a great amateur of oysters. He said he never yet had been able to eat enough at one sitting, or, as he expressed it, "tout zon zout." I resolved to procure him that eatisfaction, and I invited him to dinner. He came. I kept time with him up to the third deran, when I let him go on alone. He had eaten thirty-two deren; the operation taking an hour, the person who opened them being rather elow; and as I had not dined I stopped him when he appeared only in fall swing. "Mon cher," I said, "it is not your faste to eat your zoul of oysters to-day. Let us dire!" We did so, and he made as hearty a dinner as if he had been fosting.

heresy of Congressional intervention, instead of being allowed communion with the Democracy you should be kicked into the camp of the enemy, where you really belong — Enquirer.

MR. Cosa's demand for $5,000,000, so soon MR. Cons's demand for S5,000,000, so soon after the declarations of an overflowing treasury that were put forth on official authority, shows the insufficiency of the present revenue system. For the needs of the government. The President strongly recommended a modification; Mr. Cobb opposed and ridiculed the suggestion, and it is said that he jocosely explained the difference between himself and the President by saying that Mr. Buchana was opposing the alministration. The views of the Secretary prevalled with Congress, and the result is continual ministration. The views of the Secretary prevailed with Congress, and the result is continual borrowing. The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier & Enquirer says that, pretty soon, "Mr. Cobb, in the name of the United States, may be expected to stop every acquaintance with the inquiry—have you ary ten shillings about you?"

FREE LANDE IN MISSOURI.—The new Mayor of St. Geneviere, Missouri, in his message to the Board of Aldermen, uses the following expressive language on the Free Labor question:

"AL & time when everything indicates an early change in the institutions of the State, consequently in the decline of the fatel (Santhern were provided in the change in the institutions of the State, consequent on the decline of the fatal Southern prejudices, which have so long obtained, resulting in a large influx of emigration from the prosperous States of the North, it is both the duty and interest of the citizens of those towns lying on the great highway over which they must pass, to give an assurance not only of protection to person and property, but of warm sympathy in their principles. It affords me pleasure to state on the part of our citizens that me such prejudice against free white labor, which characterises some of our Missouri river towns, is telerated here, that men of all climes and principles will find a hearty welcome at our hands."

BERIOUS INVERENCE. - The Mobile Tribune, re ferring to a rumor that a cargo of slaves had re-ferring to a rumor that a cargo of slaves had re-cently been landed on the Florida coast, says: "We are informed that Madawe Rumor has told the truth in this case. A cargo of Africans was recently landed on the coast of Florida, and some of the barbarians are at the Horida, and law from Mobile. The law is a dead letter. The Her from Mobile. The law is a beau factor and Fooring judges, as we infer from a decision made recently at Key West, are in "cahoot" with the slave merchants, pechaps sharing with them a part of the profits of the traffic."
