Selected patternoon the case of John F. MoClymonds, school teacher in the Fifth Ward, came up for trial. David Beck, father of a little boy named Johnny Beck, brought a suit negainst Mr. M'C for assault and battery. It is alleged that the teacher punished Johnny very severely wither ratan, and hence the soit. The defence brought on very many clittons of the Ward, School Directors and others who testified very strongly as to the excellent character and reputation of Mr. M'Clymonds as a gentleman and a teacher. A little boy, a pupil in the shool, named Kennedy Robb, testified that Johnny Beck didn't have his geography lesson, that when sent to his seat and told by his teacher to come out upon the floor and study it, he refused to comply, and then the teacher used the ratan upon the hoy's back and legs; the boy said Johnny wasn't whipped very hard and was semetimes quite obstinate. Other testimony from several bright boys from the school was adduced. The prosecution did not make out a very strong case as may be inferred from the fact that the jury

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 20, 1859.—Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton dined here, two weeks ago last Thursday, with a large party, Mr. Key, her brother, was also here, and at my suggestion, be was invited, because he lived in the same house with Mr. and Mr. Sickles to dine with him; and Mr. Sickles wished to invite all of those from whom he had invited Mr. Sickles said, do as you choose.

THERESA BAGIOL.
Written and signed in the presence of C. M. Ridgely, and Bridget Duffy, February 26th.
Mr. Brady handed the paper containing the confession of Mrs. Sickles to the counsel for the presenction, and requested that it be admitted as evidence. vidence.

Mr. Ould objected to its being received as no woman can be a witness for or against her hus-band. He said it did not relate to the question of the prisoner's insanity which the defence were trying to prove. They must show that the in-sanity existed, and let the cause alone. Mr. Graham said that the common law allowed Mr. Graham soid that the common law allowed them to prove causes instead of presuming it. They wanted to show that the prisoner had become intoxicated by the maddening bowl, that handed him by his wife, and that he had become insanc by her confession of her guiland his disgrace. He had a right to believe proof coming from his wife.

The argument was not concluded when the Court adjourned.
