PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1859.

The County Convention.

The Republican County Convention, which was held yesterday, was fully attended, every district being represented. The contest for the various nominations was a very warm one, and the struggle was protracted until a very late hour in the evening.

Having been engaged in attendance upon the Convention all day, we are unable, at the late hour at which we write, to find time or room for what we should like to say. We take occasion, however, to express our gratification at the harmony and good feeling which prevailed, and at the general good temper of the Convention. The ticket selected is, in the main, a good one, and well distributed over the county, and we shall support it cheerfully. There are, of course, a great many disappointments, and some acerbity of feeling; but these will in time wear off, and we have no doubt the ticket will prove a popular one. Its election is, of course, certain.

THE DANGER OF TOO MUCH GOLD.—The New York Evening Post—a free trade paper—captivated by the theory of M. CHEVALIER, the French savant, that society is about undergoing a revolution on account of the increase of gold, is very much concerned that the commercial world cannot rid itself of that precious article in such a proportion to the continued supply, as to prevent or at least delay the threatened calamity. The Post thinks the most feasible plan is to extend civilization and commerce to savage nations, and teach them the use of money, which, it thinks, will absorb a large portion of this highly dangerous metal. M. Chevalier, it will be remembered, argues that owing to the increased supply of gold, it is losing its relative value, and if some remedy is not applied, it will, after causing periodical revulsions, which will exercise the same deplorable influence on society that its scarcity was wont to exercise, spread ruin and starvation throughout the land. Wealth will lose its potency and money its great charm, under this new order of affairs, and all the old divisions of society will fall into chaos. With such a prospect, the Post is really in trouble as to the position of our own country, and earnestly looks to some new channel with which to drain from us the gold which is precipitated upon us from California, if not from Pike's Peake.

We can see no cause for the apprehension expressed by our New York cotemporary. The policy which it is advocating, in connection with the Democratic party, is doing the work of auriferous depletion for our country with sufficient speed to satisfy the most nervous disciple of the French philosopher. Three millions of dollars in gold left the port of New York in one vessel, a week ago, and more will follow with every departing steamer. This, according to the Post, is a happy riddance, although some old fashioned people might regard it in quite a different light. Indeed it strikes us that it would be the better plan, before we seek out barbarous nations as receptacles for our surplus gold, that we should allow a portion of it to flow in certain channels at home, by means of which our languishing manufactures and drooping trade might have more vitality infused into them. Factors who are willing to pay a heavy per centage for the use of money in order to keep their business in operation are not in immediate danger of reaching that condition in which gold will lose its standard value in their eyes. At a time when our chief article of export to foreign nations is our gold currency, and when we prefer the skill and labor of Europe to that of our own land, it seems like mockery to advance the idea that as a people, we are in danger of getting into difficulties from a surplus of gold coin. To advance this opinion to the idle workmen, who are clamorous for employment, and who are willing to be compensated in even the ragged representatives of gold, seems worse than ridiculous, and when urged by the advocates of the policy which has brought this misery on our country, it is but cruelly adding insult to the injury already inflicted. We prefer a well matured American system, by which our skill and genius may be fostered, and with it we are willing to risk all the prospective "ruin" which a musty French Savant may choose to invoke

DAUPHIN CO. FOR CAMERON.—The county of Gen. Cameron's life-long residence has added its testimony to the unbounded popularity of that gentleman in the Keystone State. The Harrisburg Telegraph, of the 31st ult., says: "By reference to the proceedings of the People's County Convention, it will be seen that resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the Senatorial course of Gen. Simon Cameron, and nominating him as a candidate for the Presidency. We have only time to-day to say that this compliment is richly merited, and that the action of the Convention will meet the hearty approval of the great mass of the Opposition party in Dauphin county, and we believe throughout the entire Commonwealth whose interests Gen. Cameron has always so faithfully and zealously advocated and defended."

In addition to the case of Bushnell and Langston upon which the Supreme Court of Ohio is to give its opinion to-day, there is another habeas corpus case just heard before it, and in which judgment will probably be rendered at the same time, which brings up the question distinctly and separately, whether obedience can be refused to a State writ of habeas corpus on the ground that the party in whose behalf it is issued is held under United States process.

To a writ directed to the jailor of Hamilton County, directing him to have before the Supreme Court at Columbus the body of one Reuben Johnson, with the cause of his detention, the jailor returns that he has the body of Johnson in his custody, but not under his control, inasmuch as he holds him as a prisoner of the jail of Hamilton County, under a certain commitment of which he annexes a copy, and also a copy of the indorsement of the United States Marshal thereon, made by the District Court of the Southern District of Ohio; that the Marshal, though requested, has refused permission to allow the body of the prisoner to be taken to Columbus, but, on the contrary, has lodged with the respondent a written prohibition, of which a copy is attached, so to remove him; upon which state of facts the respondent is advised by counsel that he has no legal right to produce the said Johnson before the Court at Columbus; wherupon he prays the Court to exonerate him and to dismiss him with his costs. The return appears to have been made with the express view of bringing this case within the law as recently laid down by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Wisconsin case.

THE most despotic governments endeavor to provide food for their famishing subjects, in times of scarcity or of sudden emergency; and often the principles of political economy are overlooked in the exercise of such acts of governmental charity. If the accounts from Washington are true a most atrocious illustration of the indifference of our rulers to the suffering of a large number of people has just been afforded. The deluded men who have swarmed by thousands to Pike's Peak are returning starving and destitute. As the chief means of transportation in that region are the hands of the government, it would seem natural that the government should feel an interest in relieving, to the extent of its power, the dreadful condition of so many of its citizens. It would seem natural also that an administration which had stretched the constitution and the laws over so many things that they were never intended to cover, would find authority to keep these men from starving, in the face of the public.

We are quite confident that there must be a mistake in the telegraphic dispatch that an armed escort has been ordered to accompany the trains with supplies for the army; at least we are confident that the object of the escort cannot be, as it is stated, to keep the famishing emigrants from getting a barrel of flour or a sack of rice. It may be quite proper to have some protection for the trains, and it does not follow that there is any intention of keeping the food from men who are starving on the plains.

In the Connecticut Legislature a bill has been introduced to repeal the present law of libel.—The papers of the State are all opposed to the measure, justly regarding the present law as a model one, which deserves not only to remain in force, but to be copied by other States. It provides that in every action for an alleged libel, the plaintiff may give proof of intention, and unless the plaintiff shall prove malice in fact, he shall recover nothing but his actual damage proved and specially alleged in the declaration.

The Old School General Assembly.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—Tenth Day—Second Letter.—In my letter written before the adjournment, I promised some extracts from the speech of Dr. McMaster, which occupied some two hours and a half in its delivery. The general impression seems to be that the Doctor utterly destroyed all his chances for a professorship at Chicago by his speech. It was bitter and sarcastic, and evidently met with but little sympathy from the house, which is strongly conservative. The speech was listened to quietly and attentively—no attempt to quash discussion. [We find ourselves unable, to-day, to publish this speech.—EDS. GAZ.]

At the conclusion of Dr. Rice's remarks, Mr. Mealeaster moved the previous question.

Dr. Smith, of Va., suggested that the matter would be arrived at more readily by laying Dr. McMaster's motion to postpone on the table. He so moved, and the motion was carried with but three nays.

The House then proceeded to the order of the day—Election of Professors.

Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology.—The nominations were read. The names of Drs. T. V. Moore and Wm. L. Breckinridge were permitted to be withdrawn. The result was as follows:

N. L. Rice	214	N. Murray	4
E. D. McMaster	45	J. F. McLaren	1
A. P. Fairchild	6	Blanks	3
John Hall	4
		Whole votes	277

Dr. N. L. Rice was declared duly elected. Dr. Thornwell and Judge Potts were appointed to notify him of his election.

Chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.—The names of D. X. Junkin, S. R. Wilson and John C. Lord, were withdrawn.

Dr. A. S. McMaster said he spoke on his own responsibility, and knowing the mind of his brother, when he declared that such was his opinion of the person whom the Assembly had just elected that he could not enter into those confidential relations with him which should obtain between professors in the same seminary.

The ballot was then taken on the second chair with the following result:

Willis Lord	218	John Hall	1
J. C. Moffat	23	S. J. P. Anderson	1
Aaron Williams	7	D. X. Junkin	1
A. D. Fairchild	7	Peck	1
J. F. McLaren	6	Blank	1
McMaster	3
S. R. Wilson	2	Whole vote	275

The Colonization Society.—While the tellers were counting the vote on the Second Chair, Dr. Reed, of Washington, Pa., offered a series of resolutions approving the Colonization Society.

A motion was made to lay them on the table. Two viva voce votes were taken without a decision. The House was then divided with the following result: yeas, 83; nays, 167.

Dr. Thornwell was sorry the resolutions were offered. The grounds on which he voted to lay them on the table were that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ is exclusively a spiritual body. He had always steadily resisted every effort to unite the church with any outside body, not because he did not approve such bodies, but because the Lord Jesus Christ had given the church her peculiar work to do. The Colonization scheme was doubtless born of Christian philanthropy, but the head of the church had never given a command to the church to engage in the colonization of free persons of color on the shores of Africa. Give to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's—to God the things that are God's. If the members of the Presbyterian Church wish to engage in this work, let them engage in it as members of this great commonwealth of ours, and not as members of the Presbyterian Church. She knows neither bond nor free, north nor south, east nor west. The moment you attempt to unite her to any worldly project, you despoil her of her glory. We have voted against recommending the Presbyterian Historical Society. So with this. We must vote out colonization, abolitionism, pro-slaveryism. He had been a member of nine or ten Assemblies and he had never put his hand to a resolution of this kind, and the church had steadily resisted them. We have but one duty—to preach Jesus Christ and Him Crucified. This is the position our church must take. To say that is to save this country is the church—a church that is not sectional—a church that is not political—a church that is for Christ and for Christ alone. He hoped the resolutions would be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. Anderson moved to lay this motion on the table. Lost.

Dr. Anderson's motion was carried. The Assembly then adjourned till half past eight Tuesday morning. M.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 31.—Eleventh Day.—The Unfinished Business was taken up—the election of Professors in the Seminary.

Chair of Historical and Pastoral Theology and Church Government.—The names of Dr. Anderson, of St. Louis; Rev. S. J. Baird, of New York; Dr. Edward D. Philadelphia; Dr. Gurley, of Washington, and Dr. Jas. Clark, of Philadelphia.

Dr. A. S. McMaster would call the attention of Assembly to the remarks he made last night in regard to the second chair. The same remarks would apply to this chair.

The ballot was then taken with the following result:

Leroy J. Halsey, 206; Scattering, 41; Blank, 7; whole number of votes, 254.

Narrative on the State of Religion.—While the votes were being counted, Rev. Dr. Sparrow, of Pensacola, presented the Narrative on the State of Religion. All the reports sent up from the Presbyteries proclaim this one interesting fact that the church of Jesus Christ is advancing in the work committed to her by her Great Head. Of the 123 presbyteries which have sent reports, 63 have been blessed with revivals. Of these, that of Ningpo, China, is worthy of special note. Chinese converts have voluntarily offered themselves for the work of the ministry. The wonderful work of grace on the U. S. Receiving Ship "North Carolina" is noticeable—70 of the converts having united with the Presbyterian church under the labors of one of our ministers. (1) All the churches which were visited last year still retain the spirit of those refreshing seasons. None of them appear to have been visited by that reaction of coldness and formality which so often follows such seasons. (2) The general prevalence of the spirit of prayer is a most noticeable feature of the year. (3) Great attention has been paid to the religious instruction of the young. (4) There has also been an increased attention to the religious instruction of the colored people. (5) Our colored church has for ten months enjoyed a continuous revival. The churches are growing in the grace of giving for the spread of the gospel. (6) There has also been what may be denominated a revival among the elders of the church. The evidences of this most important change are to be found in those conventions of elders which have been held in so many places.

Some of the reports present facts which call for admonition on the part of this Assembly, and for humiliation on the part of all those members of the church who are bowing at the shrine of the god of this world, speaking the language, conforming to the customs and following the abominations of this world. The report closes with a view of the prospective work of the church—a glorious field for which she is equipped with all the appliances. All that is needed is that Zion should fully awake to the responsibility that rests upon her. The report was adopted and printed in the minutes.

The Assembly then went into an election for the Chair of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.—The names of Drs. Lyons, Yeomans and John H. Rice were withdrawn from nomination. The ballot was then taken with the following result:

W. M. Scott, 165; J. F. McLaren, 45; C. Elliott, 9; E. C. Wines, 7.

Dr. Scott was declared elected. The faculty elected was the ticked chosen by a caucus of local representatives of the North-west, on Saturday night.

Board of Domestic Missions.—The Assembly then went into an election for member of the Board of Domestic Missions. For this two tickets were in the field—one supported by the friends of the present Board, the other by those who favor change in the government and policy of the Board. The latter ticket was elected, and is as follows:

Those marked with an asterisk (*) are not on the regular ticket, and received 111 to 113 of the whole number of votes, 213.

The election for Directors of the new Seminary resulted as follows:

FOR ONE YEAR—Ministers: John H Brown, D Stevenson, S J P Anderson, N West, Jr, G Axtell. Elders: H K Gamble, J D Thorpe, Simon Towle, Jas Lamb, John Todd.

FOR TWO YEARS—Ministers: J G Brown, J M Faris, J M Lowrie, Henry Neill, T M Cunningham. Elders: J O Orrier, J D Booth, A P Bird, Jesse I Williams, Saml Russell.

FOR THREE YEARS—Ministers: S T Wilson, J M Buchanan, J N Ewing, J P Cowan, Saml Steel. Elders: O A Spring, Willis Lord, Wm Bailey, Thos Foster, R Lowa.

FOUR YEARS—Ministers: Wm Speer, R G Thompson, W W Harsha, H M Robertson, R C Matthews. Elders: Wm Penman, Thos H Baker, N C Thompson, W G Holmes, Jas M Ray.

Elections were held for members of the Boards of Publication and Education.

Judicial Case No. 1 was taken up. Appeal of Alexander Frazer, from the Synod of Buffalo. M.

ANTI-SLAVE TRADE MEETING AT VICKSBURG.—The citizens of Vicksburg held a mass meeting on the 21st ult., to express the public sense regarding the course of the late Convention in that place in reference to the opening of the slave trade. Henry S. Foote called the meeting to order. W. L. Sharkey was President. Strong resolutions were passed. The Whig says:

"The speeches of Judge Sharkey, William C. Smedes, Esq., Col. T. S. Martin, Rev. Dr. Marshall, and others, were rapturously applauded, which plainly showed that the popular was the conservative cause, in favor of maintaining the laws of the land and respecting the rights of humanity, as well as against the introduction of 'Guinea niggers' to reduce the price of labor."

THE Archbishop of Vienna has fulminated a denunciation of Louis Napoleon and the King of Sardinia, whom he declares to be enemies of the Church, of good order of vested rights, and in fact, of almost everything in the smallest degree respectable. Per contra, the Archbishop of Paris has blessed the arms of the French legions departing for Italy, and prayers are offering up in all the French churches for their triumph over the Austrian enemies.

DYSPEPSIA.—The worst foe of humanity is so well known, that we hardly feel disposed to occupy time or space in its exposition. For here ranged suffering from one or another of its varied forms. In fact, it is either a cause or a consequence of almost every other disease, and taken in this stage, we believe one rem dy—DERBIGNY'S HOLLAND BITTERS—will always mitigate, if not effect a permanent cure. We might use stronger language, but, as we are addressing a reasoning as well as a reasonable community, desire to avoid the prejudice which would attach to what would seem mere boasting.

Indigestion, Heartburn, Headache—Sick and Nervous—in fact, all that have their origin in impaired digestion—in which are included BILIOUS DISORDERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, Mental Disorders, Irritability, Indisposition to Think, Impatience, Depression of Spirits, Nervous Fears and Trembling, Desire for Solitude, and a number of other affections of this class, rendering a man unfit for intercourse with the world and the society of his family—will all, in most instances, be found to have proceeded from that diseased state of the digestive organs which this medicine is so eminently calculated to relieve.

BEAR CAREFUL.—The Genuine highly Concentrated Derbigne's Holland Bitters is put up in half pint bottles only, and retailed at $1 per bottle. The great demand for the truly Celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Beware of imposition! See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.

RICHARDSON'S

IRISH LINENS,
Damasks, Diapers, &c.

CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see these goods with the Trade Mark, and a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the fabric. This caution is rendered essentially necessary as large quantities of inferior goods, under various names are imported, season after season and sold with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury they inflict alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed on with goods of a worthless character.

We will continue to transact the Exchange and Banking Business in all its branches.
