It being the same tract of land which John M'Owen and wife and Atkinson Martin and wife granted and conveyed to the said The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company, by their deed dated the eighth day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and recorded in the Recorder's office in and for the county of Beaver and State aforesaid, in deed book No. 21, page 559, as by reference being thereunto had may more fully and at large appear; of which 240 acres are cleared and on which are erected two story frame dwelling houses, two log cabins, one large frame barn, one log barn and a large orchard of bearing thereon an apple and peach orchard of 150 bearing trees.

Also, all the undivided half of a piece or parcel of sunnel and bituminous coal land lying in Darlington Township, County of Beaver and State aforesaid, and bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the north-west corner, adjoining lands of W. R. Sterling and lands of the said The Darlington Canon Coal Railroad Company, at a post or stone, and running thence by land of said Company north eighty-three and three-fourths degrees east one hundred and twenty-four and nine-tenths perches to a post; thence by lands of the heirs of Edwin Morse south one and three-fourths degrees west seventy-seven and six-tenths perches to a stone; thence by land of Ridge & White north forty-eight degrees west forty-seven and one-tenth perches to a red oak cut of root; thence by lands of the same south forty-one and a half degrees, west seventy-three and four-tenths perches to a stone; thence by lands of William B. Sterling north thirty-two and three-fourths degrees fifty-five and four-tenths perches to a stone; thence by lands of the same north sixteen degrees west sixteen perches to a stone in the road; thence by lands of the same north one degree west twenty-five and seven-tenths perches to the place of beginning containing fifty-two and a half acres, be the same more or less. The same being part of a larger tract of land conveyed to Matthew Elder and Mary his wife by John White, by deed dated the 29th day of October, A. D. 1833, and the said undivided half being the same which John White and Polly his wife conveyed to the Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company by deed dated the 31st day of October, A. D. 1833, recorded in the office for recording deeds, &c., in Beaver county aforesaid, in deed book No. 23, pages 171 and 172, as by reference being thereunto had will more fully and at large appear.

Also, all the one undivided half of a certain other piece or parcel of cannel and bituminous coal land lying in Darlington township, county of Beaver and State aforesaid, and adjoining the last hereinbefore described tract of forty-eight acres, and bounded and described as follows, viz: Beginning at a post and running thence north forty-one and a half degrees, east seventy three and four-tenths perches to a red oak; thence south forty-eight degrees east forty-eight and seven and one-tenth perches to a stone; thence south forty-one and one-half degrees west seventy-three and four-tenths perches to a stone; and thence north forty-eight degrees west forty-seven and five-tenths perches to the place of beginning; containing twenty-two acres, more or less.

Of which said last described two pieces of land about twelve acres are cleared, and thereon erected two two-story frame dwelling houses and frame stable and blacksmith shop and on which are opened cannel and bituminous coal mines.

All the aforesaid tracts of land are underlaid with a vein of cannel coal averaging six feet in thickness, a vein of bituminous coal four feet thick, and two veins of three feet each in thickness.

Also, all that certain lot or piece of ground lying and situate in Darlington township, county of Beaver and State aforesaid, containing not quite one acre, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Bounded on the north by The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad, on the west by lands of Morse and on the south and east by lands of John White; the said lot or piece of ground having been conveyed to the said The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company by John White, Esq.

Also, all that certain lot or piece of ground lying and situate in Darlington township, county of Beaver and State aforesaid, containing about seven acres, be the same more or less, and being bounded and described as follows, to wit: On the east by the borough of Darlington, on the north by land of William Wallace and the heirs of William Dunlap, and on the west and south by land of heirs of William Dunlap; the said lot or piece of ground having been purchased by the said The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company from Samuel Dunlap.

Also, all that certain lot or piece of ground lying and situate in Darlington township, county of Beaver and State aforesaid, at the junction of the Darlington Canal Coal Railroad with the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, and containing five and thirty-eight hundredths acres, be the same more or less, and being bounded and described as follows, to wit: On the east by the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, on the north and west by land of Henry and Elizabeth Jordan, and on the south by land of George M. Young and Henry and Elizabeth Jordan. It being the same lot or piece of ground which was purchased by the said The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company from George M. Young and Henry and Elizabeth Jordan.

Also, all those three several lots of ground lying and situate in the borough of Darlington, county of Beaver, and State aforesaid, and numbered in the plan of said borough sixty-two, seventy-five and seventy-six; said lot numbered sixty-two having been purchased by the said "The Darlington Canal Coal Railroad Company from ——, on which are erected two or three small tenements.

All of which said lands, tenements, premises and appurtenances and property have been occupied, enjoyed and used as a whole by the said Company, and will be sold together as one whole or entire property.
