LONDON Jan. 18.—The political horizon is becoming clearer, but confidence has received a shock which all the Emperors in the world would find difficulty in repairing.

Every one is now waiting for the meeting of the English Parliament, on the 3d of February, and the opening of the French Chambers on the 7th. As the Derby Ministry have proclaimed their "confidential" relations with Louis Napoleon, they will be called to a severe reckoning, since it will not do for them to plead ignorance of his intentions. No doubt, however, they will provide against the emergency by get
