THE AUTOGRAPH COFT OF "AULD LANG STEE."

—An interesting incident of the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Burns held at Albany, N. Y., was the exhibition of the autograph copy of "Auld Lang Syne." It was received from the Hon. J. V. L. Pruys, who has recently become the nonserger of this prewas received from the Hon. J. V. L. Pruys, was bas recently become the possessor of this precious relic of the peerless poet. Its genuineness is said to be undoubted. Its history is given in a letter from Honry Stevens, Eaq., of Mass, who has devoted many years of his life to the collection of like relics of the past. Mr. Pruyn received it a few days ago from London, and it appears it was sent to John Richmond, by the poet, in 1788. Merchants' Insurance Co. of Philadelphia.

THE POPULATION OF VIERNA.-According to

poet, in 1788.

The Paris correspondent of the Boston Journal communicates the following, under date of Jan. 6. respecting Senstor Summer: "A letter received yesterday from Mr. Summer, gives but little encouragement for his speedy recovery to his numerous friends. The fact of his still being in the South of France is the best indication of his health. He will get away from France and Europe as soon as it is possible. One cannot conceive how much Mr. Summer has suffered of late—during the last Summer he has died a hundred times." bbers.

Resolved, That we will neither assess, collect or pay any part or portion of the infamous aliroud dobt, and that we will neither bid nor may reperly distressed by execution to salisfy his iniquiduous claim.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in our county Commissioners. Pledges given before he election have lost nothing since.

We learn from the Lake Superior Hiner that the boiler at the stamp and saw-mill of the Ridge Mine blew up on the 12th inst. The entre north side of the building is gone, though the boiler, which was moved about 80 feel from its bed, passed through the east end of the engine room. It is a Barnhill boiler, and weighe about 8 tens. The engine was but slightly injured. Of eight men in the building at the time, but one, Elius Bondy, was injured, and he, it is hoped, not fatally.

REVISION OF THE ENGLISH .LITURGY .-- A Cou-

RAYSION OF THE ESGLISH LITTROT.—A Con-ference of the Clergy and Laymen was recently held in London, to consider the propriety of initiating, at once, a great national movement in favor of revising the Liturgy. All parts of the country were represented. The measure was urged by Lord Elbary and others, with great earnestness. A strong effort will be made, it is said, to carry this measure through Parliament at an early day.
