bank, Upper Canada—all counterfeit.

As to this Peter Cune, an affidavit was made before the Mayor on the 11th of May, 1857, charging him with breaking into the house of John Hysing, in the night, and stealing therefrom $940, the property of John F. Corle, who was stopping there with his wife. Corle lives at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and was at the time on his way East to buy goods. Cune ran away immediately afterwards and has never been back until now. The police did not know he was in the city, nor would they have known him, so much has his appearance changed, had they not heard his voice. When the officers were taking Cune to the watch house, he threw away his bundle of counterfeit money, but they saw him and got it again.

REPORT OF THE PITTSBURGH LADIES' BIBLE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Ladies' Bible Society was held in the Session Room of the First Presbyterian Church. The following reports were read and adopted, and the board of officers and managers elected as follows:

Annual Report of the Ladies' Bible Society of Pittsburgh and vicinity:

Could we trace the individual history of every Bible which has been placed in circulation through the agency of this Association, during the many years of its existence, and embody all these in our Report, doubtless such a scene of sorrowing tears made glad, and sinful souls made clean in the blood of the Lamb, and immortal spirits reclaimed from everlasting punishment, would be presented to our eye as would cause us to bless and magnify the name of our Heavenly Father, that he has given us an opportunity of spreading abroad the knowledge of his Word, to the glory of his dear Son. But the past is with God alone. He only knows what eternity will reveal to us all, how much has been accomplished through our humble instrumentality. That good has been done, and Bibles which we have caused to be circulated have been blessed to the salvation of souls, some of whom are now perhaps in Heaven we cannot doubt. "Thy testimonies," says the Psalmist, "are very sure;" "Search the Scripture," says John, "cannot be broken." Our work is one of faith and of promises, and we trust we have been enabled to prosecute it according to the direction of love and gratitude, accompanying our efforts with prayers for the Divine blessing. But we have no cause for boasting since it is the work of the Holy Spirit operating in and by us. To Him be all the glory. For ourselves, we have to confess a shortcoming needeth to be repented of. We have not given our prayers and exertions to this cause, so dear to our Redeemer's heart, as we should have done, and now, in the beginning of another year, we feel called upon, in dependence on Divine assistance, to increase our activity and redouble our prayerful interest in this work. May we be enabled by God's grace to come nearer that line of duty which shall at last approach the plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

The amount collected by this Association has been visibly diminished during the past two years. This is owing, perhaps, partly to our neglect and partly to the fact that many of our contributors have transferred their subscriptions to the Young Men's Bible Society. Whilst we are glad to see the prosperity of that Society, we hope yet to see a return of the ladies to their old Association. Our system of collection has advantages over that of other agencies, and our work is one in which woman has a peculiar right and duty to engage. Although our sphere is in a measure circumscribed, there is still much to do, and doubtless enough to justify the continuance of our organization. Other cities have their Female Bible Societies. There is a field of usefulness here, and why may not this be extended by increased exertion? Are there not many in this city who, while daily enjoying the blessings of the Bible, do not aid in its circulation through the medium of a Bible Association? Can we not enlist these with us in this good work? There never was a time when the demand for this book of knowledge was greater, nor when the facilities for its introduction to the destitute of every nation were as great. Our mission is not accomplished so long as we can find work to do. The changes we have witnessed afford no cause of discouragement or withdrawal. Let us renew our efforts; let us come with a fervency and faith never before experienced, to the throne of grace, asking all needful help and blessing. Let us remember that life is the working time, and that death gives or arrest repose to those who have worked faithfully in the vineyard of the great husbandman.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 8.

SENATE is not in session to-day, having adjourned over till Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Vallandingham, of O., reminded the House of the fact that this was the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, and the Senate had set a patriotic example by adjourning over till Monday. He said that, from his information, Congress had not been in session on such an occasion for fifteen years. He moved that the House now adjourn. Negatived—yeas 86; nays 93.

On motion, Mr. Farnsworth's resolution was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to whether the Rock Island military reservation had been transferred from the War to the Interior Department, and thrown open to pre-emption at a dollar and a quarter per acre.

Another ineffectual motion to adjourn was made.

Mr. Faulkner's resolution was adopted, calling on the Secretary of War to furnish a statement of money expended within the last ten years for barracks, officers' quarters, etc., the object being to reduce the expenses of the Quarter Master's Department.

Mr. Davis, of Miss., moved to adjourn.

Mr. Morgan demanded the yeas and nays, saying he wished to show what administration democrats are wasting time.

Mr. Leister remarked that if the democrats were determined that no business should be done, they had better adjourn.

The question was decided in the affirmative by 7 majority.
