pecuniary assistance to the Sardinian Governance to which, in this connection, the N. Y. Tribune gives to the farmers of the country:

"Plant and sow freely, persistently; for grain and meat are likely to be in demand next Fall. The war which now threatens is unlikely to be a short and cannot be a little one. It is likely to a short and cannot be a little one. It is likely to the array a million men in arms against each other, subtracting many times that number from productive industry to employ them in casting cannot, making powder, charging shells, etc. etc. All these must eat, and battle fields are not well adapted to the growth of food. We shall be disappointed if Europe does not afford us a large market for breadstuffs before the end of the current year."

The CLEYLLAND THILLS—We met a gentleman of the Cleveland pross in this city on Wedselds, who assured us that the "Democrate" of that region have sunk so low, have becomes of demoralized, have ranked themselves at such a fearful distance below the grade of common humanity, and have so far repudiated the sectiment that indicate the presence of manhood in the human breast, that they sought eagerly to get carrolled among the jurors, and to have a chance of trying, and if possible, of convicing the dittens of Oberlin who helped, as according to the word of God it was their bounden duty to do, the poor dying registrost to constitute the pursuer. The resolutions which were passed at the meeting in Salem, Oh66, and which we published yesterday morning, speak the sentiments of about seven-gighths of all the population of the Western Reierre. That, at least, is our opinion. What there may have been left of the o-called "Democracy" in all that fertile, beautiful and intelligent region, will disappear before the effects of this citral, which might make a Scregge or a Jeffries blosh if their dishancer done of the Western Reierre.
