THE MASSACHUSETTS TWO YEARS AMENDHEST.

There will be an election in Massachusetts next Monday, upon a proposed amendment to the Constitution of that State, by which, if adopted, no naturalized foreigner will be permitted to vote until two years after his naturalization. The amendment has excited a great deal of discussion, both in the State and out of it; and the Republicans of the west, together yith those of New York, have very kindly but firmly remonstrated with their Republican friends in Massachusetts against its adoption. The result is that many of the leading Republicans and Republican presses in the State have come out in opposition to it; and Hon. Henry Wilson has written a very strong letter recommending its defeat.

The great objection seems to be, not to the main principle involved in the amendment, but to the long period of disfranchisement it proposes. It is generally conceded that some time coghi to elsages between the taking out of naturalization papers and the exercise of the voting franchises, in order to prevent the discreption.

THE REV. Dr. Hashill, who was formerly a testing the first mixed of the carching with the while the discreption of the very deal that one time of the carching with the while. * * No such country as this for children on the face of the earth. THE REV. Dr. Hashill, who was formerly a testing the proposed amendment to the carching with the while the proposed amendment to the pr ought to elapse between the taking out of naturalization papers and the exercise of the voting franchise, in order to prevent the disgraceful practice now prevalent of manufacturing voters by hundreds and thousands on the very evo of an election and for the sole purpose of influencing it. Various terms have been proposed; and it, in this Massachusetts amendment, the limit had been fixed at ten days, a month, three months, or even six months, there would have been no reason to complain; but two years is too long, and the adoption of a period so unnecessarily lengthy gives it the appearance of vindictiveness and animosity. We trust that, for these reasons, the amendment will be rejected, and that its friends may be induced to try. these reasons, the amendment will be rejected, and that its friends may be induced to try it these reasons, the amendment will be rejected, and that its friends may be induced to try it with the change to a period more reasonable.

Mr. William M. Brown, the new editor of "J. B.'s" organ, the Constitution, is spoken of by the democratic press as not only a talented man, but the scine of a noble house. We do not think him a bit the better or worse for this; but does it not seem odd that presses calling themselves "democratic" should congratulate the party on having "the scine of a noble house" to conduct their national organ! Is it not kind of the Irish noblily to lead us their noble soions for such noble work? And may we not expect that this "noble" Irishman, who has just come over, having been naturalized but two years, will be able to teach the poor plebeians of this country that the true measure of rospect due to the first of American monarchs?

Levi folia to the first of the store can be dead to the first of the store can be sufficed. The same was immediately given, and show was at onge taken out, but of course over, having been naturalized but two years, will be able to teach the poor plebeians of this country the first of country lying northwest of innessots to British Columbia. The expedition is to be led by Col. W. H. Nobles, of St. Paul and Gen. S. B. Olimeted of Fort Ripley, who are appointed to that responsible post by the country and other country, M. A.
