Intions were introduced by Bir. Kilgore, of Ind., and the vole scainst them was 84 ! This is an instructive change. It shows how readily the democratic party adapts itself to any issue forced upon it. Last year it hoped to escape the necessity of such an issue; but since then the South has praclically revived the Slave Trade; and as she demands that the party shall endorse it, the mon who last year voted in con-demnation of the accursed traffic, are this year found voting for it. Let it be understood that every one of the 84 is a democrat, and that the list ombraces the
