H. CHILDS & CO. The Snaw Cass. --Mr. Swart:welder, for the defence, made the best speech to the jury on Thursday, that the nature of the case admitted; at least so it appeared to us. He could not, however, restrain the feeling of dirgust with which be looked upon the transaction with which Shaw was charged. He, however, of course based his defence upon the law and the treat-mony, and they doubles sustained his povisions. He took occasion in the course of his argument to animadvert with a show of unction upon the course of the press in this case. He spoke with dignified indignation in regard to its "interfer-ence" in such matters, and denounced its stric-tures with much severity. Its attempts to man-ufacture public opinion in such cases, and to drag from the hands of the Court the decisions in such matters before the great tribunal of pub-WHOLESALE BOOT AND SHOE WAREHOUSE, Hittsburgh Gazette.
