PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1859.

REDUCTION OF THE STATE TAX.—A select committee of the House, Mr. Patterson, of Juniata, chairman, made a report on Monday in favor of reducing the State Tax from 2½ to 2 mills on the dollar. The constitution requires the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to annually redeem one quarter of a million ($250,000) of the State debt, but the present prosperous condition of the Treasury fully justifies the assertion that, by prudence, economy and financial skill, we can in future pay annually one million of dollars ($1,000,000) of the State debt even at the proposed reduction of taxation. The total receipts into the Treasury last year were $4,708,917, of which the State tax furnished $1,610,229. The estimated receipts for 1859 are $4,980,828, which includes $1,650,000 from State taxes. The appropriation bill for 1859 is, in round numbers, $2,000,000, leaving $2,086,828 for redemption of the public debt; and if from this we deduct the State tax of the current year, there will be left $480,828 towards reducing the debt. So that it is plain we could get along, for the present, without any State tax whatever.

These figures would seem to justify a larger reduction of taxation: but it is deemed best to make the reduction gradual. The income of the present year will justify the payment of $1,000,000 of the public debt, and leave a balance on hand at the close of the fiscal year of $1,080 827. The State Tax, at 2 mills, will fall in 1860 to $1,190,000, and this, with the other revenues of the State, will enable us to pay an additional million in 1860, and leave a balance on hand at the end of that year of $972,000. The State tax for 1861 can then be reduced to 1½ mills on the dollar, and so on until we can, by the rapid extinction of our debt in the mean time, afford to dispense with taxation altogether in 1864, or at least have a mere nominal rate, not exceeding a half mill.

There is no reason why the present generation should bear all the burden of this debt. Let us put it in the way of gradual extinction, without burdening ourselves too much; and the certainty of its extinction being secured, the amount of the annual reduction is of but comparatively little moment. The Constitution secures an annual reduction of at least $250,000, and we see no valid reason for being in too great a hurry to get much beyond that limit.

The bill to reduce the State tax, the reduction to take effect next year, passed the House unanimously.

THE New York Herald has a queer way of showing its partiality for the so-called democratic party. We do not wonder that the Washington Union has become tired of it, and that it evinces a disposition to cast its New York contemporary out of the ranks of the democracy. The former paper scarcely permits a day to pass in which it does not indulge in flings at its political associates an account of their corruption and imbecility. Here is a specimen of one of its ill-natured articles, which is, at least, a funny mode of backing up its friends:

"REFORMING THE DEMOCRACY—A HERCULEAN TASK.—A few members of the Democratic party in this city have had the hardihood to impose upon themselves the desperate task of reforming and improving the Democracy. This band of bold adventurers met at the Westchester House a few evenings since and talked over the fearful delinquencies and backslidings and incapacity of the men whom the Democracy of the Empire City have been of late addicted to placing in offices of trust and power. They agreed that if the party was to be saved from total destruction, this state of things must be put an end to; and they appointed a committee to prepare an address to the Democracy, to arrange for a mass meeting at Tammany Hall, and to perfect the organization of the reformatory movement. Of their sayings and doings on the occasion of this consultative meeting at the Westchester House, we give a report elsewhere.

"We sympathize with this small band of democratic reformers, but we have no faith in their ability to perform the herculean task which they have voluntarily undertaken. The cleansing out of the Augean stables is a trite metaphor, that readily suggests itself by way of analogy; but that and the other labors of the fabled son of Jupiter sink into insignificance when compared with the work of purifying the Democracy. We are afraid it is far beyond all such efforts, and in a state of such decomposition that salt cannot save it. Nevertheless, give the reformers a chance."

THE PRICE OF MURDER IN MICHIGAN.—Our readers will remember the case of Tyler, a deputy U. S. Marshal, who killed a man in Canadian waters while attempting to serve some process of the U. S. Court upon him. He has recently been tried in the U. S. District Court of Michigan, and found guilty of manslaughter. Judge Wilkins called him up for sentence on Monday last, and the punishment awarded him is thus set forth by the Judge:

"Your offense was committed on the 29th of November, and you have been kept in prison ever since, a period now over four months. This is taken into consideration, and as by the 3d section of the act of the 2d of March, 1857, the punishment of manslaughter as to the imprisonment and fine is left discretionary with the Court, this Court does now sentence you to pay a fine of $1 to the United States, and to be imprisoned in the gaol of Wayne county, State of Michigan, for and during the period of thirty days."

"Thirty days" is the period for which we send vagrants to jail in Pennsylvania; and it seems from this that the punishment which we award to a vagrant is deemed sufficient in Michigan for the punishment of manslaughter. The Detroit Advertiser truly characterizes the sentence as a farce. Tyler was guilty not merely of manslaughter, but of committing that offence in Canadian waters, where he had no right to attempt the service of U. S. process. It was an aggravated crime, and such a sentence is a disgrace to the Court and Judge inflicting it.

THE FREE BANKING LAW.—When the final vote was taking on this law, in the House, two of our representatives explained their votes as follows:

"Mr. M'Dowell, on the final passage of the bill, stated that he was not opposed to the general principles of a free banking law, but as the act, in its present shape, did not meet either his own views or those of his constituents, as he understood them, he voted 'no.' The provisions of the free banking law of New York, he thought, were better suited to the wants of the people of Pennsylvania, and if the proposed measure had been similar, he would have voted for it.

Mr. Irish desired to give his reasons for voting 'no.' The measure was one of great importance, and of a character which ought not to be acted upon hastily. Three months of the session are passed, and it is not more than a week ago since the subject was first broached in the House. He had been unable, from the pressure of other business, in this brief time, to give the subject that examination which its importance merits. It was a question which had not been agitated in the county to which he belonged, and he did not know that his constituents were in favor of the passage of such an act; he had received no communication nor information on the subject."

VIGORY EVERYWHERE.—We feel peculiarly jubilant, just now. The telegraph is bringing us news of the success, everywhere, of those who oppose the administration. Connecticut gives us a clean Republican victory. So does Michigan. Both of these States roll up majorities as heavy as in 1856, notwithstanding the drawbacks which local influences always exert in such elections. Michigan had just passed a stringent Registry law, and the locofocos expected to make capital out of that fact; but instead of injuring the Republicans it seems to have helped them. The majority is larger than last fall. Cleveland, last year democratic, is now Republican; Cincinnati the same; St. Louis gives a largely increased Republican majority, and Louisville gives a very de[illegible]osition majority. The administration part[illegible] out everywhere.

SOUTHERN CONVENTION.—[illegible] Wm. L. Yancey and other disunionists [illegible]ed another Southern Convention [illegible]ect in Vicksburg, on the 9th of May, 1859, to promote the disunion schemes of the southern nullifiers. Vicksburg once made short work with a crew of gamblers who disgraced that locality; what will she do with these political gamblers?

AUDITOR GENERAL.—Allegheny county was about the first to elect delegates to the opposition State Convention, and has instructed her delegates to support John M. Sullivan, of Butler co., for Auditor General. The Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, referring to this fact, says:

"The canvass for the nomination for Auditor General on the Republican ticket has been in quiet operation for some time, but not until lately has it exhibited itself to the public. It is thought and earnestly hoped, by many in all sections of this Commonwealth, who take a deep interest in seeing proper men nominated by all parties, that the Convention will, as now seems probable, nominate for that important office John M. Sullivan, the present deputy superintendent of the School Department—a man so eminently qualified and universally admired. Every one conversant with Mr. S.'s career as an official will testify to his uprightness, diligence and ability. His popularity in the West, and known reputation as an officer, render him unquestionably the most available of those mentioned for this office."

OPENING OF THE NEW YORK CANALS.—The canal commissioners have determined to open the New York canals for business on the 15th inst. Navigation has already been resumed upon the Pennsylvania canal throughout its entire length, and considerable business is doing on the eastern end; but on the western end the traffic upon it is altogether local. The Pennsylvania Road has absorbed all the through freight and the value of the canal to Pittsburgh is therefore materially lessened.

SURVEYOR GENERAL.—The Philadelphia Transcript brings out Mr. M'Dowell, of this county, as a candidate for Surveyor General. It says:

"After conversing with prominent politicians from all portions of the State, and gleaning over the country press, I am impressed with the belief that Robert P. M'Dowell, of Allegheny co., will be nominated for Surveyor General. This would make a very formidable nomination, as the gentleman enjoys great personal popularity throughout the country, and at the same time is known to be well versed in the varied interests and wants of the people."

WASHINGTON, April 4.—It is stated in the New York papers, and apparently with entire ignorance of the bearing of the admission, that the formidable expedition which is organizing there and elsewhere, is designed for Arizonia, and not for Cuba, as has been erroneously supposed. Curiously enough, the explanation in the Journal of Commerce, which was intended to relieve this enterprise of suspicion and disfavor, furnishes the best reasons for both. According to that paper, the movement is predicated upon an alleged grant of 29,000,000 acres of land by Comonfort, upon condition of repelling invasions of the Camanche and Apache Indians. It would be rather difficult to discover what Comonfort had to do with granting land in Arizonia, a territory acquired by purchase from Mexico. So far as the expulsion of Indians is concerned, the troops of the United States are stationed in New Mexico for that express purpose, and will hardly submit to interference by any band of adventurers.

The announcement states that one of the companies organized for this expedition is provided with two thousand Minie muskets, 1000 Sharpe's carbines, and a small park of artillery, military provision enough for two regiments, and another is a stock company in which shares have been distributed at $20 dollars each. These schemes seem to cover hillibustering and speculation, and will doubtless have branches established in all the large cities. In order that the reckless or weak may not be misled, it is proper the public should understand that the government has determined to prevent the entrance into Arizonia of any armed expedition whatever. If bodies of men choose to emigrate there peaceably, and with the ordinary evidences of such a purpose, they cannot be obstructed, but they will not be allowed to cross the New Mexican line, if preparing in organized and armed companies. That is the determination, and it may as well be heeded. The real design of this organization is against the northern Provinces of Mexico, which Mr. Buchanan prefers to manage in his own way, and without the aid of Gen. Henningsen.

All the reports which have been circulated of a real or supposed sale of Tenuantepec and other Mexican provinces by Miramon to European Powers are fabricated out of whole cloth. No direct communication has been had with him since he approached towards Vera Cruz, and for the best of reasons, that Juarez holds the outlet. It is much more probable that these stories have been circulated by partisans of the latter for the purpose of being returned to Mexico, and exciting prejudice against Miramon. In the present position of affairs there, an alienation of territory would be the last proposition ventured. —Phil. N. Amer.

POISONING OF REV. DR. JUNKIN'S FAMILY.—A letter from Lexington, Va., March 31st, to the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch, says: "This community has been thrown into a state of extreme excitement by the poisoning of Dr. Junkin, President of Washington College, and his entire family, on the night of the 20th of this month. The poison used was arsenic, and was put into cream used at supper, by a negro of the Doctor's name Donelly. All the family, including Dr. Junkin; Mrs. Fishburn and her child, Miss Fishburn, George Junkin, Jr., and a young student named Anderson, were poisoned; but the dose administered was so large that it acted as an emetic, thus saving their lives. All the sufferers are now well. Billy has been arrested, examined, and sent on for trial."

ST. LOUIS was last August the theatre of a most brazen fraud, termed an election, whereby Frank Blair was swindled out of his seat in Congress, and a person named J. Richard Barrett foisted into it by means of money taken from the Federal Treasury ostensibly to pay certain Army contractors, but really to defraud the people of St. Louis out of their political rights. St. Louis yesterday exposed and rebuked that scandalous fraud by almost overwhelming exhibition of the popular will. The entire Republican or Free Democratic ticket was carried by Two Thousand majority—the heaviest ever given by that City for any party at any election. It is a clean sweep. We shall see whether Mr. Dick Barrett will have the assurance to show himself at Washington on the back of that verdict.—N. Y. Trib.

READING, April 4, 1859.—The Democracy of Berks met in County Convention to-day, with a view to sustain Governor Packer, and select delegates to the Police State Convention to be held in Harrisburg on the 13th. No meeting ever held here, was so well represented from all parts of the county by the substantial Democrats. Hon. John Schwartz presided, assisted by fifty Vice Presidents, and some fifty or more delegates were elected to attend the State Convention.—The meeting was ably addressed by A. G. Green, Col. S. L. Young, A. E. Ballade, A. Jordon Schwartz, and the Hon. John Schwartz. Berks county will make King James the First tremble.

THE DEBT AND EXPENSE OF AUSTRIA.—Twelve years ago the annual expenditures of Austria were not quite $74,000,000. They are now equivalent to $170,000,000. Each intervening year the deficit has been counted by millions.—The fact is shown in comparative amounts of public debt, which in 1847 was less than $460,000,000, and is now equivalent to $1,140,000,000. The interest of this debt, payable yearly is no less than fifty-two millions. This statement gathered from official representations, may relieve any lingering surprise at the late failure to borrow in England the inconsiderable sum of thirty millions.

WINTER WHEAT IN EGYPT.—Mr. Underwood exhibited on Change this morning a bunch of growing wheat, taken from a field near Jonesboro, in the Southern part of the State. The stalks were, on an average, about thirty inches in length. He informs us that all along the Illinois Central Railroad, from Centralia to Cairo, the wheat looks splendid, and he was informed that twenty or thirty miles back, the crop was even more promising. A good breadth of land was sown, and farmers expect a much heavier yield than last year.—Chicago Press.

DWELLING DESTROYED BY FIRE.—The dwelling house of Mr. James Ales, situated near Greenfield, this county, was destroyed by fire, together with its contents, on the night of Tuesday of last week. It is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The loss is about five thousand dollars, two thousand of which was in money, which we learn, was in one of the drawers of a desk in the house. There was no insurance on the property. The inmates barely escaped with their lives.—Wash. Exam.

DEATH AT A PRAYER MEETING.—We learn from the Waynesburg Messenger that Mrs. Catharine Lemmons, of Aleppo township, Greene county, aged about sixty years, came to her death, on the Sabbath, the 20th ultimo, in the following singular manner: "She was attending a prayer meeting at "Windygap," and after several prayers had been made, the old lady was called on to pray—she responded, and after rising to her seat, she was noticed to totter and fall, by some one near, who caught her, when she immediately expired.

MANY of the Episcopal churches of New York city are sorely "put out" by a manifesto from Trinity Church Corporation, stating that the financial affairs of the concern are in such a bad way, that all further donations to weak parishes and other religious objects, outside the parish, must be discontinued at once. The revenues of the corporation during the past year are stated at $115,845, 56, and the expenditures $207,826 06. The expenditures of the current fiscal year are estimated at $179,080.

INDIANA law now requires a year's residence in that State before a divorce can be procured. "One who knows" assures us that the remedy is worse than the disease!—N. Y. Evening Post.

MESSRS. Editors:—As the time of one of our State Senators will expire with the present session of the Legislature, it is but right and proper that we should look around for a suitable person to fill that important station. The northern portion of the County has not had (I believe) a State Senator since John Brown, Esq., was a member, which is some twenty-five or thirty years ago.

Now, I think it but fair we should have a Senator from the north side at the next nominating Convention. I am satisfied if the other sections of the County would reflect a little, they would be perfectly willing to give us the candidate.

In view of this fact, allow me to suggest, through your columns, the name of J. W. F. WHITE, Esq., of Sewickly, as a gentleman well qualified for that position. He has large experience, and would represent the people well.

NORTHSIDE.

AN amusing incident took placeon the Avenue yesterday. A Democrat, from the interior of Pennsylvania announced that he had a number of the manuscripts of Gen. George Washington Bowman, attacking James Buchanan while he was a candidate for the Presidency, in 1848, and that he intended to furnish them to the States for republication. Do not be surprised if he should be gazetted for an office in a few days.—Wash. Cor. Phil. Press.

WHEAT PROSPECTS.—Yesterday brought in a great many of the farmers of this and adjoining counties—many of them with wheat. In regard to the prospects of the next crop, they were almost unanimous in saying that there is very little cause for fear. The last three or four weeks have worked a great change in the plant, and indications are now exceedingly favorable.—Alton Courier 2d.

MARYLAND CROPS.—The Kent News speaks favorably of agricultural prospects in that portion of the State. The wheat generally presents a fine and vigorous appearance on high lands, but on low-land it is by no means promising, being seriously injured and thrown out by the heavy rains and frost. The peach crop also promises well.

LORD MURRAY, a distinguished lawyer, died March 8, at his house in Edinburg. He was in his 81st year, and was the last, except Brougham, of those distinguished men who reflected such lustre on the Scottish capital throughout the first thirty or forty years of this century—Jeffrey, Playfair, Sidney, Smith, Thomas Brown, Horner, and Cockburn.

THE ITALIAN EXILES.—The Italian exiles who recently landed in Ireland are professional men with few exceptions, and men of liberal education. There are among them, lawyers 11, doctors 7, apothecaries 8, notaries 4, gentlemen 14, clergymen 7, tavern keepers 1, chemists 2, artists 6.

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—FEMALES SUFFERING WITH LOW SPIRITS AND DEBILITY.—A Tonic Stimulant, suitable to those peculiar periods in the life of every female, from its use in the medical world; something to be retained as a necessary component of every well-furnished Family Medicine Chest; to which, at those seasons, recourse may be had, with the confidence of finding relief from the nausea, ill consequences, and without having taken a medicine possessing antagonistic principles, to render dangerous another (hardly of the disease.

All three conditions we believe to be perfectly fulfilled in Boerhave's Holland Bitters. From the nature of the disease as here alluded to we have not thought proper to parade the names of those ladies who have unhesitatingly afforded us the evidence of the truth of the assertions we have make,—but all and every word can be substantiated to the satisfaction of the most incredulous. We offer one of the spontaneous, those, whether peculiar to the sex or not, which result from weakness of any particular organ, or general debility of the system. Its effects are almost magical, yet the cure radical. It communicates no violent shock to the system, but gently insinuating itself through the whole frame, rouses the vital energy to normal action, and, while enabling nature to throw off the cause, it thoroughly eradicates the effects of disease.

Are you nauseated in early morning, indisposed to rise? We earnestly request you to try the half of a teaspoonful—it surely will not harm. Yet we positively guarantee new accession of energy, and a cheerful, hopeful looking forward to the duties of the day.

Are you subject to nausea before or after eating? Try the same quantity before each meal. As we said before, it will not harm; yet we assure you of relief from that distressing loathing at the thought of food, and also from the disposition to vomit after partaking. We promise perfect digestion of what has been eaten.

If you find that the dose prescribed has been too great, diminish the quantity to suit your constitution.

ILLEGITIMACY.—The Genuine highly Concentrated Boerhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half pint bottles only, and retailed at $1 per bottle. The great demand for this truly Celebrated Medicine has induced many Imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Beware of imposition! See that our names is on the label of every bottle you buy.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, ss:—Personally appeared before me, an Alderman in and for the city of Pittsburgh, JOSEPH BARKER, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say,

That on Sunday, the 6th of March, ROBERT HAGUE, High Constable, and other Police Officers, came up to the Liberty street Railroad Depot and Hague asked me if I was going to speak to-day. I told them I was. They asked me where. I informed them that I was going to speak on some of the vacant lots near the Depot, or in an old warehouse which had been burnt. I told them that I was not going to speak on the public streets where I would disturb the people. Hague told me that was right. Hague then left me, and in a few minutes came back again. He then told me to speak on the Good-Intent lot—that there was a pile of plank on it that would make a good stand to speak from. I look at the place and told him that I thought the lot was too small—that I did not want to obstruct the street —that the crowd would be a large one. He told me to stand with my face towards Grant street, as there was more room on that side for the crowd. On leaving me he told me to give the Catholics hell—that they deserved all I could give them. I went up on the stand and commenced speaking. I spoke of the Mayor arresting two young men and putting them in jail, and when he brought them out before him for a hearing, he made a bargain with them that they would give him their likeness—to put in the "Rogues' Gallery" that he would discharge them. Others speaking on this subject the officers arrested me."

JOSEPH BARKER."

Sworn and subscribed before me this 5th day of April, 1859. C. W. LEE, Alderman.

GROBE'S NEW METHOD FOR THE PIANO FORTE, IN PRESS.—The undersigned publishers beg leave to announce that the method above mentioned will be issued in the month of April, 1859. A good instruction book for the Piano has long been wanting, and Mr. Charles Grobe has performed the labor, in getting this one up, in a most admirable and satisfactory manner. It will prove itself to be one of the most valuable guides to the student in the art of playing the Piano. Considering the author's capability, and long and unremitting devotion to the task of elementary teaching, we have strong reason to hope that the public are now to be furnished with a thorough, systematic, progressive and entertaining method for the Piano. We can confidently recommend it to teachers and pupils as one well adapted to the purposes of elementary instruction than any other with which we are acquainted. The plan pursued in this work is substantially the same as that developed in Gleichauf's method of teaching languages. It commences with the simplest elements. The progress made will be gradual, so that every step will be perfectly intelligible, and be rendered of positive value to the pupil. Every difficulty is met with promptly, and after their nature is thoroughly overcome by practice.

This method will undoubtedly provide teachers with a well digested, progressive and entertaining plan by which a sound and correct knowledge of the art of playing the Piano may be acquired, with comparatively little labor, and in so short a space of time as will almost seem incredible to those who have confined themselves to some of the tedious systems heretofore in use.

This work contains ten engraved figures, illustrating the different positions of the hands and fingers, and also a likeness of the author. Its typographical accuracy and appearance have never been equalled in any musical work that has come to this country. The price of this work will be $2,50, bound in cloth, gilt. Copies will be sent by mail, free of postage, on the receipt of the market price.
