MANUFACTURERS OF WHITE AND EXTRACE, and Wholesale Declars in Oils, Paints, Variables and Turnibles and T .Furniture Pittsburgh Gazette. Social Life sof the Chief End of Man.—A popular lecturer at Chicago lately advocated with some plausibility, the drinking and dancing customs of other countries, as a means of promoting social intercourse, and adding to the animation and grace of general society. To this the Congregational Herald replies with some very spt remarks:

"The value of social life has been unduly magnified. It is of far less moment than domestic life. That a man should please and entertain his neighbors or acquaintances, for a few moments or hours, it may be, while he is with them divided into insignificance by the side of the question, whether he makes happy the companion of his life, and the children whose weal or woo for time and eternity, depend much on a $2,000,320 fc. Persons in want of Wurniture will find this a rare opporion of his life, and the children whose weat or woe for time and eternity, depend much on a father's influence. That a woman should be fascinating at the social party, what is it compared with shedding the radiance of love and kindness on husband and children in her family? Any social life that would interfere with these most seared home dutes, will prove a curse, not alone to the families immediately affected, but to society at large. We shall owe no gratitude to him who shall so solve the social problem as to disturb the happiness of the fireside." They say, 'We sin't to take it as we have done; no we ain't. Baltimore has cheated us long enough, and now insulted us, and we'll quit her.' Without joking, there never was seen a set of more pitiable, creatfallen donkeys than these same slaveholding country gentlemen, who came hither under the impression that they were about the biggest men in the country, found themselves contemptible, (they ought to have known that before,) and so disappeared to be seen no more. I send you a copy of the last day's proceedings, I think one goatleman proposed that every poor man in the State 'ought to have one nigger.' REV. CALVIN W. RUTER IS DEAD!-This old

day morning, which was characterized by his usual real and shility. After returning to his home, he fell down and expired without speak-ing a word. He died, as he had lived, with his armor on, and with his face to the great enemy of his creed. The news of the old man's de-parture will be received in general corrow, and cause strong men to weep.—Medicon Cour.
